Colorado Broadcasters Assoc/Colorado Broadcasters Assoc	PSA	July	30	:30	Every parent deserves to know the truth about vaccinations. But this day and age, it's hard to tell what that is. So we're just gonna lay it on the line: The choice to immunize is for the good of your child. When they're safe and protected, they can get out there and be kids—learn, live, experience, enjoy. Plus, immunization is an important choice you make for good. Once and for all. For their whole, entire, livelong lives.
Ad Council PSA/Autism Awareness	PSA	Sept	5	:30	Autism is one of the fastest-growing serious developmental disorders in the United States. Today, 1 in 68 children is diagnosed, a nearly 30% increase in three years. Despite this high prevalence, research shows that many parents of young children have very little knowledge about the signs of autism and are not seeking help early enough. While there is currently no cure for autism, early detection and intervention can result in critical improvements across the lifespan. The campaign was developed by BBDO and Latinworks, and includes a full suite of TV, radio, print, outdoor and digital assets. TV and radio assets are available in both English and Spanish. The latest round of creative, entitled "World of Autism" takes audiences through an imaginative world to illustrate the signs of autism. The PSAs encourage parents to visit AutismSpeaks.org/signs
Colorado Broadcasters Assoc/Colorado Broadcasters Assoc	PSA	Sept	40	:30	The Colorado Department of Public Health & Environment and Colorado Children's Immunization Coalition have teamed to remind Colorado residents that the flu is back and it is everywhere. Ad Council PSA/ST. JUDE PSA	PSA	Aug/Sept	157	:30	At St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital, our mission is clear: Finding cures. Saving children. When you share our new PSAs, you’re helping St. Jude lead the way the world understands, treats and defeats childhood cancer and other life-threatening diseases. Because most of our funding comes from individual supporters, families never receive a bill from St. Jude for treatment, travel, housing or food—because all a family should worry about is helping their child live. And St. Jude freely shares the discoveries made, so every child saved at St. Jude means thousands more children can be saved around the world and in your community. St. Jude won’t stop until no child dies from cancer. You can help. Continue the St. Jude mission by sharing our PSAs today or donating at St. Judes.
OBESITY AND FIREARM PROBLEMS AMONG CHILDREN	Perspectiva Nacional	7/2/17	6:00AM	8:00	We addressed the dangers of leaving firearms accessible to children and how these carelessness acts can be the cause of many misfortunes. We also talked about the problem of obesity and why Hispanics are more prone to this disease. We interviewed Su Nui, a nutritionist and registered dietitian.
TRUMPCARE IMPACT ON HISPANICS	Perspectiva Nacional	7/9/17	6:00AM	9:00	We analyzed the report of the Congressional Budget Office that revealed the impact the Senate health plan would have on the Hispanic community. This report caused nine Republican senators to say that they would reject "Trumpcare" if it was put to a vote this week which is why Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell postponed the vote. We discussed this with Raúl Ruiz, California Democratic congressman and Annette Raveneau of "Families USA".
OBAMACARE REPEAL LOSING SUPPORT	UniMás News Briefs	7/18/17	5:20PM	:29	Senate GOP leaders have abandoned their effort to dismantle and simultaneously replace the Affordable Care Act, after the defections of two more Republican senators left the party short of the votes needed to try to pass the more straightforward Obamacare repeal bill.
SENATOR JOHN MCCAIN RETURNS FOR OBAMACARE VOTE	UniMás News Briefs	7/25/17	5:18PM	:29	Senator John McCain will make a dramatic return to the Senate for a make-or-break vote on Republican healthcare legislation, just days after being diagnosed with brain cancer. An unusually large number of GOP senators have signaled resistance to the first procedural step to begin debate on overturning the Affordable Care Act. Democrats warn that any vote to push the bill forward could lead to legislation that harms consumers, stripping insurance coverage from millions of people who received it under the Affordable Care Act.
OPIATE CRISIS IN THE U.S.	Perspectiva Nacional	8/20/17	6:00AM	8:00	We addressed the opiate crisis, the leading cause of accidental death among Americans. We talked about the origin of this epidemic and what the government is doing to combat it. We interviewed Dr. Elmer Huerta, public health expert and Michael Collins, Deputy Director of the Drug Policy Alliance.
FAKE GREEN CARD SCAM	UniMás News Briefs	7/8/17	3:17PM	:29	The Commissioner of the Department of Consumer Affairs, Lorelei Salas, announced there would be charges against New Beginning for Immigrants Rights, Inc. and its president, Carlos Davila due to their participation in a scheme of fraud and deceptive practices to benefit from undocumented immigrants. According to the Commissioner, the organization which was formerly a non-profit corporation, and its president, took advantage of the desperation and fear of immigrants by misleading advertisements and requiring payment between $50 and $200, to provide them with "ID4ICE". a document that was promoted as a "National Identification Card".
9/11 WORKER UNDOCUMENTED	Noticiero Univision-Edicion Nocturna	7/9/17	11:40PM	2:00	Chairman of the House Democratic Caucus, will host a press conference on the steps of City Hall to announce new federal legislation that would protect undocumented 9/11 cleanup workers from deportation by providing them legal permanent resident status. These workers provided critical services in the aftermath of the September 11, 2001, terrorist attacks and suffered from exposure to airborne toxins and other hazards. Yet many of them still lack legal immigration options and have lived in fear of deportation from the country they served.
SB4 LAW IN TEXAS	Perspectiva Nacional	7/9/17	6:00AM	6:00	We addressed immigration issue in Texas. The arguments regarding the SB4 law were heard for the first time and activists along with political leaders seek to revoke the measure citing it as unconstitutional. We interviewed Raúl Reyes, Mayor of El Cenizo.

DESCRIPTION OF ISSUE	PROGRAM SEGMENT	DATE	TIME	DURATION	NARRATION OF TYPE/ DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM SEGMENT
UNDOCUMENTED IMMIGRANTS FEAR OF DEPORTATION	Perspectiva Nacional	7/16/17	6:00AM	8:00	We addressed the issue of undocumented immigrants in the United States that endanger their health and that of their children by not going to the doctor for fear of being deported. Many doctors dread that this decision will lead to an increase in sick children and a public health crisis. We interviewed Dr. Denice Cora-Bramble, chief medical officer at "Children's National Health System". We also talked about how this fear of deportation has led undocumented immigrants to avoid their commitments to the courts and immigration authorities. We asked José Pertierra, immigration attorney, what legal options they have to protect themselves.
UNDOCUMENTED IMMIGRANT CRIME VICTIMS FEAR DEPORTATION	Noticiero Univision-Edicion Nocturna	7/31/17	11:42PM	2:03	Victims of domestic violence or other violent crimes often do not report the crime to the police. They fear the immigration laws and fear being deported. This is particularly true about women victims. Such is the case of an undocumented women, a business owner, who was assaulted and robbed in her home. After the crime was committed, authorities were able to track the suspects and arrest them. Through her cell phone that one of the suspects had dropped it was disclosed that she had not reported it for fear of being deported. Because she was a victim of this crime, the woman was given the U+ work permit, which must be renewed every four years.
PRESIDENT TRUMP IMMIGRATION PROPOSAL	UniMás News Briefs	8/2/17	5:20PM	:29	President Trump and two Republican congressmen have presented an immigration proposal which they say will benefit the people of the U.S. The plan includes certain requirements of those seeking legal residence in the United States.
RAISE ACT TO REDUCE LEGAL IMMIGRATION	Perspectiva Nacional	8/13/17	6:00AM	6:00	Immigration authorities announced that during a four-day operation, titled Border Guardian or Border Resolve, more than 650 undocumented immigrants were arrested. We also discussed the "Raise Act," a bill introduced by Republican Senators Tom Cotton of Arkansas and David Perdue of Georgia that seeks to reduce legal immigration by 50% over the next 10 years. We interviewed Jaime Reyes, an immigration lawyer.
TEMPORARY HALT OF SB4	UniMás News Briefs	8/30/17	10:45AM	:29	During the crisis caused by Hurricane Harvey, Federal District Judge Orlando Garcia has temporarily suspended anti-sanctuary law SB4. The law would have gone into effect on Friday, September 1.
SB4 LAW TEMPORARY BLOCKED BY FEDERAL JUDGE	Perspectiva Nacional	9/10/17	6:00AM	9:00	We analyzed the temporary blocking of the SB4 law after a ruling by federal judge Orlando García. Austin City Councilman Greg Casar talks to us about the implications the temporary suspension could have for undocumented immigrants. We also added a PKG on the reactions of residents and immigrants toward the announcement of the blockade.
BORDER WALL PROTOTYPE	UniMás News Briefs	9/30/17	5:24PM	:29	Six companies began Tuesday to construct prototypes of a U.S.-Mexico border wall. Crews broke ground on a strip of land near the border in San Diego, according to U.S. Customs and Border Protection, the agency tasked with securing the nation's borders. The eight designs, four of concrete and four of alternate materials, are expected to influence the design of the wall that President Trump has promised to erect on the 2,000-mile border.
SUPREME COURT PARTIALLY APPROVES TRAVEL BAN	Perspectiva Nacional	7/9/17	6:00AM	8:00	We talked about the cases scheduled to be discussed in the Supreme Court in October specifically the travel ban on citizens of six Muslim countries which was partially approved this week. In addition, we analyzed if undocumented immigrants are entitled to bail while their cases are resolved. We interviewed Joseph Malouf, a criminalist lawyer.
LA RAZA NAME CHANGE	Noticiero Univision-Edicion Nocturna	7/10/17	11:46PM	1:46	The National Council of La Raza is rebranding itself as "UnidosUS," or United U.S. The national nonpartisan Latino-advocacy organization's new moniker is meant to promote unity in an increasingly fragmented nation, according to Janet Murguía, the group's president and CEO.
CORRUPTION AND ESPIONAGE IN MEXICAN GOVERNMENT	Perspectiva Nacional	7/2/17	6:00AM	6:00	We analyzed alleged espionage by the Mexican government to human rights defenders, journalists and activists through a cyber program named Pegasus, marketed by an Israeli company on the condition that it is only used to investigate criminals and terrorists. We interviewed Maureen Meyer of the Washington Office for Latin American and Jesús Esquivel, author and correspondent in Washington of Proceso Magazine.

DESCRIPTION OF ISSUE	PROGRAM SEGMENT	DATE	TIME	DURATION	NARRATION OF TYPE/ DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM SEGMENT
PRESIDENT PUTIN AND PRESIDENT TRUMP MEET	Perspectiva Nacional	7/16/17	6:00AM	9:00	We analyzed the first meeting between President Trump and President Putin during the G-20 summit. In addition, North Korea conducted its first intercontinental ballistic missile test which lead to discussion about Trump's threat to use its military capability against Pyongyang. We also discussed President Trump's comments on the border wall during a meeting with Mexican President Enrique Peña Nieto. We interviewed Jorge Silva, democratic analyst, and Stan Veuger, researcher at the "American Enterprise Institute".
MEXICAN PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE	Perspectiva Nacional	7/16/17	6:00AM	6:00	We spoke with an aspiring Mexican presidential candidate from the PAN political party. The candidate talked about his plan to end corruption, criminality and impunity in his country. We also analyzed what the relationship between the United States and Mexico would be if he were to win the presidency next year. We interviewed Juan Carlos Romero Hicks, Senator from the state of Guanajuato, Mexico.
LAPTOPS FROM MEXICO FLIGHTS WILL BE SUBJECTED TO SECURITY MEASURES	UniMás News Briefs	7/19/17	5:20PM	:29	Laptops and tablets on inbound U.S. flights from Mexico will be subjected to heightened carry-on security measures at the request of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security. Mexico's Transportation Department said the measures apply to electronics larger than a cell phone. Their recommendation to passengers is to travel with as few of these devices as possible in carry-on bags.
MEXICAN GOVERNMENT ESPIONAGE	Perspectiva Nacional	7/23/17	6:00AM	6:00	We talked about the revelation from the New York Times that the Mexican government was spying on anti-corruption activists, human rights defenders and journalists through the Pegasus software. Furthermore, investigators of the IACHR reported that the Mexican government was spying on them while they investigated the case of missing students in Ayotzinapa. We interviewed Eric Olson of the Mexico Institute of the Woodrow Wilson Center.
DONALD TRUMP JR. ALLEGED TIES WITH RUSSIA	Perspectiva Nacional	7/23/17	6:00AM	9:03	We analyze the new turn of events in the investigation of alleged Russian intrusion in last year's elections. The oldest son of President Donald Trump released e-mails he exchanged with a lawyer with supposed ties to the Russian government who wanted to meet with him to provide him information against Hillary Clinton. In addition, republicans in the senate are looking to vote on their new bill on health care submitted this week. We interviewed Genaro Pedroarias, Republican analyst and Patricia Sosa, Democratic analyst.
PRESIDENT TRUMP AND BAN ON TRANSGENDER IN MILITARY	UniMás News Briefs	7/26/17	5:17PM	:29	President Trump advised that the United States government will not accept or allow transgender individuals to serve in any capacity in the U.S. military. The world's LGBTQ media advocacy organization, GLAAD, expressed outrage over President Trump's announcement of a ban on transgender soldiers from openly serving in the United States armed forces.
PRESIDENT TRUMP AND PRESIDENT PUTIN SECOND SECRET MEETING	Perspectiva Nacional	7/30/17	6:00AM	7:00	We analyzed the recent failure by Republicans in the Senate to approve "Trumpcare." In addition, we talked about the new controversy between the United States and Russia after it was revealed that Presidents Trump and Vladimir Putin held a second secret meeting during the G-20 summit. We interviewed Representative Lou Correa (D-CA).
SUMMER MEAL PROGRAMS AND THE FUTURE OF VENEZUELA	Perspectiva Nacional	7/30/17	6:00AM	10:00	We addressed a report by the Food Research and Action Center that found that during the summer only 15 out of 100 children have access to or take advantage of summer meal programs. The rest do not attend and many suffer from hunger. Several organizations are requesting that the government implement a National Summer Food Act that supports the expansion of food centers and provides greater access to minors whose families do not have transportation resources. We also talked about the future of Venezuela. President Nicolás Maduro is promoting a Constituent Assembly that has been rejected by millions of Venezuelans. We analyzed the possible increase in violence, protests and deaths due to the current situation in Venezuela. We interviewed Cynthia Arnson, director of the Latin America Program at the Woodrow Wilson Center and Gonzalo Pecanins, founder and director of the "Movimiento Lucha Democrática".

U.S. ANNOUNCES SANCTIONS AGAINST VENEZUELA	UniMás News Briefs	7/31/17	5:21PM	:29	Venezuelan President Nicolas Maduro is the latest official in his government to be sanctioned by the Trump administration. The U.S. Treasury Department decision to sanction President Maduro freezes all of his assets that are subject to U.S. jurisdiction. It also prohibits all U.S. persons from doing business with him.
VENEZUELA'S NEW NATIONAL CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY	UniMás News Briefs	8/4/17	5:17PM	:29	Venezuela's new National Constituent Assembly has just been sworn into office inside the nation's legislative palace. Former OAS Ambassador for Venezuela, Delcy Rodriguez, was approved unanimously as President of the controversial Constituent National Assembly.
MERCOSUR TRADE BLOC SUSPENDS VENEZUELA ON DEMOCRACY CONCERNS	UniMás News Briefs	8/5/17	5:31PM	:29	Mercosur, the South American trade bloc, suspended Venezuela indefinitely Saturday for failing to uphold democratic norms amid an intensifying crackdown on dissent in the country. The suspension will have little practical effect, with no economic sanctions or changes to trade or migration, and the bloc said it would try to limit any possible impact on Venezuelans to avoid exacerbating the humanitarian crisis in the country. The bloc previously suspended Venezuela in December for failing to uphold commitments it made when it joined the group in 2012.
TROUBLE RELATIONS BETWEEN PRESIDENT TRUMP AND REPUBLICANS IN CONGRESS	UniMás News Briefs	8/6/17	5:43PM	:29	Relations between President Trump and Republican legislators continue to grow difficult as most of the GOP members supported sanctions against Russia but did not back the Obamacare repeal and replace initiative.
RECENT POLITICAL EVENTS	Perspectiva Nacional	8/6/17	6:00AM	9:00	We analyzed recent political events such as the vote to start the debate on the republican health care proposal, President Trump's attacks on Jeff Sessions for having recused himself in the case of Russian interference in the 2016 elections, the sanctions imposed on Russia, Iran and North Korea, and the limits proposed to keep the president from weakening those sanctions. We interviewed Wadi Gaitán of the Libre Initiative and Rafael Medina, of the Center for American Progress.
TRANSGENDER PEOPLE NOT ACCEPTED IN THE MILITARY	Perspectiva Nacional	8/6/17	6:00AM	6:00	President Trump announced on twitter that transgender people in the military won't be accepted anymore. The decision reversed a policy passed last year by President Barack Obama which was under review. What will happen to the nearly 15,000 transgender people in reserve and active in the armed forces? We discussed the issue with Alexa Rodríguez, from the Trans-Latina DMV organization and veteran of the air force, Luis Quiñonez.
HUMAN TRAFFICKING BENEFIT FROM NEW ANTI-IMMIGRANT POLICIES	Perspectiva Nacional	8/6/17	6:00AM	8:00	The tragedy in San Antonio, Texas, where 10 undocumented immigrants lost their lives asphyxiated in a cargo truck, revived the horrors of human trafficking. Experts say President Trump's anti-immigrant policies have made smuggling more profitable. We also talked about the possibility victims of human trafficking have of on regulating their immigration status in the United States. We interviewed Marselha Goncalvez Margerin, from Amnesty International USA and Silverio Coy, an immigration lawyer.
CHICAGO FILES LEGAL ACTION AGAINST FEDERAL GOVERNMENT	UniMás News Briefs	8/7/17	5:25PM	:29	Chicago is one of the first cities to sue the government on what many U.S. cities argue are illegal bids to withhold public safety grants from so-called sanctuary cities, an immigration policy President Trump has placed.

DESCRIPTION OF ISSUE	PROGRAM SEGMENT	DATE	TIME	DURATION	NARRATION OF TYPE/ DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM SEGMENT
NEW U.S. STRATEGY FOR WAR IN AFGHANISTAN	Perspectiva Nacional	9/3/17	6:00AM	9:00	We analyzed President Trump's plan for Afghanistan in which he promised victory for his country by sending more troops. The President wants to end the 16-year war and threatened to eliminate aid sent to Pakistan because they protect terrorists. We interviewed Carlos Castelló, safety expert at the Atlantic Council and Roger Pardo Maurer, former Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense.
GENDER VIOLENCE IN MEXICO AND CORRUPTION CRISIS IN VENEZUELA	Perspectiva Nacional	9/3/17	6:00AM	6:00	A large number of women in Mexico have been victims of gender violence but very few denounce this abuse and most are unaware of their rights, so most of the attacks go unpunished. A former Venezuelan prosecutor Luisa Ortega accused President Nicolás Maduro of corruption. She also revealed that she had evidence which she would hand over to the authorities of several countries so that they could begin an investigation. We interviewed Juan Carlos Hidalgo from the Cato Institute.
FUTURE OF DACA AND TPS IN DANGER	Perspectiva Nacional	7/23/17	6:00AM	7:57	We talked about the future of the DACA and TPS programs. National Security Secretary John Kelly met with Hispanic lawmakers and warned them that the programs are in danger of disappearing. We interviewed Ivan Yacub, immigration lawyer.
DACA FIFTH ANNIVERSARY	Noticiero Univision-Edicion Nocturna	8/15/17	11:41PM	2:09	The Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals program, or DACA, was implemented in 2012 under President Barack Obama, and President Donald Trump's administration has continued running despite heated rhetoric against it from Trump on the campaign trail. DACA has arguably never been on shakier ground, and advocates for the program are desperately trying to protect it, including with a planned march Tuesday at the White House. Nearly 800,000 undocumented immigrants have benefited from DACA, which protects individuals who were brought to the US illegally as children from deportation, and offers them the ability to work, study and drive legally. Applicants must meet certain criteria, pass a background check and maintain a clean record.
House Denver/AD COUNCIL - HIGH SCHOOL EQ	PSA	July	6	1:00	Approximately 7,000 high school students drop out every school day, which translates to one in four students. Once students make the decision to drop out, they lack the tools to compete in today's society and diminish their chances for greater success in the future. If you believe you are struggling please contact boostattendance.org.
FUTURE OF DACA/TPS AND CRISIS IN VENEZUELA	Perspectiva Nacional	8/20/17	6:00AM	8:00	We talked about the decision of the Federal Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit that will allow TPS beneficiaries in 8 states to qualify for permanent residency. To qualify one must have an American child over the age of 21 or a citizen spouse. We also talked about the 10 states that threaten to sue President Trump this Sept. 5 if he does not end with DACA. We interviewed Abel Núñez, Executive Director of CARECEN. We also discussed the Venezuelan crisis and the possible scenarios that could be presented in the South American country. We interviewed Moisés Rendón, Deputy Director of the CSIS Americas Program.
DACA CONTINUES TO BE UNDER REVIEW BY TRUMP ADMINISTRATION	Noticiero Univision-Edicion Nocturna	8/24/17	11:40PM	1:00	Top officials at the Department of Homeland Security met this week to review the status of a deferred action program for undocumented immigrants that could face a legal challenge from Texas next month, raising fears among advocates that President Trump could choose to eliminate it. The program has provided renewable, two-year work permits to nearly 800,000 immigrants who came to the country illegally as children. DACA is immensely popular among Latino and Asian American communities. The President has wavered on his threats, and in April suggested that the DACA recipients, known as "DREAMers," could "rest easy."

DESCRIPTION OF ISSUE	PROGRAM SEGMENT	DATE	TIME	DURATION	NARRATION OF TYPE/ DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM SEGMENT
DACA ANNOUNCEMENT	UniMás News Briefs	9/1/17	5:21PM	:29	The White House promised a decision Tuesday on so-called DREAMers as the nation's business, religious and congressional leaders urge President Trump to save the DACA program that shields young immigrants from deportation and provides work permits for employment.
NEGOTIATIONS FOR DACA EXTENSION	Perspectiva Nacional	9/3/17	6:00AM	8:00	President Trump said he could pardon controversial former Sheriff Joe Arpaio, guilty of criminal contempt. In addition, we talked about the possibility that President Trump could extend the Deferred Action program (DACA) in exchange for more funding for the construction of the border wall. We interviewed Clarissa Martínez from "Unidos US", Sulma Arias from the Fair Immigration Reform Movement (FIRM) and Juan Manuel Guzmán from United We Dream.
DACA ANNOUNCEMENT	UniMás News Briefs	9/5/17	5:21PM	:29	President Trump on Tuesday ordered an end to the Obama-era program that shields young undocumented immigrants from deportation, calling it an "amnesty-first approach" and urging Congress to pass a replacement before he begins phasing out its protections in six months.
FUTURE OF DACA	Noticiero Univision-Edicion Nocturna	9/5/17	11:38PM	2:04	The White House's decision today to rescind the "Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals" program "DACA" puts the future of some 800 people who were brought to the U.S. illegally as children in jeopardy. The DREAMers are mostly in their 20's, live in every state of our nation and originally are from different countries. Their future hinges on whether Congress can get immigration reform legislation passed in coming months that would protect them, and then whether President Trump will sign any bill Congress passes.
DREAMERS FEAR ELIMINATION OF DACA PROGRAM	Perspectiva Nacional	9/10/17	6:00AM	8:00	DREAMers are concerned that the Trump administration will eliminate the Deferred Action program. We talked to Julieta Garibay from "United We Dream" about the options that exist for these young people. In addition, we spoke with the Representative Richard Peña (D-TX) about the blocking of the SB4 law and what this meant for undocumented immigrants. Furthermore, we added a PKG with interviews with DREAMers.
DACA DEAL	UniMás News Briefs	9/15/17	5:21PM	:29	Trump told Democratic Leaders Rep. Nancy Pelosi (D-CA) and Senator Chuck Schumer (D-NY) on Wednesday night that he would accept legislation patching DACA in exchange for new border fortifications - and that his border wall with Mexico needs not be part of those discussions.
CONGRESS TO ACT ON PERMANENT LEGISLATION ON DACA	Perspectiva Nacional	9/17/17	6:00AM	8:00	We analyzed the elimination of the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals, known as DACA. President Trump has urged Congress to act and approve a permanent immigration relief legislation and thus help these young people. We talked to Congressmen Luis Gutiérrez (D-IL) and José Luis "Lou" Correa (D-CA) about the future that awaits this benefit in Congress.
FUTURE FOR DACA BENEFICIARIES	Perspectiva Nacional	9/17/17	6:00AM	7:00	We addressed the issues of DACA and the future that awaits the "DREAMers". The elimination of the program has left some 800,000 beneficiaries vulnerable. Julieta Garibay of "United We Dream" and Sheridan Aguirre, a DACA beneficiary, reveal how the "DREAMS" took the news, how they will fight to keep the program, among other issues.
FUTURE FOR DACA BENEFICIARIES	Perspectiva Nacional	9/17/17	6:00AM	8:00	We discussed what will happen to the beneficiaries of the Deferred Action Program after the Trump administration decided to end it. We interviewed immigration lawyers José Pertierra and Simón Sandoval about the options the young beneficiaries currently have and until when they can be safe from deportation.
CONGRESS AGENDA ISSUES ON DACA STATUS	Perspectiva Nacional	9/24/17	6:00AM	9:00	We analyzed the key issues on the political agenda of Congress. Just two weeks before the end of the fiscal year, lawmakers will have to decide the status of the DREAMers after the elimination of the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals Program. In addition, we talked about an alleged agreement between President Trump, the House, and Senate Democratic leaders in order to protect DACA recipients. We interviewed Representative Raúl Ruiz (D-CA) and Daniel Garza, President of "La Libre Iniciativa".
