| | Community Matters with Lee Callahan 12-7-14 6am to 6:25am 25 minutes Guest Clea Newman. As the youngest daughter of one of the most philanthropic and famed acting couples, Paul Newman and Joanne Woodward, Clea learned from a young age that giving back is a way of life. Paul Newman is one of the most respected names in philanthropy having launched several charitable endeavors, including Newman's Own, which gives away all of its profits to charity, and SeriousFun Children's Network, a global network of camps for children with serious illnesses. Clea is Senior Director of Special Initiatives at SeriousFun Children's Network, where she works as part of the Advancement team to raise money and awareness in support of SeriousFun camps and programs around the world. Clea also serves as a spokesperson for the organization helping to elevate awareness of the brand and advance the legacy of her father and SeriousFun founder Paul Newman. She continues to sit on the Boards of various non-profits including The Newman's Own Foundation, The Gillen Brewer School, Fauna & Flora International, and the EQUUS Foundation. Issue: Community Outreach & Development, Additional Issues: Financial Literacy, Minorities & Cultural Awareness |
| | Community Matters with Lee Callahan 12-28-14 6:20 to 6:35am 15 minutes Hearts on Fire: Stories of Today's Visionaries Igniting Idealism into Action with author Jill Iscol. You will discover how Josh Nesbit, Isaac Holeman, and Nadim Mahmud are connecting rural patients to hospitals using cellphone technology, how Susana De Anda is bringing fresh water to the migrant workers in California's San Joaquin Valley, and how Andeisha Farid is establishing, in the face of war, orphanages for Afghanistan's child victims of war and poverty. These are just some of the stories that will inspire you. Visionaries don't wait for others to take action. They step out. They are brave. They walk the walk. And they connect with others in deep and real ways. Jill Iscol's message is that everyone has the talent and compassion to make the world a better place. Hearts on Fire is a call to action for all of us. Issues: Community Outreach & Development. Additional Issues: Politics, Minorities & Cultural Awareness. |

| ISSUE: | Minorities & Cultural Awareness |
|--------|--|
| | Community Matters with Lee Callahan 10-12-14 6:30 to 6:50am 20 minutes Linda Tirado is a woman who lived paycheck to paycheck, a member of the working poor, has written Hand to Mouth: Living in Bootstrap America. Linda Tirado is a completely average American with two kids and, until recently, two jobs. We in America have certain ideas of what it means to be poor. Linda Tirado, in her signature brutally honest yet personable voice, takes all of these preconceived notions and smashes them to bits. She articulates not only what it is to be working poor in America (yes, you can be poor and live in a house and have a job, even two), but what poverty is truly like, on all levels. Issue: Minorities & Cultural Awareness , Additional issue: Financial Literacy |
| | Community Matters with Lee Callahan 10-19-14 6:10 to 6:20am 10 minutes Lisa Lampanelli talks about her comedy career and racism in America. "If I left out a race – if I didn't make fun of one group of people, then that means I'm afraid of them, and that is racism." Issue: Minorities & Cultural Awareness. Additional issue: Arts and Humanities |
| | Community Matters with Lee Callahan 10-26-14 6:15 to 6:35am 20 minutes Two courageous young people from Tulsa Oklahoma have each written books about being transgendered. Some Assembly Required: The Not-So-Secret Life of a Transgender Teen By Arin Andrews & Rethinking Normal: A Memoir in Transition By Katie Rain Hill. Arin Andrews details the journey that led him to make the life-changing decision to undergo gender reassignment as a high school junior. Told in his captivatingly witty voice, Arin reveals the challenges he faced as a girl, the humiliation and anger he felt after getting kicked out of his private school, and all the changes—both mental and physical—he experienced once his transition began. Katie Rain Hill never felt comfortable in her own skin. Suffocating under her peers' bullying, Katie tried to take her life at the age of seven, the first of several failed suicide attempts. Both books transcend physical appearances and redefine the parameters of "normalcy." Issue: Minorities & Cultural Awareness. Additional Issue: Arts and Humanities |
| | Community Matters with Lee Callahan 10-26-14 6:35 to 6:50am 15 minutes Chef Perry from the Tulalip Resort Casino talks about the Taste of Tulalip, an amazing day of food and wine that benefits local charities for impoverished people, indigent people and homeless citizens in the Marysville, Washington area. Issue: Minorities & Cultural Awareness. Additional Issue: Health & Nutrition |
| | Community Matters with Lee Callahan 11-2-14 6am to 6:15am 15 minutes Sports writer John Rosengren, author of The Fight of Their Lives: How Juan Marichal and John Roseboro Turned Baseball's Ugliest Brawl Into a Story of Forgiveness and Redemption. Some sports diehards and baseball aficionados can still recall the national pastime's ugliest moment: when Giants' star pitcher Juan Marichal clubbed Dodgers' catcher John Roseboro during a late season game in 1965. Marichal opened a two-inch gash in the Roseboro's forehead, set off a fourteen-minute bench-clearing brawl and forever tarnished the national game. Had it ended that afternoon, history would have sealed those two men within that ugly moment, but their story evolved into an unlikely friendship that rescued one man's glory and erased the other's guilt. In The Fight of Their Lives, Rosengren retells a tale largely lost to our children's |

| | Community Matters with Lee Callahan 11-2-14 6:15am to 6:35am 20 minutes Lois P. Frankel, PhD, author of Nice Girls Don't Get the Corner Office - Unconscious Mistakes Women Make That Sabotage Their Careers. Although the last 10 years have seen enormous social movement and growing equality between men and women, Dr. Frankel has updated her advice for the next generation of women to enter the workforce. Nice Girls Don't Get The Corner Office includes advice on the common mistakes women make when it comes to social networking, career reinvention in shifting economies, work-life integration, retirement, and how to make it to the "corner office" as an entrepreneur. Issue: Minorities & Cultural Awareness. Financial Literacy |
| | Community Matters with Lee Callahan 11-30-14 6:15 to 6:35am 20 minutes The Reappearing Act: Coming Out as Gay on a College Basketball Team Led by Born-Again Christians, by Kate Fagan. It's hard enough coming out, but playing basketball for a nationally ranked school and trying to figure out your sexual identity in the closeted and paranoid world of big-time college sports—that's a challenge. ESPN's Kate Fagan's love for basketball and for her religious teammates at the University of Colorado was tested by the gut-wrenching realization that she could no longer ignore the feelings of otherness inside her. In trying to blend in, Kate had created a hilariously incongruous world for herself in Boulder. Her best friends were part of Colorado's Fellowship of Christian Athletes, where they ran weekly Bible studies and attended an Evangelical Free Church. Kate didn't have a vocabulary for discussing who she really was and what she felt when she was younger; all she knew was that she had a secret. In The Reappearing Act, she brings the reader along for the ride as she slowly accepts her new reality and takes the first steps toward embracing her true self. Issues: Minorities & Cultural Awareness. Additional Issue: Arts and Humanities |
| | Community Matters with Lee Callahan 12-14-14 6:15am to 6:30am 15 minutes The Vatican Diaries: A Behind-the-Scenes Look at the Power, Personalities, and Politics at the Heart of the Catholic Church with author and guest John Thavis. For more than twenty-five years, John Thavis held one of the most remarkable journalistic assignments in the world: reporting on the inner workings of the Vatican. In The Vatican Diaries, Thavis reveals Vatican City as a place struggling to define itself in the face of internal and external threats, where Curia cardinals fight private wars and sexual abuse scandals threaten to undermine papal authority. Thavis also takes readers through the politicking behind the election of Pope Francis and what we might expect from his papacy. The Vatican Diaries is a perceptive, compelling, and provocative account of this singular institution and will be of interest to anyone intrigued by the challenges faced by religion in an increasingly secularized world. Issue: Minorities & Cultural Awareness |
| | Community Matters with Lee Callahan 12-21-14 6:25 to 6:50am 25 minutes Coming Out to Play with guest and author Robbie Rogers, who knows better than most that keeping secrets can crush you. But for much of his life Robbie lived in paralyzing fear that sharing his big secret would cost him the love of his and his career as a professional soccer player. He knew that for a gay man playing a professional team sport it might as well be 1958. Then last year, at the age of twenty-five and after nearly stepping away from a brilliant career - one that included an NCAA Championship, winning the MLS Cup, and competing in the |

| | Community Matters with Lee Callahan 11-2-14 6:35 to 6:50am 15 minutes Sex, Drugs 'n Facebook: Tools For Parents Whose Kids Venture Into The Internet Jungle with author Dr. Megan Moreno, a preeminent researcher in the field of adolescent health and technology. She is an Associate Professor in the Divisions of Pediatrics and Adolescent Medicine at the University of Washington, and a researcher at Seattle Children's Research Institute. Parents have to deal with the dangers of a "virtual" world; a world of cyberbullying, cyberstalking, sexting, Internet addiction, exposure to porn and other inappropriate online content. In fact, wisely managing children's exposure to the Internet is the parenting and educational issue of our decade. Sex, Drugs 'n Facebook by Dr. Megan Moreno not only helps parents understand the problem, it provides solutions. It is an informative and resourceful guide to raising cyber-sensible kids by teaching them balance, and setting firm boundaries when it comes to Internet and social media use. Issue: Education, Additional Issue: Health & Nutrition |
| | Community Matters with Lee Callahan 11-30-14 6am to 6:15am 15 minutes Ryan Betz of The Guaranteed Education Tuition Program. GET is Washington's 529 plan, helping families save for college. With GET, your account is guaranteed to keep pace with rising tuition and you can use it at nearly any public or private college in the country. The State of Washington guarantees that the value of your account will increase right along with the rising cost of college tuition, no matter how much it increases in the future. You don't have to worry about the ups and downs of the stock market. You are assured that the money you invest in GET will be there when your child is ready for college. Issue: Education. | | Community Matters with Lee Callahan 12-14-14 6:30 to 6:50am 20 minutes Preventing Hazing: How Parents, Teachers, and Coaches Can Stop the Violence, Harassment, and Humiliation with Susan Lipkins (Author). Written with clarity and passion, Preventing Hazing uncovers the deep roots of hazing, how and why it permeates schools, colleges, and communities, and what parents, teachers, and coaches can do to prevent it. The author shows how to recognize the warning signs, what to do if a student has been involved in a hazing (either as a victim, bystander, or perpetrator), how to deal with the moral, legal, and emotional aspects of hazing, and, ultimately, how to heal and move forward both as an individual and a community. | | Community Matters with Lee Callahan 11-9-14 6:10 to 6:30am 20 minutes Raun Kaufman - his book is about how he has dealt with his severe autism, and how he came back from that - Autism Breakthrough: The Groundbreaking Method That Has Helped Families All Over the World. As a boy, Raun Kaufman was diagnosed by multiple experts as severely autistic, with an IQ below 30, and destined to spend his life in an institution. Years later, Raun graduated with a degree in Biomedical Ethics from Brown University and has become a passionate and articulate autism expert and educator with no trace of his former condition. Thanks to The Son-Rise Program, a revolutionary method created by his parents, Raun experienced a full recovery from autism. In Autism Breakthrough, Raun presents the groundbreaking principles behind the program that helped him and thousands of other families with special children. Autism, he explains, is frequently misunderstood as a behavioral disorder when, in fact, it is a social relational disorder. Raun explains what it feels like to be autistic and shows how and why The Son-Rise Program works. Issue: Health & Nutrition |
| | Community Matters with Lee Callahan 11-9-14 6:40 to 6:50am 10 minutes Tyler Ceccanti – world renowned skier from Washington is a featured skier in the 65th Warren Miller movie called skiing and snowboarding adventure movie, No Turning Back. This is his 5th warren miller movie appearance, and he tells us about the importance and details of training; taking safety precautions; and nutrition, so he can continue his life as a professional athlete. Issue: Health & Nutrition. Additional Issue: Arts and Humanities |
| | Community Matters with Lee Callahan 11-16-14 6am to 6:50am 50 minutes Practicing psychologist and local author Joe Guppy: his experiences of coming back from a psychotic break and on the path to a great life chronicled in My Flourescent God. Joe Guppy's life derailed in 1969. The 23-year-old was dealing with a bad breakup and existential angst, but it was a few stomach pills he took in Mexico that pushed him over the edge into paranoid psychosis... and straight into the mental ward of Seattle's Providence Hospital or, as he perceived it, Hell. In the ensuing six months, he battled his real-life demons, jumped out a second-story window, and encountered God in a fluoescent light fixture. In this raw, often wryly comic memoir, Guppy invites readers into his haunted, 23-year-old head... and the experience is electrifying. Recreated from journal entries and the notes of mental-health professionals, the story of the author's struggle to rebuild his sanity is a gripping spiritual and psychological adventure. Issue: Health & Nutrition |
| | Community Matters with Lee Callahan 11-30-14 6:35 to 6:50am 15minutes Dr. David Casarett, a highly respected researcher and professor of medicine, chronicles his |

exploration of the cutting edge of resuscitation and reveals just how far science has come – he talks about his new book – Shocked: Adventures in Bringing Back the Recently Dead. As a young medical student, Dr. David Casarett was inspired by the story of a two-year-old girl named Michelle Funk. Michelle fell into a creek and was underwater for over an hour. When she was found she wasn't breathing, and her pupils were fixed and dilated. That drowning should have been fatal. But after three hours of persistent work, a team of doctors and nurses was able to bring her back. In Shocked, Casarett chronicles his exploration of the cutting edge of resuscitation and reveals just how far science has come. Fascinating, thought-provoking, and (believe it or not) funny, Shocked is perfect for those looking for a prequel—and a sequel—to Mary Roach's Stiff, or for anyone who likes to ponder the ultimate questions of life and death.

| | Community Matters with Lee Callahan 12-7-14 6:25 to 6:50am 25 minutes The Big Tiny: A Built-It-Myself Memoir with guest Dee Williams. Dee was diagnose with a heart condition at age forty-one, she was all too suddenly reminded that life is short, time is precious, and she wanted to be spending hers with the people and things she truly loved. That included the beautiful sprawling house in the Pacific Northwest she had painstakingly restored—but, it seemed unimportant. Deciding to build an eighty-four-square-foot house—on her own, from the ground up—was just the beginning of building a new life. Williams can now list everything she owns on one sheet of paper, her monthly housekeeping bills amount to about eight dollars, and it takes her approximately ten minutes to clean the entire house. Part how-to, part personal memoir, The Big Tiny is an utterly seductive meditation on the benefits of slowing down, scaling back, and appreciating the truly important things in life. | | Community Matters with Lee Callahan 12-14-14 6am to 6:15am 15 minutes Mother Nature Is Trying to Kill You: A Lively Tour Through the Dark Side of the Natural World It may be a wonderful world, but as author and guest Dan Riskin) explains, it’s also a dangerous, disturbing, and disgusting one. At every turn, it seems, living things are trying to eat us, poison us, use our bodies as their homes, or have us spread their eggs. In Mother Nature Is Trying to Kill You, Riskin is our guide through the natural world at its most gloriously ruthless. Using the seven deadly sins as a road map, Riskin offers dozens of jaw-dropping examples that illuminate how brutal nature can truly be. From slothful worms that hide in your body for up to thirty years to wrathful snails with poisonous harpoons that can kill you in less than five minutes to lustful ducks that have orgasms faster than you can blink, these fascinating accounts reveal the candid truth about “gentle” Mother Nature’s true colors.
