

WDUN AM/FM Quarterly Issues Report for October-December 2012.

October 1st-13th, WDUN promoted "Harvest of Hope"....a program to educate and support people on the communities we serve who have been touched by cancer.

October 15th – November 5th, WDUN provided a series of on air interviews between candidates for local offices in Hall, Habersham, Jackson, White, Forsyth and Lumpkin Counties.

October 16th, WDUN promoted and participated in the dedication of the new Pedestrian Bridge in Gainesville. The ceremony was sponsored by The City of Gainesville and included local businesses in the midtown area.

October 16th, WDUN broadcast a live two hour political forum between Doug Collins and Jody Cooley, candidates for the Ninth District Congressional race. WDUN'S Joel Williams moderated the event on WDUN AM & FM.

October 27th, WDUN provided coverage of the dedication of the Korean War Memorial at Rock Creek Park in Gainesville. Local Veterans organizations sponsored the event.

December 3rd, WDUN promoted and participated in the annual Christmas on Green Street event. WDUN promoted through a promotional schedule the historic importance of Green Street and it's heritage with the Christmas season.

December 3rd -10th, WDUN promoted the “On The Roof 10k” for the Gainesville Salvation Army. Local officer Lt. Matt Cunningham positioned himself on the roof of Slack Auto Parts in downtown Gainesville until ten thousand dollars was raised to aid the Salvation Army. WDUN promoted the event and then did live updates on Monday, December 10th (the beginning of the event) through Tuesday, December 11th as the money was raised.