

COX Media Group-Houston

Licensee: Cox Radio, Inc.

1st Quarter 2017

Public Service Report

KHPT-FM 106.9

Conroe, Texas

Prepared and Submitted By:

Suzi Hanks

April 6, 2017

April 6, 2017

The following is a report of public service programming for the 1st quarter of 2017. During which time, the top issues of community interest & concerns were found to be:

- Community Events and Services
- Youth
- Education
- Health
- Safety
- Economy
- Environment
- Crime

In order to meet these issues, KHPT-FM airs a locally produced 60-minute public affairs program on Sundays called "FYI". Additionally, KHPT-FM helps meet community issues through daily programming.

Thank you,

Suzi Hanks

Program Name	Date and Time Aired	Community Events and Services	Duration Of Discussion
For Your Information	01/01/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Ernest Hawk, M.D., and Jennifer Cofer with MD Anderson Cancer Center, and the End Tobacco Moonshot Program. Lung cancer is the No. 1 cause of cancer deaths worldwide. We talked about the mission to eliminate lung cancer through prevention, screening, treatment and research. We talked about the importance of preventing smoking, quitting smoking and the elimination of second hand smoke.	:30
For Your Information	01/01/17 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is Sally Copley, Executive Director for the Heritage Museum of Montgomery County, located in Conroe, who told listeners about the history of East Texas, especially the area now known as Conroe, and Montgomery County starting millions of years ago all the way to modern days. She explained about the museum and many of its artifacts including the exhibit that references local geology; the sketch used to design the Republic of Texas flag which became the state flag; law enforcement in the wild west days in Montgomery County; oil-field related equipment from the days after Spindle Top; and many other displays that relates to the history of this part of Texas.	:30
For Your Information	01/08/17 @ 5:00 am	Guest was Jackie Wallace with the Houston Zoo. We talked about the Houston Zoo's commitment to be a leader in the global movement to save wildlife, as well as care for the animals in the zoo, while delivering a smart fun and inspiring experience to visitors and students. We talked about collaboration between the Houston Zoo, and other zoos and conservation programs around the world. We talked about the new gorilla habitat, baby sea lion and opening of the new Elephant exhibit, as well as the funding needed to operate safely while preserving and protecting wildlife and the environment.	:30
For Your Information	01/08/17 @ 5:30 am	Guest was Joel Cowley, President and CEO of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. We talked about the history of the HLSR, its dedication to agriculture and commitment to education. We talked about the millions of dollars in scholarships the HLSR has given to Texas students and schools, as well as the economic impact to the Houston area through sales and jobs. We talked about the tens of thousands of volunteers who help, and the millions of people who attend the trail	:30 rides, BBQ Cook-off, Rodeo, Concerts, Rodeo Run and grounds every year.

For Your Information	01/15/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guest was Phil Butcher Phillip Butcher, Director of Transfer Admissions and Veteran Services at the University of St Thomas in Houston. We talked about the rise in adults returning to get degrees, and the University of St Thomas Adult Degree Completion Program, and Veterans Services. We talked about the kind of financial aid available as well as the commitment to finish a degree as an adult. We talked about the degrees available, financial and professional benefits, and the program success in helping students gain employment.	:30
For Your Information	01/15/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Wade Morehead and Vicky Oddi With the Houston Marathon. We talked about preparations for the upcoming marathon, including safety, security and traffic along the course. We talked about the economic impact of the Marathon, as well as the charitable contributions though the "Run for a Reason" program. We also talked about the Houston Marathon Foundation, helping kids with scholarships, fitness programs and shoes.	:30
For Your Information	01/22/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Quincy Wade, Houston Firefighter and president of the Robert Garner Firefighter Garner Foundation Sr. Captain Ruy Lozano, Houston Fire Department. Robert Garner was a Houston Firefighter who lost his life with three other firefighters in the South West Inn Fire on May 31, 2013. The Robert Garner Firefighter Foundation was established to continue Robert's dream of being a firefighter and to provide scholarships that will allow future firefighters to attend local fire academies. We talked about the way firefighting has changed because of changing construction practices and flammable materials inside homes and businesses. We talked about new technology being used, and how the foundation helps mentor young people who want to be firefighters, helps train would be firefighters, as well as enhance training for established firefighters.	:30
For Your Information	01/22/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Nghi K. Do, Program Manager at School Of Health Professions at The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center, and student Adam Nikles. We talked about the need for skilled health sciences professionals, and the programs available at MD Anderson SOH. We discussed the various health professions other than Doctors and Nurses, and the	:30 career opportunities available for health professionals. We talked about the importance of recruiting students with an interest in going to medical school who may not know the options available, and the affordability of the program.

For Your Information	01/29/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Rebecca Loftis, Program Coordinator and Christine Powell, Executive Director with The Women's Resource. We talked about the lack of basic financial literacy in women. We talked about why women find themselves without skills to budget, save, invest, bank and get credit, and the financial life skills classes available through the Women's Resource. We also talked about early intervention in teaching financial life skills to high school age girls through the RISE program can prevent them from making financial mistakes, and prepare for the future.	:30
For Your Information	01/29/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guest was John Angelina with Heroes for Freedom Foundation. We talked about the support veterans need after returning to civilian life, like employment services, therapy and service dogs, and financial assistance.	:30
For Your Information	02/05/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Rebecca Loftis, Program Coordinator and Christine Powell, Executive Director with The Women's Resource. We talked about the lack of basic financial literacy in women. We talked about why women find themselves without skills to budget, save, invest, bank and get credit, and the financial life skills classes available through the Women's Resource. We also talked about early intervention in teaching financial life skills to high school age girls through the RISE program can prevent them from making financial mistakes, and prepare for the future.	:30
For Your Information	02/05/17 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is Ron Saikowski, President of the Rotary Club of Conroe (RCOC), who told listeners about Rotary and the many projects and activities in which his organization is involved. He explained about "My First Box", an interactive journal/book given to First Grade students who, as they learn to read and write, complete stories in the book by writing in names and events from their own lives. It's designed for the student to use it though their entire time in school. Saikowski told of RCOC's efforts to help eradicate polio overseas by providing an oral serum that vaccinates the person to the disease in places like Pakistan, India, parts of Africa. He talked about many other Rotary projects, especially a program that helps get potable water to places where individuals travel 10 miles and more daily to retrieve good water.	:30

For Your Information	02/12/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Natalia Hazelwood and Lizzie Robbins with Ignite, an organization that inspires girls and young women to follow their political aspirations. We talked about the lack of representation of women in politics and public survive. We talked about how to talk to pre-teens and teens about politics, and how Ignite classes and groups in high school and college are helping build a pipeline of next generation leaders.	:30
For Your Information	02/12/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guest was Leah Gast with Galveston Island Convention and Visitors Bureau. We talked about events, security and economic impact of the upcoming Mardi Gras Celebration. We talked about the new State funded Beach Nourishment project, new Bryan Museum, and Moody Gardens Aquarium renovation.	:30
For Your Information	02/19/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Kelly St. Mary from the Houston Children's Festival and Ashley Brockette from Child Advocates. We talked about Child Advocates, a group that helps break the cycle of child abuse by recruiting, training and supporting advocate volunteers that are assigned to CPS and foster kids in the court system. We talked about how advocates work with caseworkers, parents, teachers and doctors, and attorneys, to make recommendations in court regarding the permanent placement of the child. The Houston Children's Festival has raised over $5.4 million dollars to assist Child Advocates.	:30
For Your Information	02/19/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Natalia Hazelwood and Lizzie Robbins with Ignite, an organization that inspires girls and young women to follow their political aspirations. We talked about the lack of representation of women in politics and public survive. We talked about how to talk to pre-teens and teens about politics, and how Ignite classes and groups in high school and college are helping build a pipeline of next generation leaders.	:30
For Your Information	02/26/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guest was Houston Community College Associate Vice Chancellor of Instructional Services Dr. Catherine O'Brien. We talked about the Adult Continuing Education partnership with The Accelerate Texas program. The program focuses on the challenges facing adult continuing education students, and ways to improve learner success, completion, and employability.	:30

For Your Information	02/26/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Joni Robertson, Director of Development at Deveraux Texas And Chanica Brown, Foster Care Program Manager. We talked about Devereux Texas, and its commitment to treating children, young adults and adults, with emotional/behavioral disorders, and mental health issues. We talked about the residential and educational programs, as well as foster care services for children birth to 18, as well as recruitment and training of foster families.	:30
For Your Information	03/05/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Joni Robertson, Director of Development at Deveraux Texas And Chanica Brown, Foster Care Program Manager. We talked about Devereux Texas, and its commitment to treating children, young adults and adults, with emotional/behavioral disorders, and mental health issues. We talked about the residential and educational programs, as well as foster care services for children birth to 18, as well as recruitment and training of foster families.	:30
For Your Information	03/05/17 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is Evan Roberson, Executive Director of Tri-County Behavioral Healthcare, a non-profit agency headquartered in Conroe, TX which provides Montgomery, Liberty and Walker counties with mental healthcare for indigents and others. He explains to listeners the wide-ranging services Tri-County offers including: general mental healthcare for adults and children; substance abuse treatment; an intellectual and developmental disabilities program; a mental health program to assist the counties' adult criminal justice departments; housing assistance for the mentally disabled; a Military Veteran Peer Network in conjunction with Texas' Department of State Health Services to assist service members, veterans, and their families; and mental health crisis services including mental health clinics in the counties, as well as 24\7 manned Crisis Hotlines in the counties.	:30
For Your Information	03/12/17 @ 5:00am	Guests were Dr. Mara Antonoff, and Dr. Myrna Godoy, with MD Anderson Cancer center. We talked about prevention, detection and the treatment of Lung Cancer. We talked about the breakthroughs in treatment in the last 4 years thanks to research, and a new cancer screening clinical trial for smokers at MD Anderson Cancer Center.	:30
For Your Information	03/12/17 @ 5:30am	Guests were Andrea and Scott Davidson with Chance for Hope. We talked about their son Chance, who died from brain cancer at the age of 12, and the charity they began in his name that helps families with pediatric cancer. We	:30 talked about how their experience led them to find ways to help families with housing, food, transportation during treatment. We also talked about educating people about brain cancer, and raising fund for research.

For Your Information	03/19/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Judy Blake, and Executive Director Mary Jane Williams with Houston Family to Family Network. We talked about the needs and services available for families of children with disabilities. Houston Family to Family Network helps by providing IEP parent support in Houston with education & training events on the special education process, developmental disabilities diagnosis information, and referral to community resources,	:30
For Your Information	03/19/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guest was Dr. Cathy Eng, professor of Gastrointestinal Medical Oncology and one of the founders of MD Anderson's annual SCOPE 5k (Sprint for Colorectal Oncology Prevention and Education). https://www.mdanderson.org/donors-volunteers/other-ways-to-help/attend-events/scope-run-for-colorectal-cancer.html We talked about Colorectal Cancer, including prevention, detection, treatment and research. We talked about how screening and early diagnosis improves survivability.	:30
For Your Information	03/26/17 @ 5:00am	Guests were Dr. Mara Antonoff, and Dr. Myrna Godoy, with MD Anderson Cancer center. We talked about prevention, detection and the treatment of Lung Cancer. We talked about the breakthroughs in treatment in the last 4 years thanks to research, and a new cancer screening clinical trial for smokers at MD Anderson Cancer Center.	:30
For Your Information	03/26//17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Joni Robertson, Director of Development at Deveraux Texas And Chanica Brown, Foster Care Program Manager. We talked about Devereux Texas, and its commitment to treating children, young adults and adults, with emotional/behavioral disorders, and mental health issues. We talked about the residential and educational programs, as well as foster care services for children birth to 18, as well as recruitment and training of foster families.	:30

Program Name	Date and Time Aired	Youth	Duration Of Discussion
FYI	01/08/17 @ 5:00 am	Guest was Jackie Wallace with the Houston Zoo. We talked about the Houston Zoo's commitment to be a leader in the global movement to save wildlife, as well as care for the animals in the zoo, while delivering a smart fun and inspiring experience to visitors and students. We talked about collaboration between the Houston Zoo, and other zoos and conservation programs around the world. We talked about the new gorilla habitat, baby sea lion and opening of the new Elephant exhibit, as well as the funding needed to operate safely while preserving and protecting wildlife and the environment.	:30
FYI	01/08/17 @ 5:30 am	Guest was Joel Cowley, President and CEO of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. We talked about the history of the HLSR, its dedication to agriculture and commitment to education. We talked about the millions of dollars in scholarships the HLSR has given to Texas students and schools, as well as the economic impact to the Houston area through sales and jobs. We talked about the tens of thousands of volunteers who help, and the millions of people who attend the trail rides, BBQ Cook-off, Rodeo, Concerts, Rodeo Run and grounds every year.	:30
FYI	01/15/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Wade Morehead and Vicky Oddi With the Houston Marathon. We talked about preparations for the upcoming marathon, including safety, security and traffic along the course. We talked about the economic impact of the Marathon, as well as the charitable contributions through the "Run for a Reason" program. We also talked about the Houston Marathon Foundation, helping kids with scholarships, fitness programs and shoes.	:30
FYI	01/29/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Rebecca Loftis, Program Coordinator and Christine Powell, Executive Director with The Women's Resource. We talked about the lack of basic financial literacy in women. We talked about why women find themselves without skills to budget, save, invest, bank and get credit, and the financial life skills classes available through the Women's Resource. We also talked about early intervention in teaching financial life skills to high school age girls through the RISE program can prevent them from making financial mistakes, and prepare for the future.	:30

FYI	02/05/17 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is Ron Saikowski, President of the Rotary Club of Conroe (RCOC), who told listeners about Rotary and the many projects and activities in which his organization is involved. He explained about "My First Box", an interactive journal/book given to First Grade students who, as they learn to read and write, complete stories in the book by writing in names and events from their own lives. It's designed for the student to use it though their entire time in school. Saikowski told of RCOC's efforts to help eradicate polio overseas by providing an oral serum that vaccinates the person to the disease in places like Pakistan, India, parts of Africa. He talked about many other Rotary projects, especially a program that helps get potable water to places where individuals travel 10 miles and more daily to retrieve good water.	:30
FYI	02/12/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Natalia Hazelwood and Lizzie Robbins with Ignite, an organization that inspires girls and young women to follow their political aspirations. We talked about the lack of representation of women in politics and public survive. We talked about how to talk to pre-teens and teens about politics, and how Ignite classes and groups in high school and college are helping build a pipeline of next generation leaders.	:30
FYI	02/12/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guest was Leah Gast with Galveston Island Convention and Visitors Bureau. We talked about events, security and economic impact of the upcoming Mardi Gras Celebration. We talked about the new State funded Beach Nourishment project, new Bryan Museum, and Moody Gardens Aquarium renovation.	:30
FYI	02/19/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Kelly St. Mary from the Houston Children's Festival and Ashley Brockette from Child Advocates. We talked about Child Advocates, a group that helps break the cycle of child abuse by recruiting, training and supporting advocate volunteers that are assigned to CPS and foster kids in the court system. We talked about how advocates work with caseworkers, parents, teachers and doctors, and attorneys, to make recommendations in court regarding the permanent placement of the child. The Houston Children's Festival has raised over $5.4 million dollars to assist Child Advocates.	:30
FYI	02/19/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Natalia Hazelwood and Lizzie Robbins with Ignite, an organization that inspires girls and young women to follow their political aspirations. We talked	:30

		about the lack of representation of women in politics and public survive. We talked about how to talk to pre-teens and teens about politics, and how Ignite classes and groups in high school and college are helping build a pipeline of next generation leaders.
FYI	02/26/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Joni Robertson, Director of Development at Deveraux Texas And Chanica Brown, Foster Care Program Manager. We talked about Devereux Texas, and its commitment to treating children, young adults and adults, with emotional/behavioral disorders, and mental health issues. We talked about the residential and educational programs, as well as foster care services for children birth to 18, as well as recruitment and training of foster families.	:30
FYI	03/05/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Joni Robertson, Director of Development at Deveraux Texas And Chanica Brown, Foster Care Program Manager. We talked about Devereux Texas, and its commitment to treating children, young adults and adults, with emotional/behavioral disorders, and mental health issues. We talked about the residential and educational programs, as well as foster care services for children birth to 18, as well as recruitment and training of foster families.	:30
FYI	03/05/17 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is Evan Roberson, Executive Director of Tri-County Behavioral Healthcare, a non-profit agency headquartered in Conroe, TX which provides Montgomery, Liberty and Walker counties with mental healthcare for indigents and others. He explains to listeners the wide-ranging services Tri-County offers including: general mental healthcare for adults and children; substance abuse treatment; an intellectual and developmental disabilities program; a mental health program to assist the counties' adult criminal justice departments; housing assistance for the mentally disabled; a Military Veteran Peer Network in conjunction with Texas' Department of State Health Services to assist service members, veterans, and their families; and mental health crisis services including mental health clinics in the counties, as well as 24\7 manned Crisis Hotlines in the counties.	:30
FYI	03/12/17 @ 5:30am	Guests were Andrea and Scott Davidson with Chance for Hope. We talked about their son Chance, who died from brain cancer at the age of 12, and the charity they began in his name that helps families with pediatric cancer. We talked about how their experience led them to find ways to help families with housing, food, transportation during	:30 treatment. We also talked about educating people about brain cancer, and raising fund for research.

FYI	03/19/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Judy Blake, and Executive Director Mary Jane Williams with Houston Family to Family Network. We talked about the needs and services available for families of children with disabilities. Houston Family to Family Network helps by providing IEP parent support in Houston with education & training events on the special education process, developmental disabilities diagnosis information, and referral to community resources,	:30
FYI	03/26//17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Joni Robertson, Director of Development at Deveraux Texas And Chanica Brown, Foster Care Program Manager. We talked about Devereux Texas, and its commitment to treating children, young adults and adults, with emotional/behavioral disorders, and mental health issues. We talked about the residential and educational programs, as well as foster care services for children birth to 18, as well as recruitment and training of foster families.	:30

Program Name	Date and Time Aired	Education	Duration Of Discussion
FYI	01/01/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Ernest Hawk, M.D., and Jennifer Cofer with MD Anderson Cancer Center, and the End Tobacco Moonshot Program. Lung cancer is the No. 1 cause of cancer deaths worldwide. We talked about the mission to eliminate lung cancer through prevention, screening, treatment and research. We talked about the importance of preventing smoking, quitting smoking and the elimination of second hand smoke.	:30
FYI	01/01/17 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is Sally Copley, Executive Director for the Heritage Museum of Montgomery County, located in Conroe, who told listeners about the history of East Texas, especially the area now known as Conroe, and Montgomery County starting millions of years ago all the way to modern days. She explained about the museum and many of its artifacts including the exhibit that references local geology; the sketch used to design the Republic of Texas flag which became the state flag; law enforcement in the wild west days in Montgomery County; oil-field related equipment from the days after Spindle Top; and many other displays that relates to the history of this part of Texas.	:30
FYI	01/08/17 @ 5:00 am	Guest was Jackie Wallace with the Houston Zoo. We talked about the Houston Zoo's commitment to be a leader in the global movement to save wildlife, as well as care for the animals in the zoo, while delivering a smart fun and inspiring experience to visitors and students. We talked about collaboration between the Houston Zoo, and other zoos and conservation programs around the world. We talked about the new gorilla habitat, baby sea lion and opening of the new Elephant exhibit, as well as the funding needed to operate safely while preserving and protecting wildlife and the environment.	:30
FYI	01/08/17 @ 5:30 am	Guest was Joel Cowley, President and CEO of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. We talked about the history of the HLSR, its dedication to agriculture and commitment to education. We talked about the millions of dollars in scholarships the HLSR has given to Texas students and schools, as well as the economic impact to the Houston area through sales and jobs. We talked about the tens of thousands of volunteers who help, and the millions of people who attend the trail rides, BBQ Cook-off, Rodeo, Concerts, Rodeo Run and grounds every year.	:30

FYI	01/15/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guest was Phil Butcher Phillip Butcher, Director of Transfer Admissions and Veteran Services at the University of St Thomas in Houston. We talked about the rise in adults returning to get degrees, and the University of St Thomas Adult Degree Completion Program, and Veterans Services. We talked about the kind of financial aid available as well as the commitment to finish a degree as an adult. We talked about the degrees available, financial and professional benefits, and the program success in helping students gain employment.	:30
FYI	01/15/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Wade Morehead and Vicky Oddi With the Houston Marathon. We talked about preparations for the upcoming marathon, including safety, security and traffic along the course. We talked about the economic impact of the Marathon, as well as the charitable contributions though the "Run for a Reason" program. We also talked about the Houston Marathon Foundation, helping kids with scholarships, fitness programs and shoes.	:30
FYI	01/22/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Quincy Wade, Houston Firefighter and president of the Robert Garner Firefighter Garner Foundation Sr. Captain Ruy Lozano, Houston Fire Department. Robert Garner was a Houston Firefighter who lost his life with three other firefighters in the South West Inn Fire on May 31, 2013. The Robert Garner Firefighter Foundation was established to continue Robert's dream of being a firefighter and to provide scholarships that will allow future firefighters to attend local fire academies. We talked about the way firefighting has changed because of changing construction practices and flammable materials inside homes and businesses. We talked about new technology being used, and how the foundation helps mentor young people who want to be firefighters, helps train would be firefighters, as well as enhance training for established firefighters.	:30
FYI	01/22/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Nghi K. Do, Program Manager at School Of Health Professions at The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center, and student Adam Nikles. We talked about the need for skilled health sciences professionals, and the programs available at MD Anderson SOH. We discussed the various health professions other than Doctors and Nurses, and the career opportunities available for health professionals. We talked about the importance of recruiting students with an interest in going to medical school who may not know the options available, and the affordability of the program.	:30

FYI	01/29/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Rebecca Loftis, Program Coordinator and Christine Powell, Executive Director with The Women's Resource. We talked about the lack of basic financial literacy in women. We talked about why women find themselves without skills to budget, save, invest, bank and get credit, and the financial life skills classes available through the Women's Resource. We also talked about early intervention in teaching financial life skills to high school age girls through the RISE program can prevent them from making financial mistakes, and prepare for the future.	:30
FYI	02/05/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Rebecca Loftis, Program Coordinator and Christine Powell, Executive Director with The Women's Resource. We talked about the lack of basic financial literacy in women. We talked about why women find themselves without skills to budget, save, invest, bank and get credit, and the financial life skills classes available through the Women's Resource. We also talked about early intervention in teaching financial life skills to high school age girls through the RISE program can prevent them from making financial mistakes, and prepare for the future.	:30
FYI	02/05/17 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is Ron Saikowski, President of the Rotary Club of Conroe (RCOC), who told listeners about Rotary and the many projects and activities in which his organization is involved. He explained about "My First Box", an interactive journal/book given to First Grade students who, as they learn to read and write, complete stories in the book by writing in names and events from their own lives. It's designed for the student to use it though their entire time in school. Saikowski told of RCOC's efforts to help eradicate polio overseas by providing an oral serum that vaccinates the person to the disease in places like Pakistan, India, parts of Africa. He talked about many other Rotary projects, especially a program that helps get potable water to places where individuals travel 10 miles and more daily to retrieve good water.	:30
FYI	02/12/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Natalia Hazelwood and Lizzie Robbins with Ignite, an organization that inspires girls and young women to follow their political aspirations. We talked about the lack of representation of women in politics and public survive. We talked about how to talk to pre-teens and teens about politics, and how Ignite classes and groups in high school and college are helping build a pipeline of next generation leaders.	:30

FYI	02/12/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guest was Leah Gast with Galveston Island Convention and Visitors Bureau. We talked about events, security and economic impact of the upcoming Mardi Gras Celebration. We talked about the new State funded Beach Nourishment project, new Bryan Museum, and Moody Gardens Aquarium renovation.	:30
FYI	02/19/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Kelly St. Mary from the Houston Children's Festival and Ashley Brockette from Child Advocates. We talked about Child Advocates, a group that helps break the cycle of child abuse by recruiting, training and supporting advocate volunteers that are assigned to CPS and foster kids in the court system. We talked about how advocates work with caseworkers, parents, teachers and doctors, and attorneys, to make recommendations in court regarding the permanent placement of the child. The Houston Children's Festival has raised over $5.4 million dollars to assist Child Advocates.	:30
FYI	02/19/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Natalia Hazelwood and Lizzie Robbins with Ignite, an organization that inspires girls and young women to follow their political aspirations. We talked about the lack of representation of women in politics and public survive. We talked about how to talk to pre-teens and teens about politics, and how Ignite classes and groups in high school and college are helping build a pipeline of next generation leaders.	:30
FYI	02/26/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guest was Houston Community College Associate Vice Chancellor of Instructional Services Dr. Catherine O'Brien. We talked about the Adult Continuing Education partnership with The Accelerate Texas program. The program focuses on the challenges facing adult continuing education students, and ways to improve learner success, completion, and employability.	:30
FYI	02/26/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Joni Robertson, Director of Development at Deveraux Texas And Chanica Brown, Foster Care Program Manager. We talked about Devereux Texas, and its commitment to treating children, young adults and adults, with emotional/behavioral disorders, and mental health issues. We talked about the residential and educational programs, as well as foster care services for children birth to 18, as well as recruitment and training of foster families.	:30

FYI	03/05/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Joni Robertson, Director of Development at Deveraux Texas And Chanica Brown, Foster Care Program Manager. We talked about Devereux Texas, and its commitment to treating children, young adults and adults, with emotional/behavioral disorders, and mental health issues. We talked about the residential and educational programs, as well as foster care services for children birth to 18, as well as recruitment and training of foster families.	:30
FYI	03/05/17 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is Evan Roberson, Executive Director of Tri-County Behavioral Healthcare, a non-profit agency headquartered in Conroe, TX which provides Montgomery, Liberty and Walker counties with mental healthcare for indigents and others. He explains to listeners the wide-ranging services Tri-County offers including: general mental healthcare for adults and children; substance abuse treatment; an intellectual and developmental disabilities program; a mental health program to assist the counties' adult criminal justice departments; housing assistance for the mentally disabled; a Military Veteran Peer Network in conjunction with Texas' Department of State Health Services to assist service members, veterans, and their families; and mental health crisis services including mental health clinics in the counties, as well as 24\7 manned Crisis Hotlines in the counties.	:30
FYI	03/12/17 @ 5:30am	Guests were Andrea and Scott Davidson with Chance for Hope. We talked about their son Chance, who died from brain cancer at the age of 12, and the charity they began in his name that helps families with pediatric cancer. We talked about how their experience led them to find ways to help families with housing, food, transportation during treatment. We also talked about educating people about brain cancer, and raising fund for research.	:30
FYI	03/19/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Judy Blake, and Executive Director Mary Jane Williams with Houston Family to Family Network. We talked about the needs and services available for families of children with disabilities. Houston Family to Family Network helps by providing IEP parent support in Houston with education & training events on the special education process, developmental disabilities diagnosis information, and referral to community resources,	:30
FYI	03/19/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guest was Dr. Cathy Eng, professor of Gastrointestinal Medical Oncology and one of the founders of MD Anderson's annual SCOPE 5k (Sprint for Colorectal Oncology Prevention and Education). https://www.mdanderson.org/donors-volunteers/other-ways-to-help/attend-events/scope-run-for-colorectal-cancer.html	:30

		We talked about Colorectal Cancer, including prevention, detection, treatment and research. We talked about how screening and early diagnosis improves survivability.
FYI	03/26/17 @ 5:00am	Guests were Dr. Mara Antonoff, and Dr. Myrna Godoy, with MD Anderson Cancer center. We talked about prevention, detection and the treatment of Lung Cancer. We talked about the breakthroughs in treatment in the last 4 years thanks to research, and a new cancer screening clinical trial for smokers at MD Anderson Cancer Center.	:30
FYI	03/26//17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Joni Robertson, Director of Development at Deveraux Texas And Chanica Brown, Foster Care Program Manager. We talked about Devereux Texas, and its commitment to treating children, young adults and adults, with emotional/behavioral disorders, and mental health issues. We talked about the residential and educational programs, as well as foster care services for children birth to 18, as well as recruitment and training of foster families.	:30

Program Name	Date and Time Aired	Health	Duration Of Discussion
FYI	01/01/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Ernest Hawk, M.D., and Jennifer Cofer with MD Anderson Cancer Center, and the End Tobacco Moonshot Program. Lung cancer is the No. 1 cause of cancer deaths worldwide. We talked about the mission to eliminate lung cancer through prevention, screening, treatment and research. We talked about the importance of preventing smoking, quitting smoking and the elimination of second hand smoke.	:30
FYI	01/15/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Wade Morehead and Vicky Oddi With the Houston Marathon. We talked about preparations for the upcoming marathon, including safety, security and traffic along the course. We talked about the economic impact of the Marathon, as well as the charitable contributions though the "Run for a Reason" program. We also talked about the Houston Marathon Foundation, helping kids with scholarships, fitness programs and shoes.	:30
FYI	01/22/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Nghi K. Do, Program Manager at School Of Health Professions at The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center, and student Adam Nikles. We talked about the need for skilled health sciences professionals, and the programs available at MD Anderson SOH. We discussed the various health professions other than Doctors and Nurses, and the career opportunities available for health professionals. We talked about the importance of recruiting students with an interest in going to medical school who may not know the options available, and the affordability of the program.	:30
FYI	01/29/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guest was John Angelina with Heroes for Freedom Foundation. We talked about the support veterans need after returning to civilian life, like employment services, therapy and service dogs, and financial assistance.	:30
FYI	02/05/17 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is Ron Saikowski, President of the Rotary Club of Conroe (RCOC), who told listeners about Rotary and the many projects and	:30

		activities in which his organization is involved. He explained about "My First Box", an interactive journal/book given to First Grade students who, as they learn to read and write, complete stories in the book by writing in names and events from their own lives. It's designed for the student to use it though their entire time in school. Saikowski told of RCOC's efforts to help eradicate polio overseas by providing an oral serum that vaccinates the person to the disease in places like Pakistan, India, parts of Africa. He talked about many other Rotary projects, especially a program that helps get potable water to places where individuals travel 10 miles and more daily to retrieve good water.
FYI	02/12/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Natalia Hazelwood and Lizzie Robbins with Ignite, an organization that inspires girls and young women to follow their political aspirations. We talked about the lack of representation of women in politics and public survive. We talked about how to talk to pre-teens and teens about politics, and how Ignite classes and groups in high school and college are helping build a pipeline of next generation leaders.	:30
FYI	02/19/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Kelly St. Mary from the Houston Children's Festival and Ashley Brockett from Child Advocates. We talked about Child Advocates, a group that helps break the cycle of child abuse by recruiting, training and supporting advocate volunteers that are assigned to CPS and foster kids in the court system. We talked about how advocates work with caseworkers, parents, teachers and doctors, and attorneys, to make recommendations in court regarding the permanent placement of the child. The Houston Children's Festival has raised over $5.4 million dollars to assist Child Advocates.	:30
FYI	02/26/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Joni Robertson, Director of Development at Deveraux Texas And Chanica Brown, Foster Care Program Manager. We talked about Devereux Texas, and its commitment to treating children, young adults and adults, with emotional/behavioral disorders, and mental health issues. We talked about the residential and educational programs, as well as foster care services for children birth to 18, as well as recruitment and training of foster families.	:30
FYI	03/05/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Joni Robertson, Director of Development at Deveraux Texas And Chanica Brown, Foster Care Program Manager. We talked about Devereux Texas, and its commitment to treating children, young adults and adults, with emotional/behavioral disorders, and mental health issues. We talked about the residential and educational programs, as well as foster care	:30 services for children birth to 18, as well as recruitment and training of foster families.

FYI	03/05/17 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is Evan Roberson, Executive Director of Tri-County Behavioral Healthcare, a non-profit agency headquartered in Conroe, TX which provides Montgomery, Liberty and Walker counties with mental healthcare for indigents and others. He explains to listeners the wide-ranging services Tri-County offers including: general mental healthcare for adults and children; substance abuse treatment; an intellectual and developmental disabilities program; a mental health program to assist the counties' adult criminal justice departments; housing assistance for the mentally disabled; a Military Veteran Peer Network in conjunction with Texas' Department of State Health Services to assist service members, veterans, and their families; and mental health crisis services including mental health clinics in the counties, as well as 24\7 manned Crisis Hotlines in the counties.	:30
FYI	03/12/17 @ 5:00am	Guests were Dr. Mara Antonoff, and Dr. Myrna Godoy, with MD Anderson Cancer center. We talked about prevention, detection and the treatment of Lung Cancer. We talked about the breakthroughs in treatment in the last 4 years thanks to research, and a new cancer screening clinical trial for smokers at MD Anderson Cancer Center.	:30
FYI	03/12/17 @ 5:30am	Guests were Andrea and Scott Davidson with Chance for Hope. We talked about their son Chance, who died from brain cancer at the age of 12, and the charity they began in his name that helps families with pediatric cancer. We talked about how their experience led them to find ways to help families with housing, food, transportation during treatment. We also talked about educating people about brain cancer, and raising fund for research.	:30
FYI	03/19/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Judy Blake, and Executive Director Mary Jane Williams with Houston Family to Family Network. We talked about the needs and services available for families of children with disabilities. Houston Family to Family Network helps by providing IEP parent support in Houston with education & training events on the special education process, developmental disabilities diagnosis information, and referral to community resources,	:30
FYI	03/19/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guest was Dr. Cathy Eng, professor of Gastrointestinal Medical Oncology and one of the founders of MD Anderson's annual SCOPE 5k (Sprint for Colorectal Oncology Prevention and Education). https://www.mdanderson.org/donors-	:30

		volunteers/other-ways-to-help/attend-events/scope-run-for-colorectal-cancer.html We talked about Colorectal Cancer, including prevention, detection, treatment and research. We talked about how screening and early diagnosis improves survivability.
FYI	03/26/17 @ 5:00am	Guests were Dr. Mara Antonoff, and Dr. Myrna Godoy, with MD Anderson Cancer center. We talked about prevention, detection and the treatment of Lung Cancer. We talked about the breakthroughs in treatment in the last 4 years thanks to research, and a new cancer screening clinical trial for smokers at MD Anderson Cancer Center.	:30
FYI	03/26//17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Joni Robertson, Director of Development at Deveraux Texas And Chanica Brown, Foster Care Program Manager. We talked about Devereux Texas, and its commitment to treating children, young adults and adults, with emotional/behavioral disorders, and mental health issues. We talked about the residential and educational programs, as well as foster care services for children birth to 18, as well as recruitment and training of foster families.	:30

Program Name	Date and Time Aired	Safety	Duration Of Discussion
FYI	01/08/17 @ 5:00 am	Guest was Jackie Wallace with the Houston Zoo. We talked about the Houston Zoo's commitment to be a leader in the global movement to save wildlife, as well as care for the animals in the zoo, while delivering a smart fun and inspiring experience to visitors and students. We talked about collaboration between the Houston Zoo, and other zoos and conservation programs around the world. We talked about the new gorilla habitat, baby sea lion and opening of the new Elephant exhibit, as well as the funding needed to operate safely while preserving and protecting wildlife and the environment.	:30
FYI	01/08/17 @ 5:30 am	Guest was Joel Cowley, President and CEO of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. We talked about the history of the HLSR, its dedication to agriculture and commitment to education. We talked about the millions of dollars in scholarships the HLSR has given to Texas students and schools, as well as the economic impact to the Houston area through sales and jobs. We talked about the tens of thousands of volunteers who help, and the millions of people who attend the trail rides, BBQ Cook-off, Rodeo, Concerts, Rodeo Run and grounds every year.	:30
FYI	01/15/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Wade Morehead and Vicky Oddi With the Houston Marathon. We talked about preparations for the upcoming marathon, including safety, security and traffic along the course. We talked about the economic impact of the Marathon, as well as the charitable contributions through the "Run for a Reason" program. We also talked about the Houston Marathon Foundation, helping kids with scholarships, fitness programs and shoes.	:30
FYI	01/22/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Quincy Wade, Houston Firefighter and president of the Robert Garner Firefighter Garner Foundation Sr. Captain Ruy Lozano, Houston Fire Department. Robert Garner was a Houston Firefighter who lost his life with three other firefighters in the South West Inn Fire on May 31, 2013. The Robert Garner Firefighter Foundation was established to continue Robert's dream of being a firefighter and to provide scholarships that will allow future firefighters to attend local fire academies. We talked about the way firefighting has changed because of changing construction practices and flammable materials inside homes and businesses. We talked about new technology being used, and how the foundation helps mentor young people who want	:30 to be firefighters, helps train would be firefighters, as well as enhance training for established firefighters.

FYI	02/05/17 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is Ron Saikowski, President of the Rotary Club of Conroe (RCOC), who told listeners about Rotary and the many projects and activities in which his organization is involved. He explained about "My First Box", an interactive journal/book given to First Grade students who, as they learn to read and write, complete stories in the book by writing in names and events from their own lives. It's designed for the student to use it though their entire time in school. Saikowski told of RCOC's efforts to help eradicate polio overseas by providing an oral serum that vaccinates the person to the disease in places like Pakistan, India, parts of Africa. He talked about many other Rotary projects, especially a program that helps get potable water to places where individuals travel 10 miles and more daily to retrieve good water.	:30
FYI	02/19/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Kelly St. Mary from the Houston Children's Festival and Ashley Brochette from Child Advocates. We talked about Child Advocates, a group that helps break the cycle of child abuse by recruiting, training and supporting advocate volunteers that are assigned to CPS and foster kids in the court system. We talked about how advocates work with caseworkers, parents, teachers and doctors, and attorneys, to make recommendations in court regarding the permanent placement of the child. The Houston Children's Festival has raised over $5.4 million dollars to assist Child Advocates.	:30
FYI	02/26/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Joni Robertson, Director of Development at Deveraux Texas And Chanica Brown, Foster Care Program Manager. We talked about Devereux Texas, and its commitment to treating children, young adults and adults, with emotional/behavioral disorders, and mental health issues. We talked about the residential and educational programs, as well as foster care services for children birth to 18, as well as recruitment and training of foster families.	:30
FYI	03/05/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Joni Robertson, Director of Development at Deveraux Texas And Chanica Brown, Foster Care Program Manager. We talked about Devereux Texas, and its commitment to treating children, young adults and adults, with emotional/behavioral disorders, and mental health issues. We talked about the residential and educational programs, as well as foster care services for children birth to 18, as well as recruitment and training of foster families.	:30

FYI	03/05/17 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is Evan Roberson, Executive Director of Tri-County Behavioral Healthcare, a non-profit agency headquartered in Conroe, TX which provides Montgomery, Liberty and Walker counties with mental healthcare for indigents and others. He explains to listeners the wide-ranging services Tri-County offers including: general mental healthcare for adults and children; substance abuse treatment; an intellectual and developmental disabilities program; a mental health program to assist the counties' adult criminal justice departments; housing assistance for the mentally disabled; a Military Veteran Peer Network in conjunction with Texas' Department of State Health Services to assist service members, veterans, and their families; and mental health crisis services including mental health clinics in the counties, as well as 24\7 manned Crisis Hotlines in the counties.	:30
FYI	03/26//17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Joni Robertson, Director of Development at Deveraux Texas And Chanica Brown, Foster Care Program Manager. We talked about Devereux Texas, and its commitment to treating children, young adults and adults, with emotional/behavioral disorders, and mental health issues. We talked about the residential and educational programs, as well as foster care services for children birth to 18, as well as recruitment and training of foster families.	:30

Program Name	Date and Time Aired	Economy	Duration Of Discussion
FYI	01/08/17 @ 5:30 am	Guest was Joel Cowley, President and CEO of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. We talked about the history of the HLSR, its dedication to agriculture and commitment to education. We talked about the millions of dollars in scholarships the HLSR has given to Texas students and schools, as well as the economic impact to the Houston area through sales and jobs. We talked about the tens of thousands of volunteers who help, and the millions of people who attend the trail rides, BBQ Cook-off, Rodeo, Concerts, Rodeo Run and grounds every year.	:30
FYI	01/15/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guest was Phil Butcher Phillip Butcher, Director of Transfer Admissions and Veteran Services at the University of St Thomas in Houston. We talked about the rise in adults returning to get degrees, and the University of St Thomas Adult Degree Completion Program, and Veterans Services. We talked about the kind of financial aid available as well as the commitment to finish a degree as an adult. We talked about the degrees available, financial and professional benefits, and the program success in helping students gain employment.	:30
FYI	01/15/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Wade Morehead and Vicky Oddi With the Houston Marathon. We talked about preparations for the upcoming marathon, including safety, security and traffic along the course. We talked about the economic impact of the Marathon, as well as the charitable contributions though the "Run for a Reason" program. We also talked about the Houston Marathon Foundation, helping kids with scholarships, fitness programs and shoes.	:30
FYI	01/22/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Nghi K. Do, Program Manager at School Of Health Professions at The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center, and student Adam Nikles. We talked about the need for skilled health sciences professionals, and the programs available at MD Anderson SOH. We discussed the various health professions other than Doctors and Nurses, and the career opportunities available for health professionals. We talked about the importance of recruiting students with an interest in going to medical school who may not know the options available, and the affordability of the program.	:30
FYI	01/29/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Rebecca Loftis, Program Coordinator and Christine Powell, Executive Director with The Women's Resource. We talked about the lack of basic financial literacy	:30

		in women. We talked about why women find themselves without skills to budget, save, invest, bank and get credit, and the financial life skills classes available through the Women's Resource. We also talked about early intervention in teaching financial life skills to high school age girls through the RISE program can prevent them from making financial mistakes, and prepare for the future.
FYI	02/05/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Rebecca Loftis, Program Coordinator and Christine Powell, Executive Director with The Women's Resource. We talked about the lack of basic financial literacy in women. We talked about why women find themselves without skills to budget, save, invest, bank and get credit, and the financial life skills classes available through the Women's Resource. We also talked about early intervention in teaching financial life skills to high school age girls through the RISE program can prevent them from making financial mistakes, and prepare for the future.	:30
FYI	02/12/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guest was Leah Gast with Galveston Island Convention and Visitors Bureau. We talked about events, security and economic impact of the upcoming Mardi Gras Celebration. We talked about the new State funded Beach Nourishment project, new Bryan Museum, and Moody Gardens Aquarium renovation.	:30
FYI	02/26/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guest was Houston Community College Associate Vice Chancellor of Instructional Services Dr. Catherine O'Brien. We talked about the Adult Continuing Education partnership with The Accelerate Texas program. The program focuses on the challenges facing adult continuing education students, and ways to improve learner success, completion, and employability.	:30

Program Name	Date and Time Aired	Environment	Duration Of Discussion
For Your Information	01/01/17 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is Sally Copley, Executive Director for the Heritage Museum of Montgomery County, located in Conroe, who told listeners about the history of East Texas, especially the area now known as Conroe, and Montgomery County starting millions of years ago all the way to modern days. She explained about the museum and many of its artifacts including the exhibit that references local geology; the sketch used to design the Republic of Texas flag which became the state flag; law enforcement in the wild west days in Montgomery County; oil-field related equipment from the days after Spindle Top; and many other displays that relates to the history of this part of Texas.	:30
FYI	01/08/17 @ 5:00 am	Guest was Jackie Wallace with the Houston Zoo. We talked about the Houston Zoo's commitment to be a leader in the global movement to save wildlife, as well as care for the animals in the zoo, while delivering a smart fun and inspiring experience to visitors and students. We talked about collaboration between the Houston Zoo, and other zoos and conservation programs around the world. We talked about the new gorilla habitat, baby sea lion and opening of the new Elephant exhibit, as well at the funding needed to operate safely while preserving and protecting wildlife and the environment.	:30
FYI	01/08/17 @ 5:30 am	Guest was Joel Cowley, President and CEO of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. We talked about the history of the HLSR, its dedication to agriculture and commitment to education. We talked about the millions of dollars in scholarships the HLSR has given to Texas students and schools, as well as the economic impact to the Houston area through sales and jobs. We talked about the tens of thousands of volunteers who help, and the millions of people who attend the trail rides, BBQ Cook-off, Rodeo, Concerts, Rodeo Run and grounds every year.	:30
FYI	02/12/17 @ 5:30a.m.	Guest was Leah Gast with Galveston Island Convention and Visitors Bureau. We talked about events, security and economic impact of the upcoming Mardi Gras Celebration. We talked about the new State funded Beach Nourishment project, new Bryan Museum, and Moody Gardens Aquarium renovation.	:30

Program Name	Date and Time Aired	Crime	Duration Of Discussion
For Your Information	02/19/17 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Kelly St. Mary from the Houston Children's Festival and Ashley Brochette from Child Advocates. We talked about Child Advocates, a group that helps break the cycle of child abuse by recruiting, training and supporting advocate volunteers that are assigned to CPS and foster kids in the court system. We talked about how advocates work with caseworkers, parents, teachers and doctors, and attorneys, to make recommendations in court regarding the permanent placement of the child. The Houston Children's Festival has raised over $5.4 million dollars to assist Child Advocates.	:30
For Your Information	03/05/17 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is Evan Roberson, Executive Director of Tri-County Behavioral Healthcare, a non-profit agency headquartered in Conroe, TX which provides Montgomery, Liberty and Walker counties with mental healthcare for indigents and others. He explains to listeners the wide-ranging services Tri-County offers including: general mental healthcare for adults and children; substance abuse treatment; an intellectual and developmental disabilities program; a mental health program to assist the counties' adult criminal justice departments; housing assistance for the mentally disabled; a Military Veteran Peer Network in conjunction with Texas' Department of State Health Services to assist service members, veterans, and their families; and mental health crisis services including mental health clinics in the counties, as well as 24/7 manned Crisis Hotlines in the counties.	:30

End of quarter PSA's for KHPT FM

- 1-5-17 – Houston Texans playoff predictions
- 1-9-17 – The 2017 Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo lineup is announced
- 1-13-17 – Chuck Norris launches his bottle water company
- 1-17-17 – The show reveals Super Bowl LI halftime plans at NRG Stadium
- 1-18-17 – The show reports on flooding throughout the area and give updates on high water areas along with school closings. Former President Bush is hospitalized.
- 1-19-17 - Houston Astros player Jeff Bagwell makes it to the Hall of Fame
- 1-23-17 – Suzi reports on a robbery at a Texas mall that leaves 5 injured and 1 dead.
- 1-25-17 - The show reports on the death of Allman Brothers band member Butch Trucks
- 1-26-17 - The show reports on the death of actress Mary Tyler Moore
- 1-27-17 - The show lets you know the 10 refrigerated items you don't need to refrigerate
- 1-30-17 – The Atlanta Falcons Arrive in Houston for Super Bowl LI
- 2-1-17 – The show highlights the charity flag football game in Katy
- 2-2-17 - Barbara and George H.W. Bush will do the Super Bowl LI coin toss.
- 2-3-17 – Texas boy finds Rattlesnake in toilet then a catcher finds 23 more
- 2-6-17 - The show covers the outcome of Super Bowl LI
- 2-8-17 - Richard Hatch passes away
- 2-9-17 – 249 arrested in a Houston prostitution sting that happened during Super Bowl LI
- 2-10-17 – Suzi wins the Local Public Affairs Director award from the Media Alliance of Houston
- 2-14-17 - Severe weather alerts throughout the Houston area
- 2-15-17 - Harrison Ford under investigation for plane crash
- 2-16-17 - Fox 26 stops by the show and gives a behind the scenes look
- 2-20-17 – Severe weather alerts throughout the Houston area
- 2-21-17 - Footage emerges from the Harrison Ford plane crash. Speak with local pilots
- 2-22-17 – Storms cause Houston sky to turn purple
- 2-25-17 – Houston Astros senior VP of broadcasting passes away.
- 2-27-17 - Actor Bill Paxton passes away. The show gives details
- 3-1-17 – Trump addresses both houses of congress. Two veteran Houston police officers injured while on duty. The Houston Live Stock Show and Rodeo BBQ Committee gives out details for the Rodeo Cook Off.
- 3-2-17 – President Bush's new art exhibit opens in Dallas
- 3-6-17 – Texas fugitive caught in Florida after he stole a deputy's car.
- 3-8-17 – WikiLeaks reports that the CIA can hack smartphones
- 3-10-17 – The show send a daylight savings reminder to listeners.
- 3-20-17 – Tom Brady's stolen jersey from Super Bowl in Houston found in New Mexico
- 3-21-17 – The show highlights classic rock day at Rodeo Houston featuring ZZ Top,
- 3-22-17 – Chuck Barris passes away & The show releases video of the Houston man riding a horse through a Walmart
- 3-23-17 – The show discusses the Lockhart Texas teacher who smiled in her mug shot because she believes she is innocent
- 3-27-17 – The station kicks off their Eagle Fest music festival.
- 3-28-17 – Suzi posts a video of her teasing FOR YOUR INFORMATION interviews including The Easter Seals of Greater Houston & Life Gift organ donation and how it is donate month.
- 3-31-17 – The show shares healthy recipe options for listeners.

- 4-3-17 - Dean & Rog interview Houston Astros pitcher along with PDQ about their Bark for Bleu charity campaigning.
- 4-4-17 – Houston deputy constable killed in ambush info for crime stoppers posted onto our social media pages.
- 4-5-17 – Chuck Norris named as an honorary Texan by the Texas Senate