

Quarterly Issues and Programs List for Station WDSO

3rd Quarter 2023

July 1, 2023 – September 30, 2023

Section I: Issues

- A. Community- Porter County Perspective
- B. Environment- Naturally Speaking
- C. Student Life- CHS Newspaper
- D. Arts and Entertainment- Life in the Credits
- E. Animal Health – Pet Talk

SECTION II: Responsive Programs

A. Community:

Porter County Perspective – Chesterton High School student and WDSO News Director, Braden Kennelly interviews community members about upcoming events, community organizations, and issues effecting Northwest Indiana. Broadcast date: September 22, 2023 at 4:00 pm and Rebroadcast September 23, 2023 at 12:00 pm. Host: Braden Kennelly Guests: Cast members and directors of the upcoming production of Murder on the Orient Express. The play being performed at the Chicago Street Theater in Valparaiso, Indiana. The guests discuss how this play was brought to life from beginning to its opening date, October 6th, 2023 and how other can get involved with community theater. Talk Time: 28 Minutes 22 Seconds.

B. Environment:

Naturally Speaking – Hosted by Lauren Rossi, tips on how get the most out of local National Park such as trail recommendations and upcoming events being held at the Indiana Dunes National Park. Broadcast on September 4, 2023 at 9:00 am and again on September 4, 2023 at 12:00 pm. Host: Lauren Rossi. This episode talks about where to best see fall colors on hiking trails within the national park and upcoming family friendly fall themed events such as the upcoming Harvest Festival. TT: 8 Minutes 45 Seconds.

C. Student Life:

CHS Weekly Report- Weekly feature hosted by one of Chesterton High School's principal or vice principals. Each week members of a club or sports team come into WDSO to discuss their club or sport with the host. Broadcast date: Wednesday, September 27 at 7:45 am and rebroadcast at 12:15 pm. This week the senior staff members of the Chesterton High School Newspaper, The Sandscript, join us in the WDSO studios to discuss their roles on the newspaper and the process of putting together a great issue, including photos, sports reporting, student interviews and different features and reports. They also discuss advice to other reporters of how to improve their writing skills and how it really is a team effort. TT: 21 Minutes 08 Seconds.

D. Arts and Entertainment:

Life in the Credits - Hosts Susan Swarner and Ben Blohm interview members of the film industry about the role they play to bring you movies and television and speak about their guest's favorite movie. Broadcast on Monday, September 25, 2023 at 4:00 pm. Guest: Voice Actor, Alex Thomas. The hosts and their guest discuss how he was able to break into the world of voice acting and different projects he has been apart of, and how others can pursue voice acting if they choose to. and their guest's favorite film, Pee-Wee's Big Adventure. TT: 55 Minutes 29 Seconds.

E. Animal Health:

Pet talk - Veterinarians from the Arbor View Animal Hospital hold monthly informative sessions about pet and animal health, and how to your pet their best life possible. Broadcast September 18, 2023 at 9:00 am and Rebroadcast September 12, 2023 at 12:00 pm. This week Dr. Love explains the importance of bring in your pet for their yearly checkup, including bloodwork and physical exam and how this can extend the life of your pet. TT: 14 Minutes 15 Seconds.