

WEVO, WEVS, WEVC, WEVQ, WEVE, WEVJ, WEVN, WEVHIssues and Program Report*3rd Quarter 2019

The following is a listing of some of the significant issues responded to by NHPR along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period listed above. The listing is by no means exhaustive.

Topic: Crime
Date:	Time:	Duration (mm:ss):	Program Title	Description
9/14/19	7:00 am	:43	Weekend Edition Saturday	Hillsborough County Attorney Michael Conlon says there's still plenty of work for him at his office, despite the Attorney General's decision to take over all criminal cases. Conlon says he will manage the office's budget and all hiring and personnel issues, and do whatever he can to support the attorneys in his office.
9/15/19	9:00 am	:26	Weekend Edition Sunday	Manchester police are investigating the death of a 57-year-old man after an inner-city fight. Robert Lachance was transported to a hospital Friday night after being found with serious injuries stemming from a physical altercation on Spruce Street. Police say his death is not the result of a random act. They have charged 44-year-old Daniel Samaria with first-degree assault.
9/17/19	5:30 am	:38	Morning Edition	Nearly sixty people gathered in Lebanon on Monday night to support people recently arrested by federal immigration officials. 24 people were detained earlier this month - Four at the recent Border Patrol checkpoint in Lebanon.

Topic: Education
Date:	Time:	Duration (mm:ss):	Program Title	Description
9/14/19	8:00 am	1:07	Weekend Edition Saturday	Parents in Nashua are voicing concerns over a decision by the school district to bus students offsite for special education services. NHPR's Sarah Gibson has more.
8/15/19	9:00 am	60:00	The Exchange	A new law requires schools in New Hampshire impliment suicide prevention policies , which include prevention training for school staff. The measure comes amid concern about New Hampshire's high youth suicide rate. We find out how schools are preparing, and what some are already doing, and discuss the value this training brings to school staff and students.
8/12/19	9:00 am	60:00	The Exchange	We examine how teachers themselves are educated, including how aspiring teachers are certified. We'll also explore how teacher training programs have changed to meet the needs and ambitions of today's students, and why many educators say professional development over the course of their careers is often not useful.

Topic: Politics
Date:	Time:	Duration	Program	Description

		(mm:ss):	Title
9/11/19	8:30 am	:23	Morning Edition	Republicans in Iowa and New Hampshire are vowing to hold a caucus and primary next year, even as party leaders in South Carolina, Nevada, Arizona and Kansas have canceled their contests to help smooth President Donald Trump's path to reelection.
9/18/19	9:00 am	60:00	The Exchange	NPR's senior political editor discusses covering the current presidential primary, the role of the media in political coverage and what makes this 2020 election season unique. How do reporters decide what to cover with such a large field of primary candidates? And voters, how are you keeping up...or are you checking out?
9/5/19	9:00 am	60:00	The Exchange	We ask the Democrat representing New Hampshire's first Congressional district about his work on Capitol Hill and what he's been hearing from Granite Staters while touring the state this summer. We also get his take on some recent news, including last night's town-hall discussions on climate change with Democratic presidential candidates, local disputes over opioid policy, and the immigration debate.

Topic: Health
Date:	Time:	Duration (mm:ss):	Program Title	Description
9/10/19	8:30 am	:58	Morning Edition	More people in Manchester and Nashua are using the opioid overdose drug Narcan to revive people after an overdose. NHPR's Sarah Gibson has more.
9/24/19	9:00 am	60:00	The Exchange	The new statewide program for people seeking addiction treatment, The Doorway , is described as a "hub and spoke" system that includes nine locations around the state, called "hubs," where people can just walk in and begin the process of getting help. The system was set up about nine months ago. We're finding out how it's working in certain areas of the state.
9/12/19	4:30 pm	:41	All Things Considered	U.S. Senator Jeanne Shaheen says she's glad to see the Trump administration's announcement that it would move to ban flavored e-cigarettes. Shaheen said the surge in youth vaping is alarming and banning the e-cigarettes is an important first step to tackle this public health crisis.

Topic: Environment
Date:	Time:	Duration (mm:ss):	Program Title	Description
9/12/19	6:00 am	1:00	Morning Edition	State legislators hope to override vetoes of five bills they say are key to combating climate change and developing new sources of energy in New Hampshire. NHPR's Annie Ropeik has more.
9/12/19	7:00 am	1:08	Morning Edition	Seacoast towns are testing out a new state framework to help plan for rising seas, stronger storms and other coastal risks expected to increase with climate change. The state is taking

				feedback on that framework through the end of this month. Officials from the Department of Environmental Services held two workshops on it this week.
9/20/19	5:00 pm	:49	All Things Considered	Governor Chris Sununu has joined a bipartisan group of governors asking Congress to include PFAS chemical reforms in an upcoming defense spending bill. Sununu signed a letter to two Congressional committees, along with 13 other governors from states affected by PFAS contamination.