

KRTG Carthage
Significant Issues
3rd Quarter 2014

ISSUES LIST ASCERTAINED BY INTERVIEWS WITH COMMUNITY LEADERS
JULY – SEPTEMBER 2014 QRTR

(not in order of importance)

Funding for the arts
More sidewalks
Start small businesses
Credit repair
Financial counseling
Unsupervised pets
Unbanked individuals
Financial needs
Robbery/theft
Financial education
Loans
Underbanked individuals
Budgets
Balancing a checkbook
High school dropouts
Investing
401 K
I RA
Mental illness
Autism
Brain disorder
Bipolar
Schizophrenia
Married issues
Therapists
Incarceration
Homicide
Suicide
Homeless
Depression
ADHD
Support groups
Advocacy
Medicaid
Emotional issues
Guilt
Shame
Hurt
Stress
Foreclosure

Depression
Divorce
OCD
Poverty
Uninsured
“working poor”
Mentors/ role models
Gangs
Crime
Sex trafficking
Prostitution
Drugs
Alcohol
Murder
Racism/race issues
G e d
Technical skills
Release of felons back into the community
More activities for kids
Lack of supervision for kids
Heart defects
Medical facilities
Translation
Hospitality
Child slavery
Civil rights
Immigration
Youth rights
Criminal law reform
Religious freedom
Disciplining children
Bad language
Bullying
Over incarceration
Domestic abuse
Sexual abuse
Seizures
Stroke
Voting fraud
Being held accountable for your actions
Cultural diversity
Fitness
Childhood obesity
Animal cruelty
Wheel chair bound individuals
Self esteem

Modesty
Anger management
Self respect
Child support
Homicide cases
Senior Issues
Refugee services
Peacefulness
Youth programs
Tolerance

ISSUES OF CONCERN
ADDRESSED IN RESPONSIVE PROGRAMMING
IN THE THIRD QUARTER, 2014

1. Married Issues: Programs that give instructions to husbands and wives on how to treat each other.
2. Bullying: Instructions for individuals to follow so they can stop being taken advantage of.
3. Finances: Money Management tips for saving in this economy.
4. Mentors: Encouraging stories that show how being a mentor can be an everyday lifestyle.
5. Racism: Stories of how people have gone above and beyond boundaries that were in their way.
6. Family Issues: Real life examples of situations that families are dealing with every day.
7. Teen Pregnancy: Examples of women who have overcome being adolescent Moms.

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS REPORT

Third Quarter 2014
(July 1st – September 31st)

MOST SIGNIFICANT ISSUE-RESPONSIVE PROGRAMMING

ISSUE: MARRIED ISSUES

The Urban Alternative

September 3-4, 2014

8:30 A.M.

23 Minutes of a 25 Minute Program

Dr. Anthony Evans starts a series on marriage and on this program he addresses how a husband should treat his wife.

Revive our Hearts

July 16-18, 2014

9:30 A.M.

23 Minutes of a 25 Minute Program

Dr. Emerson Eggerich, author of “Love and Respect” speaks about men loving their wives and women respecting their husbands.

ISSUE: BULLYING

Bookshelf

July 16-25, 2014

4:00 P.M.

23 Minutes of a 25 Minute Program

Drama about a man who bullied others in a series titled “Summer of Disarray”.

Insight for Living

September 17-19, 2014

8:00 A.M.

28 Minutes of a 30 Minute Program

Chuck Swindoll speaks on bullying in marriages and how to handle them.

ISSUES: FINANCES

Legal Alert

August 27, 2014

5:00 P.M.

2 Minutes of a 2 Minute program

They discuss the importance of having a will, especially families that have children and brought up important questions such as who will be the children's guardian, how do you donate money, how do children split up property?

Haven Today

September 24-25, 2014

2:00 P.M.

25 Minutes of a 30 Minute Program

Charles Morris gives listeners money management tips.

ISSUES: MENTORS

Revive our Hearts

July 23-25, 2014

9:30 A.M.

23 Minutes of a 25 Minute Program

Nancy Leigh starts a new series titled "Authentic Mentoring".

Focus on the Family

July 29, 2014

7:00 P.M.

23 Minutes of a 25 Minute Program

Jim Daly says that mentors are all around. Your children should look up to real live heroes and should learn important lessons from them such as integrity.

ISSUES: RACISM

Focus on the Family

August 1, 2014

7:00 P.M.

23 Minutes of a 25 Minute Program

Gold medalist gymnast Gabby Douglas talks about her childhood and how she overcame racial barriers and other issues.

Unshackled

August 5, 2014

4:00 A.M. & 8:00 P.M.

23 Minutes of a 25 Minute Program

The true story of an African American man who experienced horrible discrimination but rejected hatred after trusting in Jesus.

ISSUES: FAMILY ISSUES

Family Life Today

August 26-28, 2014

12:30 P.M.

23 Minutes of a 25 Minute Program

Steve Farrar the author of “Point Man” discusses marriage and family issues that men are struggling with in this day and time.

Insight for Living

August 14-21, 2014

8:00 A.M.

23 Minutes of a 25 Minute Program

Chuck Swindoll deals with issues such as parent/child conflicts, rebellion, and children who due to the economy have to move back in with their parents.

ISSUES: TEEN PREGNANCY

Focus on the Family

August 27, 2014

7:00 P.M.

23 Minutes of a 25 Minute Program

Mary Flo Ridley was a guest on this program and she explained how imperative it is to now start talking with our kids about sex at an early age and preparing them for temptation.

Revive our Hearts

September 3, 2014

9:30 A.M.

23 Minutes of a 25 Minute Program

Nancy Leigh DeMoss gives examples of how you can be an attractive and modest woman without all the sexual overtones.