

COX Media Group-Houston

4th Quarter 2013

Public Service Report

KHPT-FM 106.9

Conroe, Texas

Prepared and Submitted By:

Suzi Hanks

January 10, 2014

January 10, 2014

The following is a report of public service programming for the 4th quarter of 2013. During which time, the top issues of community interest & concerns were found to be:

- Community Events and Services
- Education
- Health/Safety
- Economy
- Environment
- Youth
- Crime

In order to meet these issues, KHPT-FM airs a locally produced 60-minute public affairs program on Sundays called "FYI". Additionally, KHPT-FM helps meet community issues through daily programming.

Thank you,

Suzi Hanks

Community Events and Services

Program Name	Date and Time Aired	Description of Discussion	Duration Of Discussion
FYI	10/06/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guests were Seth Angel and John Angelina with Royal Purple Raceway Foundation. They interact with and raise funds for organizations that help returning wounded warriors. We talked about the Warriors for Freedom, Warrior Spirit Band and the Wounded Warrior project, as well as an upcoming fishing tournament and mud run.	:30
FYI	10/06/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guests were Dick Hogan and Shannon Bloesch with Parks Youth Ranch, and emergency youth shelter in Ft. Bend County. Parks Youth Ranch houses between 20 and 30 homeless, at risk and abused boys and girls. We talked about how the ranch started, how children find themselves there, and the services they are provided. Their immediate needs such as food and clothing are met, along with medical and dental. They are given counseling and education, and most important a safe place to live. We discussed the shelter's needs, from volunteers to donations, and the upcoming fundraiser.	:30
FYI	10/13/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Genevieve Keeney, President of the National Museum of Funeral History. We talked about the museum, regarded as one of the top funeral museums in the country. We discussed the family friendly haunted house that began as a simple car show. We talked about the exhibits, ranging from Dracula's Cemetery, to the latest donation of the Huntsville embalming table. The museum has recently started a Pope exhibit that has grown incredibly with the help of the Vatican, as well as the history of funerals, the way people embrace or run from death, and the way that funerals have evolved with religion, culture and technology.	:30
FYI	10/13/13 @	Guest was Laura Spanjian, Director of the Mayor's Office of Sustainability. We	:30

	6:30a.m.	discussed the City of Houston's efforts to reduce its environmental impact through the use of renewable energy, water and food, and waste output of heat, air pollution - CO2, methane, and water pollution. We talked about the city's biking initiative, use of green space and effort to promote green buildings and businesses.
FYI	10/20/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Kelly Klein with Easter Seals Greater Houston. Easter Seals Greater Houston serves people of all ages, with any type of disability and their family members, regardless of their ability to pay for services. This includes Autism, Mental Retardation, Cerebral Palsy, and Down's Syndrome. We talked about the many services they offer such as Infant & Children's Therapy Programs, The Caroline School, Respite Services, Toy Tech, Bridging Apps, Play Therapy, Camps, Case Management, Social Motion Skills, High School High Tech, Housing Initiative and Financial Literacy, Adult Services Life Enrichment.	:30
FYI	10/20/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Rich Welsh with Wings Over Houston and the Commemorative Air Force. We talked about The CAF, founded to acquire, restore and preserve in flying condition a complete collection of combat aircraft which were flown by all military services of the United States. Wings Over Houston Airshow proceeds are used to sponsor the Wings Over Houston Scholarship Program for college students studying for careers in aviation, Aviation Career Education (ACE) Summer Academy for high school juniors and seniors interested in aviation, Commemorative Air Force aircraft restoration and flying historical programs, Exchange Club of Sugar Land, Rotary Club, and many other area non-profit groups. The Airshow is an educational event that provides community entertainment, celebrations of patriotism, military recruiting opportunities and aviation awareness.	:30
FYI	10/27/13 @	Guest was Jan Flewelling, Stroke Outreach Coordinator with Houston Methodist	:30

	6:00a.m.	Neurological Institute. We talked about stroke, the symptoms, risk factors, treatment and rehab. We discussed the importance of calling 911, and getting immediate medical attention. We also discussed how stroke is stereotypically perceived as an old white man's disease, when in reality it can strike anyone.
FYI	10/27/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guests were Harris County Sheriff Office Major Sheila Jones, one of 3 female majors in the HCSO, and Sgt.Larry Franks. We discussed the HCSO new launch of the iWatchHarrisCounty app. The app will help citizens report crime and get information on their smart phones and mobile devices. We also discussed the HCSO push for a jail processing center.	:30
FYI	11/03/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Hank Rush, Star of Hope President and CEO. Star of Hope provides help for homeless men, women and children, but also provides long term, life changing recovery programs. We talked about who the homeless are, and how they became homeless. We discussed the different centers the Star of Hope operates to serve, men, women and families. The mission is to restore balance, break the cycle of homelessness, and help people break addictions and achieve independent living. We talked about the upcoming holiday season, the Cox Radio Diaper Drive, and the vision for 2015 to help prevent homelessness.	:30
FYI	11/03/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guests were Cammy Hazim with the MS Society and Alison Sparer, a top fundraiser for the MS Bike/Walk who is also living with MS. Cox Radio has partnered with the MS Society MS Walks in Houston, Sugarland, Kemah and the Woodlands. The walks raise money to support the MS Society's efforts to fund research, and treatment as well as finding a way to prevent and cure MS. We talked about the services the MS Society provides to those who have MS and their families, as well as the efforts to reach out to politicians and the legislature to champion the needs of people with MS. Allison shared her	:30 story of her diagnosis and dedication to fight MS. She has personally raised over 60 thousand dollars for the MS Society.

FYI	11/10/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guests were Jessica Devitt with Pets for Vets Houston, and Army veteran, Tammy Hamilton. The Pets for Vets program is dedicated to supporting veterans and providing a second chance for shelter pets by rescuing, training and pairing them with America's veterans who could benefit from a companion animal. We talked about how dogs benefit veterans suffering from PTSD, and at the same time that pet is saved from being euthanized. We discussed the fact that Texas has the second largest veteran population in the US, and the availability of thousands of wonderful homeless pets. Tammy Hamilton shared her story of PTSD after returning from the Gulf War, and about her excitement upon recently learning that she has been matched with a dog named "Baby".	:30
FYI	11/10/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Bryan Escobedo with Lone Star Veteran's Association, and Alice Annstoos with AT&T. We talked about the City of Houston's Annual "Houston Salutes American Heroes" Veterans Day Celebration. The event features a parade, but focuses on a health fair and job fair for veterans. We discussed the challenge faced by veterans and businesses when it comes to translating military experience to the business culture. We discussed programs aimed at hiring more veterans and networking in the business community.	:30
FYI	11/17/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Jason Krug, President, Baseball USA. Baseball USA is focused on using baseball to teach values, and life skills that go beyond teamwork and determination. Baseball USA focuses on at risk and underprivileged participants. By developing baseball skills, youth grow in spirit, mind and body. The development of relationships with these youth through the game of baseball creates a bond of trust and commitment, which allows Baseball USA to mentor these	:30 athletes in all facets of their lives (school, faith and family). The objective of this interaction is to establish core values of character, integrity, discipline, respect, accountability and perseverance in participants.

FYI	11/17/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Jan Flewelling, Stroke Outreach Coordinator with Houston Methodist Neurological Institute. We talked about stroke, the symptoms, risk factors, treatment and rehab. We discussed the importance of calling 911, and getting immediate medical attention. We also discussed how stroke is stereotypically perceived as an old white man's disease, when in reality it can strike anyone. This FYI is particularly relevant after Texans coach Gary Kubiak suffered a stroke on the field during a recent game.	:30
FYI	11/24/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Hank Rush, Star of Hope President and CEO. Star of Hope provides help for homeless men, women and children, but also provides long term, life changing recovery programs. We talked about who the homeless are, and how they became homeless. We discussed the different centers the Star of Hope operates to serve, men, women and families. The mission is to restore balance, break the cycle of homelessness, and help people break addictions and achieve independent living. We talked about the upcoming holiday season, the Cox Radio Diaper Drive, and the vision for 2015 to help prevent homelessness. The Star of Hope Thanksgiving feast is this week.	:30
FYI	11/24/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Stephen L. Morris, Special Agent in charge of the FBI's Houston Division. We discussed the FBI in Houston and the territory. We talked about the top priorities for the FBI in Houston and current crime trends. We talked about the impacts of sequestration on the FBI's mission, and the current fiscal environment impacting the FBI. We discussed the local FBI citizen's academy.	:30
FYI	12/01/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Stephen L. Morris, Special Agent in charge of the FBI's Houston Division. We discussed the FBI in Houston and the	:30

		territory. We talked about the top priorities for the FBI in Houston and current crime trends. We talked about the impacts of sequestration on the FBI's mission, and the current fiscal environment impacting the FBI. We discussed the local FBI citizen's academy.
FYI	12/01/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Jonathon Glus, President & CEO of Houston Arts Alliance. We talked about the importance of arts in a community. The Houston Arts Alliance is a nonprofit agency established by the City of Houston to enhance the quality of life, business and tourism by advancing the arts in the Houston region. We talked about the 225 grants HAA invests in nonprofit arts organizations and individual artists each year in order to nurture Houston's thriving creative community. We discussed the works commissioned by HAA for public spaces, managing the city's art collection, showcasing Houston's rich folk life traditions, cultivating skill-based volunteers, and empowering arts organizations to become sustainable and reach new audiences through business incubation and other services.	:30
FYI	12/08/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guests were Cyndy Garza Roberts, H-E-B Public Affairs Director and Kent Loftin, Director of Development at Interfaith Ministries. We talked about the Annual Feast of Sharing Celebration. A tradition in which H-E-B partners with local community organizations to provide a delicious, free meal to more than 6,400 individuals throughout the greater Houston area. We talked about hunger and the need for healthy nutritious meals. We discussed Interfaith Ministries Meals on Wheel program, and the need in the community.	:30
FYI	12/08/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guests were Jennifer Smart with Texas Children's Hospital, and Kevin Klein with The Snowdrop Foundation. Cox Radio Houston recently held its 10th annual Radiothon. Funds raised through Radiothon, and the Snowdrop Foundation, support the Texas Children's Cancer Center's mission to provide personalized, high-quality, family-centered care to children, adolescents and young	:30 adults with cancer and blood disorders. The Cancer Center treats more than 1900 new patients each year, making it one of the largest pediatric cancer and hematology centers in the country.

FYI	12/15/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Jonathon Glus, President & CEO of Houston Arts Alliance. We talked about the importance of arts in a community. The Houston Arts Alliance is a nonprofit agency established by the City of Houston to enhance the quality of life, business and tourism by advancing the arts in the Houston region. We talked about the 225 grants HAA invests in nonprofit arts organizations and individual artists each year in order to nurture Houston's thriving creative community. We discussed the works commissioned by HAA for public spaces, managing the city's art collection, showcasing Houston's rich folk life traditions, cultivating skill-based volunteers, and empowering arts organizations to become sustainable and reach new audiences through business incubation and other services.	:30
FYI	12/15/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Peggy Thornsburg with the UT Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Studies. We discussed anger management issues involving autistic children. It is extremely rare that a child on the autism spectrum doesn't have issues with dealing with violent feelings of anger. We talked about how parents and care givers can cope with the hallmarks of ASD-difficulty communicating needs, thoughts and feelings plus difficulty understanding the feelings, needs and social cues of others. The ability to control angry acting-out is key to socially acceptable interactions as well as academic and later vocational success.	:30
FYI	12/22/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guests were HPD Senior officers Frank Webb and Doug Anders. HPD is one of the only police departments with a dedicated task force to deal with the mentally ill. We discussed the Crisis Intervention Team's strategies to improve the outcomes of encounters between law enforcement and people with mental illnesses. We also	:30 discussed Houston's recent enactment of an ordinance aimed at licensing un-reported boarding homes for the mentally ill.

FYI	12/22/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guests were Therese Cornwell, Program Director of CASA of Galveston County, and volunteer Christy Chepkema. When a child enters the foster care system because his or her home is no longer safe, a judge may appoint a committed volunteer to help them. That volunteer is called a Court Appointed Special Advocate®, or CASA. We talked about the training volunteers get, the huge responsibility representing a child in legal matters, and the personal attachment volunteers develop with children in the legal system.	:30
FYI	12/29/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Jan Flewelling, Stroke Outreach Coordinator with Houston Methodist Neurological Institute. We talked about stroke, the symptoms, risk factors, treatment and rehab. We discussed the importance of calling 911, and getting immediate medical attention. We also discussed how stroke is stereotypically perceived as an old white man's disease, when in reality it can strike anyone.	:30
FYI	12/29/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Peggy Thornsburg with the UT Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Studies. We discussed anger management issues involving autistic children. It is extremely rare that a child on the autism spectrum doesn't have issues with dealing with violent feelings of anger. We talked about how parents and care givers can cope with the hallmarks of ASD-difficulty communicating needs, thoughts and feelings plus difficulty understanding the feelings, needs and social cues of others. The ability to control angry acting-out is key to socially acceptable interactions as well as academic and later vocational success.	:30

Education

Program Name	Date and Time Aired	Description of Discussion	Duration Of Discussion
FYI	10/06/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guests were Dick Hogan and Shannon Bloesch with Parks Youth Ranch, and emergency youth shelter in Ft. Bend County. Parks Youth Ranch houses between 20 and 30 homeless, at risk and abused boys and girls. We talked about how the ranch started, how children find themselves there, and the services they are provided. Their immediate needs such as food and clothing are met, along with medical and dental. They are given counseling and education, and most important a safe place to live. We discussed the shelter's needs, from volunteers to donations, and the upcoming fundraiser.	:30
FYI	10/13/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Genevieve Keeney, President of the National Museum of Funeral History. We talked about the museum, regarded as one of the top funeral museums in the country. We discussed the family friendly haunted house that began as a simple car show. We talked about the exhibits, ranging from Dracula's Cemetery, to the latest donation of the Huntsville embalming table. The museum has recently started a Pope exhibit that has grown incredibly with the help of the Vatican, as well as the history of funerals, the way people embrace or run from death, and the way that funerals have evolved with religion, culture and technology.	:30
FYI	10/20/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Kelly Klein with Easter Seals Greater Houston. Easter Seals Greater Houston serves people of all ages, with any type of disability and their family members, regardless of their ability to pay for services. This includes Autism, Mental Retardation, Cerebral Palsy, and Down's Syndrome. We talked about the many services they offer such as Infant & Children's Therapy Programs, The Caroline School, Respite Services, Toy Tech, Bridging Apps, Play	:30

		Therapy, Camps, Case Management, Social Motion Skills, High School High Tech, Housing Initiative and Financial Literacy, Adult Services Life Enrichment.
FYI	10/20/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Rich Welsh with Wings Over Houston and the Commemorative Air Force. We talked about The CAF, founded to acquire, restore and preserve in flying condition a complete collection of combat aircraft which were flown by all military services of the United States. Wings Over Houston Airshow proceeds are used to sponsor the Wings Over Houston Scholarship Program for college students studying for careers in aviation, Aviation Career Education (ACE) Summer Academy for high school juniors and seniors interested in aviation, Commemorative Air Force aircraft restoration and flying historical programs, Exchange Club of Sugar Land, Rotary Club, and many other area non-profit groups. The Airshow is an educational event that provides community entertainment, celebrations of patriotism, military recruiting opportunities and aviation awareness.	:30
FYI	11/03/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Hank Rush, Star of Hope President and CEO. Star of Hope provides help for homeless men, women and children, but also provides long term, life changing recovery programs. We talked about who the homeless are, and how they became homeless. We discussed the different centers the Star of Hope operates to serve, men, women and families. The mission is to restore balance, break the cycle of homelessness, and help people break addictions and achieve independent living. We talked about the upcoming holiday season, the Cox Radio Diaper Drive, and the vision for 2015 to help prevent homelessness.	:30
FYI	11/10/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Bryan Escobedo with Lone Star Veteran's Association, and Alice Annstoos with AT&amp;T. We talked about the City of Houston's Annual "Houston Salutes American Heroes" Veterans Day Celebration. The event features a parade, but focuses on a health fair	:30

		and job fair for veterans. We discussed the challenge faced by veterans and businesses when it comes to translating military experience to the business culture. We discussed programs aimed at hiring more veterans and networking in the business community.
FYI	11/17/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Jason Krug, President, Baseball USA. Baseball USA is focused on using baseball to teach values, and life skills that go beyond teamwork and determination. Baseball USA focuses on at risk and underprivileged participants. By developing baseball skills, youth grow in spirit, mind and body. The development of relationships with these youth through the game of baseball creates a bond of trust and commitment, which allows Baseball USA to mentor these athletes in all facets of their lives (school, faith and family). The objective of this interaction is to establish core values of character, integrity, discipline, respect, accountability and perseverance in participants.	:30
FYI	11/24/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Hank Rush, Star of Hope President and CEO. Star of Hope provides help for homeless men, women and children, but also provides long term, life changing recovery programs. We talked about who the homeless are, and how they became homeless. We discussed the different centers the Star of Hope operates to serve, men, women and families. The mission is to restore balance, break the cycle of homelessness, and help people break addictions and achieve independent living. We talked about the upcoming holiday season, the Cox Radio Diaper Drive, and the vision for 2015 to help prevent homelessness. The Star of Hope Thanksgiving feast is this week.	:30
FYI	11/24/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Stephen L. Morris, Special Agent in charge of the FBI's Houston Division. We discussed the FBI in Houston and the territory. We talked about the top priorities for the FBI in Houston and current crime trends. We talked about the impacts of sequestration	:30 on the FBI's mission, and the current fiscal environment impacting the FBI. We discussed the local FBI citizen's academy.

FYI	12/01/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Stephen L. Morris, Special Agent in charge of the FBI's Houston Division. We discussed the FBI in Houston and the territory. We talked about the top priorities for the FBI in Houston and current crime trends. We talked about the impacts of sequestration on the FBI's mission, and the current fiscal environment impacting the FBI. We discussed the local FBI citizen's academy.	:30
FYI	12/01/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Jonathon Glus, President & CEO of Houston Arts Alliance. We talked about the importance of arts in a community. The Houston Arts Alliance is a nonprofit agency established by the City of Houston to enhance the quality of life, business and tourism by advancing the arts in the Houston region. We talked about the 225 grants HAA invests in nonprofit arts organizations and individual artists each year in order to nurture Houston's thriving creative community. We discussed the works commissioned by HAA for public spaces, managing the city's art collection, showcasing Houston's rich folk life traditions, cultivating skill-based volunteers, and empowering arts organizations to become sustainable and reach new audiences through business incubation and other services.	:30
FYI	12/15/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Jonathon Glus, President & CEO of Houston Arts Alliance. We talked about the importance of arts in a community. The Houston Arts Alliance is a nonprofit agency established by the City of Houston to enhance the quality of life, business and tourism by advancing the arts in the Houston region. We talked about the 225 grants HAA invests in nonprofit arts organizations and individual artists each year in order to nurture Houston's thriving creative community. We discussed the works commissioned by HAA for public spaces, managing the city's art collection, showcasing Houston's rich folk life traditions, cultivating skill-based volunteers, and empowering arts organizations to become	:30 sustainable and reach new audiences through business incubation and other services.

FYI	12/15/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Peggy Thornsburg with the UT Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Studies. We discussed anger management issues involving autistic children. It is extremely rare that a child on the autism spectrum doesn't have issues with dealing with violent feelings of anger. We talked about how parents and care givers can cope with the hallmarks of ASD-difficulty communicating needs, thoughts and feelings plus difficulty understanding the feelings, needs and social cues of others. The ability to control angry acting-out is key to socially acceptable interactions as well as academic and later vocational success.	:30
FYI	12/22/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guests were HPD Senior officers Frank Webb and Doug Anders. HPD is one of the only police departments with a dedicated task force to deal with the mentally ill. We discussed the Crisis Intervention Team's strategies to improve the outcomes of encounters between law enforcement and people with mental illnesses. We also discussed Houston's recent enactment of an ordinance aimed at licensing un-reported boarding homes for the mentally ill.	:30
FYI	12/29/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Peggy Thornsburg with the UT Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Studies. We discussed anger management issues involving autistic children. It is extremely rare that a child on the autism spectrum doesn't have issues with dealing with violent feelings of anger. We talked about how parents and care givers can cope with the hallmarks of ASD-difficulty communicating needs, thoughts and feelings plus difficulty understanding the feelings, needs and social cues of others. The ability to control angry acting-out is key to socially acceptable interactions as well as academic and later vocational success.	:30

Health/Safety

Program Name	Date and Time Aired	Description of Discussion	Duration Of Discussion
FYI	10/06/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guests were Seth Angel and John Angelina with Royal Purple Raceway Foundation. They interact with and raise funds for organizations that help returning wounded warriors. We talked about the Warriors for Freedom, Warrior Spirit Band and the Wounded Warrior project, as well as an upcoming fishing tournament and mud run.	:30
FYI	10/06/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guests were Dick Hogan and Shannon Bloesch with Parks Youth Ranch, and emergency youth shelter in Ft. Bend County. Parks Youth Ranch houses between 20 and 30 homeless, at risk and abused boys and girls. We talked about how the ranch started, how children find themselves there, and the services they are provided. Their immediate needs such as food and clothing are met, along with medical and dental. They are given counseling and education, and most important a safe place to live. We discussed the shelter's needs, from volunteers to donations, and the upcoming fundraiser.	:30
FYI	10/13/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Laura Spanjian, Director of the Mayor's Office of Sustainability. We discussed the City of Houston's efforts to reduce its environmental impact through the use of renewable energy, water and food, and waste output of heat, air pollution - CO2, methane, and water pollution. We talked about the city's biking initiative, use of green space and effort to promote green buildings and businesses.	:30
FYI	10/20/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Kelly Klein with Easter Seals Greater Houston. Easter Seals Greater Houston serves people of all ages, with any type of disability and their family members, regardless of their ability to pay for services. This includes Autism, Mental Retardation, Cerebral Palsy, and Down's Syndrome. We talked about the many services they offer	:30

		such as Infant & Children's Therapy Programs, The Caroline School, Respite Services, Toy Tech, Bridging Apps, Play Therapy, Camps, Case Management, Social Motion Skills, High School High Tech, Housing Initiative and Financial Literacy, Adult Services Life Enrichment.
FYI	10/20/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Rich Welsh with Wings Over Houston and the Commemorative Air Force. We talked about The CAF, founded to acquire, restore and preserve in flying condition a complete collection of combat aircraft which were flown by all military services of the United States. Wings Over Houston Airshow proceeds are used to sponsor the Wings Over Houston Scholarship Program for college students studying for careers in aviation, Aviation Career Education (ACE) Summer Academy for high school juniors and seniors interested in aviation, Commemorative Air Force aircraft restoration and flying historical programs, Exchange Club of Sugar Land, Rotary Club, and many other area non-profit groups. The Airshow is an educational event that provides community entertainment, celebrations of patriotism, military recruiting opportunities and aviation awareness.	:30
FYI	10/27/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Jan Flewelling, Stroke Outreach Coordinator with Houston Methodist Neurological Institute. We talked about stroke, the symptoms, risk factors, treatment and rehab. We discussed the importance of calling 911, and getting immediate medical attention. We also discussed how stroke is stereotypically perceived as an old white man's disease, when in reality it can strike anyone.	:30
FYI	10/27/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guests were Harris County Sheriff Office Major Sheila Jones, one of 3 female majors in the HCSO, and Sgt.Larry Franks. We discussed the HCSO new launch of the iWatchHarrisCounty app. The app will help citizens report crime and get information on their smart phones and mobile devices. We also discussed the HCSO push for a jail	:30 processing center.

FYI	11/03/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Hank Rush, Star of Hope President and CEO. Star of Hope provides help for homeless men, women and children, but also provides long term, life changing recovery programs. We talked about who the homeless are, and how they became homeless. We discussed the different centers the Star of Hope operates to serve, men, women and families. The mission is to restore balance, break the cycle of homelessness, and help people break addictions and achieve independent living. We talked about the upcoming holiday season, the Cox Radio Diaper Drive, and the vision for 2015 to help prevent homelessness.	:30
FYI	11/03/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guests were Cammy Hazim with the MS Society and Alison Sparer, a top fundraiser for the MS Bike/Walk who is also living with MS. Cox Radio has partnered with the MS Society MS Walks in Houston, Sugarland, Kemah and the Woodlands. The walks raise money to support the MS Society's efforts to fund research, and treatment as well as finding a way to prevent and cure MS. We talked about the services the MS Society provides to those who have MS and their families, as well as the efforts to reach out to politicians and the legislature to champion the needs of people with MS. Allison shared her story of her diagnosis and dedication to fight MS. She has personally raised over 60 thousand dollars for the MS Society.	:30
FYI	11/10/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guests were Jessica Devitt with Pets for Vets Houston, and Army veteran, Tammy Hamilton. The Pets for Vets program is dedicated to supporting veterans and providing a second chance for shelter pets by rescuing, training and pairing them with America's veterans who could benefit from a companion animal. We talked about how dogs benefit veterans suffering from PTSD, and at the same time that pet is saved from being euthanized. We discussed the fact that Texas has the second largest veteran population in the US, and the availability of	:30

		thousands of wonderful homeless pets. Tammy Hamilton shared her story of PTSD after returning from the Gulf War, and about her excitement upon recently learning that she has been matched with a dog named "Baby".
FYI	11/10/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Bryan Escobedo with Lone Star Veteran's Association, and Alice Annstoos with AT&amp;T. We talked about the City of Houston's Annual "Houston Salutes American Heroes" Veterans Day Celebration. The event features a parade, but focuses on a health fair and job fair for veterans. We discussed the challenge faced by veterans and businesses when it comes to translating military experience to the business culture. We discussed programs aimed at hiring more veterans and networking in the business community.	:30
FYI	11/17/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Jan Flewelling, Stroke Outreach Coordinator with Houston Methodist Neurological Institute. We talked about stroke, the symptoms, risk factors, treatment and rehab. We discussed the importance of calling 911, and getting immediate medical attention. We also discussed how stroke is stereotypically perceived as an old white man's disease, when in reality it can strike anyone. This FYI is particularly relevant after Texans coach Gary Kubiak suffered a stroke on the field during a recent game.	:30
FYI	11/24/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Hank Rush, Star of Hope President and CEO. Star of Hope provides help for homeless men, women and children, but also provides long term, life changing recovery programs. We talked about who the homeless are, and how they became homeless. We discussed the different centers the Star of Hope operates to serve, men, women and families. The mission is to restore balance, break the cycle of homelessness, and help people break addictions and achieve independent living. We talked about the upcoming holiday season, the Cox Radio Diaper Drive, and the vision for 2015 to help prevent homelessness.	:30

		The Star of Hope Thanksgiving feast is this week.
FYI	11/24/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Stephen L. Morris, Special Agent in charge of the FBI's Houston Division. We discussed the FBI in Houston and the territory. We talked about the top priorities for the FBI in Houston and current crime trends. We talked about the impacts of sequestration on the FBI's mission, and the current fiscal environment impacting the FBI. We discussed the local FBI citizen's academy.	:30
FYI	12/01/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Stephen L. Morris, Special Agent in charge of the FBI's Houston Division. We discussed the FBI in Houston and the territory. We talked about the top priorities for the FBI in Houston and current crime trends. We talked about the impacts of sequestration on the FBI's mission, and the current fiscal environment impacting the FBI. We discussed the local FBI citizen's academy.	:30
FYI	12/08/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guests were Cyndy Garza Roberts, H-E-B Public Affairs Director and Kent Loftin, Director of Development at Interfaith Ministries. We talked about the Annual Feast of Sharing Celebration. A tradition in which H-E-B partners with local community organizations to provide a delicious, free meal to more than 6,400 individuals throughout the greater Houston area. We talked about hunger and the need for healthy nutritious meals. We discussed Interfaith Ministries Meals on Wheel program, and the need in the community.	:30
FYI	12/08/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guests were Jennifer Smart with Texas Children's Hospital, and Kevin Klein with The Snowdrop Foundation. Cox Radio Houston recently held its 10th annual Radiothon. Funds rose through Radiothon, and the Snowdrop Foundation, support the Texas Children's Cancer Center's mission to provide personalized, high-quality, family-centered care to children, adolescents and young adults with cancer and blood disorders. The Cancer Center treats more than 1900 new patients each year, making it one of the largest pediatric cancer and hematology	:30

		centers in the country.
FYI	12/15/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Peggy Thornsburg with the UT Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Studies. We discussed anger management issues involving autistic children. It is extremely rare that a child on the autism spectrum doesn't have issues with dealing with violent feelings of anger. We talked about how parents and care givers can cope with the hallmarks of ASD-difficulty communicating needs, thoughts and feelings plus difficulty understanding the feelings, needs and social cues of others. The ability to control angry acting-out is key to socially acceptable interactions as well as academic and later vocational success.	:30
FYI	12/22/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guests were HPD Senior officers Frank Webb and Doug Anders. HPD is one of the only police departments with a dedicated task force to deal with the mentally ill. We discussed the Crisis Intervention Team's strategies to improve the outcomes of encounters between law enforcement and people with mental illnesses. We also discussed Houston's recent enactment of an ordinance aimed at licensing un-reported boarding homes for the mentally ill.	:30
FYI	12/29/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Peggy Thornsburg with the UT Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Studies. We discussed anger management issues involving autistic children. It is extremely rare that a child on the autism spectrum doesn't have issues with dealing with violent feelings of anger. We talked about how parents and care givers can cope with the hallmarks of ASD-difficulty communicating needs, thoughts and feelings plus difficulty understanding the feelings, needs and social cues of others. The ability to control angry acting-out is key to socially acceptable interactions as well as academic and later vocational success.	:30

Economy

Program Name	Date and Time Aired	Description of Discussion	Duration Of Discussion
FYI	10/13/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Laura Spanjian, Director of the Mayor's Office of Sustainability. We discussed the City of Houston's efforts to reduce its environmental impact through the use of renewable energy, water and food, and waste output of heat, air pollution - CO2, methane, and water pollution. We talked about the city's biking initiative, use of green space and effort to promote green buildings and businesses.	:30
FYI	10/20/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Kelly Klein with Easter Seals Greater Houston. Easter Seals Greater Houston serves people of all ages, with any type of disability and their family members, regardless of their ability to pay for services. This includes Autism, Mental Retardation, Cerebral Palsy, and Down's Syndrome. We talked about the many services they offer such as Infant & Children's Therapy Programs, The Caroline School, Respite Services, Toy Tech, Bridging Apps, Play Therapy, Camps, Case Management, Social Motion Skills, High School High Tech, Housing Initiative and Financial Literacy, Adult Services Life Enrichment.	:30
FYI	10/20/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Rich Welsh with Wings Over Houston and the Commemorative Air Force. We talked about The CAF, founded to acquire, restore and preserve in flying condition a complete collection of combat aircraft which were flown by all military services of the United States. Wings Over Houston Airshow proceeds are used to sponsor the Wings Over Houston Scholarship Program for college students studying for careers in aviation, Aviation Career Education (ACE) Summer Academy for high school juniors and seniors interested in aviation,	:30

		Commemorative Air Force aircraft restoration and flying historical programs, Exchange Club of Sugar Land, Rotary Club, and many other area non-profit groups. The Airshow is an educational event that provides community entertainment, celebrations of patriotism, military recruiting opportunities and aviation awareness.
FYI	11/03/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Hank Rush, Star of Hope President and CEO. Star of Hope provides help for homeless men, women and children, but also provides long term, life changing recovery programs. We talked about who the homeless are, and how they became homeless. We discussed the different centers the Star of Hope operates to serve, men, women and families. The mission is to restore balance, break the cycle of homelessness, and help people break addictions and achieve independent living. We talked about the upcoming holiday season, the Cox Radio Diaper Drive, and the vision for 2015 to help prevent homelessness.	:30
FYI	11/10/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Bryan Escobedo with Lone Star Veteran's Association, and Alice Annstoos with AT&amp;T. We talked about the City of Houston's Annual "Houston Salutes American Heroes" Veterans Day Celebration. The event features a parade, but focuses on a health fair and job fair for veterans. We discussed the challenge faced by veterans and businesses when it comes to translating military experience to the business culture. We discussed programs aimed at hiring more veterans and networking in the business community.	:30
FYI	11/24/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Hank Rush, Star of Hope President and CEO. Star of Hope provides help for homeless men, women and children, but also provides long term, life changing recovery programs. We talked about who the homeless are, and how they became homeless. We discussed the different centers the Star of Hope operates to serve, men, women and families. The mission is to restore balance, break the cycle of	:30 homelessness, and help people break addictions and achieve independent living. We talked about the upcoming holiday season, the Cox Radio Diaper Drive, and the vision for 2015 to help prevent homelessness. The Star of Hope Thanksgiving feast is this week.

FYI	11/24/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Stephen L. Morris, Special Agent in charge of the FBI's Houston Division. We discussed the FBI in Houston and the territory. We talked about the top priorities for the FBI in Houston and current crime trends. We talked about the impacts of sequestration on the FBI's mission, and the current fiscal environment impacting the FBI. We discussed the local FBI citizen's academy.	:30
FYI	12/01/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Stephen L. Morris, Special Agent in charge of the FBI's Houston Division. We discussed the FBI in Houston and the territory. We talked about the top priorities for the FBI in Houston and current crime trends. We talked about the impacts of sequestration on the FBI's mission, and the current fiscal environment impacting the FBI. We discussed the local FBI citizen's academy.	:30
FYI	12/01/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Jonathon Glus, President & CEO of Houston Arts Alliance. We talked about the importance of arts in a community. The Houston Arts Alliance is a nonprofit agency established by the City of Houston to enhance the quality of life, business and tourism by advancing the arts in the Houston region. We talked about the 225 grants HAA invests in nonprofit arts organizations and individual artists each year in order to nurture Houston's thriving creative community. We discussed the works commissioned by HAA for public spaces, managing the city's art collection, showcasing Houston's rich folk life traditions, cultivating skill-based volunteers, and empowering arts organizations to become sustainable and reach new audiences through business incubation and other services.	:30
FYI	12/15/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Jonathon Glus, President & CEO of Houston Arts Alliance. We talked about the importance of the arts in a community. The	:30

		Houston Arts Alliance is a nonprofit agency established by the City of Houston to enhance the quality of life, business and tourism by advancing the arts in the Houston region. We talked about the 225 grants HAA invests in nonprofit arts organizations and individual artists each year in order to nurture Houston's thriving creative community. We discussed the works commissioned by HAA for public spaces, managing the city's art collection, showcasing Houston's rich folk life traditions, cultivating skill-based volunteers, and empowering arts organizations to become sustainable and reach new audiences through business incubation and other services.
--	--	--	--

Environment

Program Name	Date and Time Aired	Description of Discussion	Duration Of Discussion
FYI	10/13/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Laura Spanjian, Director of the Mayor's Office of Sustainability. We discussed the City of Houston's efforts to reduce its environmental impact through the use of renewable energy, water and food, and waste output of heat, air pollution - CO2, methane, and water pollution. We talked about the city's biking initiative, use of green space and effort to promote green buildings and businesses.	:30
FYI	12/01/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Jonathon Glus, President & CEO of Houston Arts Alliance. We talked about the importance of arts in a community. The Houston Arts Alliance is a nonprofit agency established by the City of Houston to enhance the quality of life, business and tourism by advancing the arts in the Houston region. We talked about the 225 grants HAA invests in nonprofit arts organizations and individual artists each year in order to nurture Houston's thriving creative community. We discussed the works commissioned by HAA for public spaces, managing the city's art collection, showcasing Houston's rich folk life traditions, cultivating skill-based volunteers, and empowering arts organizations to become sustainable and reach new audiences through business incubation and other services.	:30
FYI	12/15/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Jonathon Glus, President & CEO of Houston Arts Alliance. We talked about the importance of arts in a community. The Houston Arts Alliance is a nonprofit agency established by the City of Houston to enhance the quality of life, business and tourism by advancing the arts in the Houston region. We talked about the 225 grants HAA invests in nonprofit arts organizations and individual artists each year in order to nurture Houston's thriving creative community. We discussed the works commissioned by HAA for public	:30 spaces, managing the city's art collection, showcasing Houston's rich folk life traditions, cultivating skill-based volunteers, and empowering arts organizations to become sustainable and reach new audiences through business incubation and other services.

--	--	---	--

Youth

Program Name	Date and Time Aired	Description of Discussion	Duration Of Discussion
FYI	10/06/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guests were Dick Hogan and Shannon Bloesch with Parks Youth Ranch, and emergency youth shelter in Ft. Bend County. Parks Youth Ranch houses between 20 and 30 homeless, at risk and abused boys and girls. We talked about how the ranch started, how children find themselves there, and the services they are provided. Their immediate needs such as food and clothing are met, along with medical and dental. They are given counseling and education, and most important a safe place to live. We discussed the shelter's needs, from volunteers to donations, and the upcoming fundraiser.	:30
FYI	10/13/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Genevieve Keeney, President of the National Museum of Funeral History. We talked about the museum, regarded as one of the top funeral museums in the country. We discussed the family friendly haunted house that began as a simple car show. We talked about the exhibits, ranging from Dracula's Cemetery, to the latest donation of the Huntsville embalming table. The museum has recently started a Pope exhibit that has grown incredibly with the help of the Vatican, as well as the history of funerals, the way people embrace or run from death, and the way that funerals have evolved with religion, culture and technology.	:30
FYI	10/20/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Kelly Klein with Easter Seals Greater Houston. Easter Seals Greater Houston serves people of all ages, with any type of disability and their family members, regardless of their ability to pay for services. This includes Autism, Mental Retardation, Cerebral Palsy, and Down's Syndrome. We talked about the many services they offer such as Infant & Children's Therapy Programs, The Caroline School, Respite Services, Toy Tech, Bridging Apps, Play	:30

		Therapy, Camps, Case Management, Social Motion Skills, High School High Tech, Housing Initiative and Financial Literacy, Adult Services Life Enrichment.
FYI	10/20/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Rich Welsh with Wings Over Houston and the Commemorative Air Force. We talked about The CAF, founded to acquire, restore and preserve in flying condition a complete collection of combat aircraft which were flown by all military services of the United States. Wings Over Houston Airshow proceeds are used to sponsor the Wings Over Houston Scholarship Program for college students studying for careers in aviation, Aviation Career Education (ACE) Summer Academy for high school juniors and seniors interested in aviation, Commemorative Air Force aircraft restoration and flying historical programs, Exchange Club of Sugar Land, Rotary Club, and many other area non-profit groups. The Airshow is an educational event that provides community entertainment, celebrations of patriotism, military recruiting opportunities and aviation awareness.	:30
FYI	11/03/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Hank Rush, Star of Hope President and CEO. Star of Hope provides help with for homeless men, women and children, but also provides long term, life changing recovery programs. We talked about who the homeless are, and how they became homeless. We discussed the different centers the Star of Hope operates to serve, men, women and families. The mission is to restore balance, break the cycle of homelessness, and help people break addictions and achieve independent living. We talked about the upcoming holiday season, the Cox Radio Diaper Drive, and the vision for 2015 to help prevent homelessness.	:30
FYI	11/17/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Jason Krug, President, Baseball USA. Baseball USA is focused on using baseball to teach values, and life skills that go beyond teamwork and determination. Baseball USA focuses on at risk and underprivileged participants. By developing	:30 baseball skills, youth grow in spirit, mind and body. The development of relationships with these youth through the game of baseball creates a bond of trust and commitment, which allows Baseball USA to mentor these athletes in all facets of their lives (school, faith and family). The objective of this interaction is to establish core values of character, integrity, discipline, respect, accountability and perseverance in participants.

FYI	11/24/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Hank Rush, Star of Hope President and CEO. Star of Hope provides help for homeless men, women and children, but also provides long term, life changing recovery programs. We talked about who the homeless are, and how they became homeless. We discussed the different centers the Star of Hope operates to serve, men, women and families. The mission is to restore balance, break the cycle of homelessness, and help people break addictions and achieve independent living. We talked about the upcoming holiday season, the Cox Radio Diaper Drive, and the vision for 2015 to help prevent homelessness. The Star of Hope Thanksgiving feast is this week.	:30
FYI	12/01/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Jonathon Glus, President & CEO of Houston Arts Alliance. We talked about the importance of arts in a community. The Houston Arts Alliance is a nonprofit agency established by the City of Houston to enhance the quality of life, business and tourism by advancing the arts in the Houston region. We talked about the 225 grants HAA invests in nonprofit arts organizations and individual artists each year in order to nurture Houston's thriving creative community. We discussed the works commissioned by HAA for public spaces, managing the city's art collection, showcasing Houston's rich folklife traditions, cultivating skill-based volunteers, and empowering arts organizations to become sustainable and reach new audiences through business incubation and other services.	:30
FYI	12/08/13	Guests were Jennifer Smart with Texas	:30

	@ 6:30a.m.	Children’s Hospital, and Kevin Klein with The Snowdrop Foundation. Cox Radio Houston recently held its 10th annual Radiothon. Funds raised through Radiothon, and the Snowdrop Foundation, support the Texas Children's Cancer Center's mission to provide personalized, high-quality, family-centered care to children, adolescents and young adults with cancer and blood disorders. The Cancer Center treats more than 1900 new patients each year, making it one of the largest pediatric cancer and hematology centers in the country.
FYI	12/15/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Jonathon Glus, President & CEO of Houston Arts Alliance. We talked about the importance of arts in a community. The Houston Arts Alliance is a nonprofit agency established by the City of Houston to enhance the quality of life, business and tourism by advancing the arts in the Houston region. We talked about the 225 grants HAA invests in nonprofit arts organizations and individual artists each year in order to nurture Houston’s thriving creative community. We discussed the works commissioned by HAA for public spaces, managing the city’s art collection, showcasing Houston’s rich folk life traditions, cultivating skill-based volunteers, and empowering arts organizations to become sustainable and reach new audiences through business incubation and other services.	:30
FYI	12/15/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Peggy Thornsburg with the UT Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Studies. We discussed anger management issues involving autistic children. It is extremely rare that a child on the autism spectrum doesn’t have issues with dealing with violent feelings of anger. We talked about how parents and care givers can cope with the hallmarks of ASD-difficulty communicating needs, thoughts and feelings plus difficulty understanding the feelings, needs and social cues of others. The ability to control angry acting-out is key to socially acceptable interactions as well as academic and later vocational success.	:30

FYI	12/22/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guests were Therese Cornwell, Program Director of CASA of Galveston County, and volunteer Christy Chepkema. When a child enters the foster care system because his or her home is no longer safe, a judge may appoint a committed volunteer to help them. That volunteer is called a Court Appointed Special Advocate®, or CASA. We talked about the training volunteers get, the huge responsibility representing a child in legal matters, and the personal attachment volunteers develop with children in the legal system.	:30
FYI	12/29/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Peggy Thornsburg with the UT Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Studies. We discussed anger management issues involving autistic children. It is extremely rare that a child on the autism spectrum doesn't have issues with dealing with violent feelings of anger. We talked about how parents and care givers can cope with the hallmarks of ASD-difficulty communicating needs, thoughts and feelings plus difficulty understanding the feelings, needs and social cues of others. The ability to control angry acting-out is key to socially acceptable interactions as well as academic and later vocational success.	:30

Crime

Program Name	Date and Time Aired	Description of Discussion	Duration Of Discussion
FYI	10/27/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guests were Harris County Sheriff Office Major Sheila Jones, one of 3 female majors in the HCSO, and Sgt.Larry Franks. We discussed the HCSO new launch of the iWatchHarrisCounty app. The app will help citizens report crime and get information on their smart phones and mobile devices. We also discussed the HCSO push for a jail processing center.	:30
FYI	11/24/13 @ 6:30a.m.	Guest was Stephen L. Morris, Special Agent in charge of the FBI's Houston Division. We discussed the FBI in Houston and the territory. We talked about the top priorities for the FBI in Houston and current crime trends. We talked about the impacts of sequestration on the FBI's mission, and the current fiscal environment impacting the FBI. We discussed the local FBI citizen's academy.	:30
FYI	12/01/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guest was Stephen L. Morris, Special Agent in charge of the FBI's Houston Division. We discussed the FBI in Houston and the territory. We talked about the top priorities for the FBI in Houston and current crime trends. We talked about the impacts of sequestration on the FBI's mission, and the current fiscal environment impacting the FBI. We discussed the local FBI citizen's academy.	:30
FYI	12/22/13 @ 6:00a.m.	Guests were HPD Senior officers Frank Webb and Doug Anders. HPD is one of the only police departments with a dedicated task force to deal with the mentally ill. We discussed the Crisis Intervention Team's strategies to improve the outcomes of encounters between law enforcement and people with mental illnesses. We also discussed Houston's recent enactment of an ordinance aimed at licensing un-reported boarding homes for the mentally ill.	:30

Quarterly Public Affairs Report for KHPT

- 10/03/13 Spoke with Houston firefighters about the Firefighters' Calendar
- 10/08/13 Discussed "National No-Bra Day" for breast cancer awareness
- 10/22/13 Discussed the struggles of the Obamacare website launch, and its effect on the public
- 11/06/13 Debated with callers whether it was acceptable for a middle school sports banquet to be held at Hooter's
- 11/11/13 Interviewed Marine vet Bryan Escobedo and Houston Mayor Annise Parker about the Veteran's Day festivities downtown
- 11/22/13 Reflected on the John F. Kennedy assassination, listeners discussed their feelings on that day and in the days after