

Quarterly Issues and Programs List for Station WDSO

2nd Quarter 2023

April 1st, 2023 - June 30, 2023

Section I: Issues

- A. Education- Historically Speaking
- B. Animal Care- Pet Talk
- C. Arts and Entertainment- Naturally Speaking
- D. Community- Porter County Perspective
- E. Student Life – Chesterton High School Robots Club

SECTION II: Responsive Programs

A. Education:

Historically Speaking – Hosted by Serena Ard, curator of the Westchester Township History Museum, news and notes from the museum. Broadcast on May 4, 2023 at 9:00 am. Rebroadcast May 4, 2023 at 12:00 pm. Topic: The history surrounding famous shipwrecks which took place on Lake Michigan, from the earliest western settlements through more current disasters. TT: 38 Minutes 21 Seconds.

B. Animal Care:

Pet Talk – Hosted by local Veterinarians, tips on how to keep your pets happy, healthy, and enrich their lives. Broadcast on April 13, 2023 at 9:00 am. Rebroadcast April 13, 2023 at 12:00 pm. Host: Dr. Johanna Nimmeth. Topic: Potbellied Pigs. Tips for caring for Potbellied Pigs as pets to keep pig pets happy and healthy. TT: 10 Minutes 03 Seconds.

C. Arts and Entertainment:

Life in the Credits: Hosted by Chesterton High School graduates, Ben Blohm and Susan Swarner, they discuss life in the entertainment business with various guests and review the guest's film of choice. Broadcast date: Monday, May 29, 2023 at 4:00 pm. Host: Susan Swarner and Ben Blohm. This week's guest, actor, writer, producer Chris Witaske. The hosts and their guest review the movie Airplane! and chat about his career and how he became involved with entertainment business, starting with his humble beginning as a birthday party magician. TT: 29 Minutes 47 Seconds.

D. Community:

Porter County Perspective: WDSO News Director, Jo Parlock interviews local residents about upcoming events, community organizations, and issues effecting Northwest Indiana. Broadcast on Thursday, April 6, 2023 at 4:00 pm and Rebroadcast Friday April 6, 2023 at 12:00 pm. Host: Jo Parlock Guest: Kevin Nuppanu, local podcast creator. Jo and her guest discuss all that the Valparaiso Parks Department has to offer the community, including programs, sports, classes, kid's camps, and detail about their newest park being built now, the Valparaiso Skate Park. TT: 50 Minutes 46 Seconds.

E. Student Life:

CHS Weekly Report: Broadcast April 27, 2023 at 4:00 pm Rebroadcast April 28, 2023 at 12:00 pm . Each week members of Chesterton High School's faculty interview students about their activities and student life. Host: WDSO Operations Manager, Emily Fletcher. Guests: 4 German exchange students, Martin, Suzie, Willie, and Sophie. This week the host interviews 4 German exchange students who were spending several weeks visiting Chesterton High School, they discussed the differences in culture, what they've explored and things they have enjoyed. TT: 39 Minutes and 21 Seconds.