

COX Media Group-Houston

Licensee: Cox Radio, Inc.

4th Quarter 2016

Public Service Report

KHPT-FM 106.9

Conroe, Texas

Prepared and Submitted By:

Suzi Hanks

January 6, 2017

January 6, 2017

The following is a report of public service programming for the 4th quarter of 2016. During which time, the top issues of community interest & concerns were found to be:

- Community Events and Services
- Youth
- Education
- Health
- Safety
- Economy
- Environment
- Crime

In order to meet these issues, KHPT-FM airs a locally produced 60-minute public affairs program on Sundays called "FYI". Additionally, KHPT-FM helps meet community issues through daily programming.

Thank you,

Suzi Hanks

Program Name	Date and Time Aired	Community Events and Services	Duration Of Discussion
FYI	10/02/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Laura Frnka-Davis with Life Gift, And heart valve recipient Katie Portell, We talked about Apple's recent announcement to register organ and tissue donors through the health app on the iPhone. We talked about the need to register as a donor, and a push to get information to minority donors.	:30
FYI	10/02/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Charlene Floyd, and Houston Police Assistant Chief Charlie Vasquez with the Houston Police Foundation. We talked about the challenges law enforcement has funding special equipment, and how one of the best solutions in many instances has turned out to be the establishment of a police foundation. The Houston Police Foundations has helped purchase K9's and Horses, as well as pay for the upkeep. They've purchased body armor, vehicles, computers, air support soft wear, and many other special needs equipment requested by the officers themselves.	:30
FYI	10/09/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guest was Dan Parsons with the Better Business Bureau of Greater Houston and South Texas. We talked about the difference between scams and actual business complaints to the BBB. We talked about the top 5 scams in Houston now, including ID theft, officious oppression scams such as the jury duty scam, energy re-sellers, private ER rooms and Urgent care facilities, and crowd funding. We also talked about the recent Wells Fargo scandal.	:30
FYI	10/09/16 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is Justin Bower, Senior Environmental Planner for the Houston-Galveston Area Council (H-GAC), who spoke on a proposed Watershed Protection Plan for the West Fork of the San Jacinto River. The West SanJac River Watershed follows from Lake Houston up-river to Lake Conroe, including Peach, Mound, and Crystal creeks, and above Lake	:30

		Conroe including Sandy, Caney, Little creeks among others, and includes thousands of acres ranging from forest and farm land, to major subdivisions and cities. He said the plan is a living document that guides the short and long term implementation of voluntary water quality improvement strategies. Bower explained H-GAC will provide the data and analysis to identify the sources of bacteria and other pollutants, and support local stakeholders in developing goals and strategies to improve water quality.
FYI	10/16/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Marcie Zlotnick and Jay Miller with the Sugar Land Skeeters Foundation. We talked about the Skeeters Foundation and organization, and how Sugar Land has embraced the minor league baseball team. We talked about the Foundations education program, summer reading program, and the accessible playground project. We talked about the Foundation's contribution to the local YMCA baseball teams and facilities, as well as baseball camps and fundraisers for local little league teams.	:30
FYI	10/16/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Ernest Hawk, M.D., and Jennifer Cofer with MD Anderson Cancer Center, and the End Tobacco Moonshot Program. Lung cancer is the No. 1 cause of cancer deaths worldwide. We talked about the mission to eliminate lung cancer through prevention, screening, treatment and research. We talked about the importance of preventing smoking, quitting smoking and the elimination of second hand smoke.	:30
FYI	10/23/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guest was Kelly N. Klein, Development Director of Easter Seals Greater Houston. We talked about the services and community resources Easter Seals provides for the disabled, their caregivers and veterans. We talked about the educational, economic, social and developmental needs, and what more can be done. We also talked about the cap the Texas Department of Education has put on providing school with funds for	:30 disabled students, despite the rising number of students who need it.

FYI	10/23/16 @ 5:30a.m.	On FYI this week, my guest is Cleveland Fire Chief Sean Anderson who primarily spoke on readying your home for Winter weather before the cold days and nights actually arrive. He explained the areas of concern with different heating systems such as a central system, fireplace, open flame heaters, space heaters, and the danger each pose. Anderson also reminded listeners of to change out batteries in detectors, smoke and carbon dioxide, and to change out the detectors themselves at least every five years.	:30
FYI	10/30/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Sgt. Chris Miller with Toys 4 Tots, and Eric Fry with Houston Children's Charity. We talked about the annual Marines Toys 4 Tots drive. The toys are distributed through the Houston Children's Charity. We talked about HCC programs for children, helping families in need.	:30
FYI	10/30/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guest was Dr. Daniel Roubein, with Mammosafe, a mobile mammography service. October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month. We talked about mobile mammography and early detection. We discussed the recommendations for when to get a mammography, and controversy about what age to start. We talked about causes and myths about breast cancer, as well as risk factors, types and treatments. We also talked about breast cancer in men.	:30
FYI	11/06/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guest was Phillip Butcher, Director of Transfer Admissions and Veteran Services at the University of St Thomas in Houston. We talked about the rise in adults returning to get degrees, and the University of St Thomas Adult Degree Completion Program, and Veterans Services. We talked about the kind of financial aid available as well as the commitment to finish a degree as an adult. We talked about the degrees available,	:30 financial and professional benefits, and the program success in helping students gain employment.

FYI	11/06/16 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is Ashley McHenry, Communications Coordinator with the Montgomery County Foodbank (MCF) located in Conroe, who told listeners how the organization receives and dispenses millions of pounds of food and necessities to the tens-of-thousands of people in need there. She gave statistics on the number of people in need in the county, and said there are 52 independent smaller foodbanks in the county that get items from MCF and they in turn disburse it to those in need. McHenry explained the majority of the food and items are bought by MCF, using cash donations, and by working with partners such as HEB, Kroger, produce outlets, even the FDA. MCF has storage, according to McHenry, of more than a million pounds of nonperishables and a refrigeration/freezer area of another million pounds of perishables. She also spoke of food drives coming up for the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons.	:30
FYI	11/13/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Cammy Hazim with the MS Society, and MS patient and Rock Start Fundraiser Allison Mulligan. We talked about the upcoming MS Walk. We discussed MS, what it is, what the symptoms are and who it affects. We talked about how there is no known cause or cure, but how research has made vast improvements to treatment for MS in recent years. We discussed what resources and support the MS Society provides patients, care givers and family members, and the challenges of living with MS.	:30
FYI	11/13/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guest was Scott Arthur with the Star of Hope. Mission, committed to assisting homeless women, men and children. We talked about programs such as transitional housing, life-management, shelter, employment, education and recovery from substance abuse. We talked about the Women and Family	:30

		Emergency Shelter, Men's Development Center, and the New Horizons program helping clients develop an action plan for families and singles. We also talked about the Thanksgiving feast, and special needs during the holidays.
FYI	11/20/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were WITH Kerri McKeel and Lisa Tynan with the Houston SPCA. We talked about the Houston SPCA's lifesaving programs and services for animals that are orphaned, abused and neglected. We talked about the 24 hour emergency ambulance service, the cost of feral animals to the economy.	:30
FYI	11/20/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Jennifer Smart and John Nickens with Texas Children's Hospital. We talked about the annual Cox Media Group Radiothon, helping to raise critical funds to help benefit patient care, education and research at Texas Children's Cancer Center, the building of a new pediatric tower in the medical center for the most critically ill children, and the opening of a community hospital in North Houston – Texas Children's Hospital The Woodlands.	:30
FYI	11/27/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Kelly Young and Ernie Menoz with AIDS Foundation Houston. We talked about World Aids Day. AIDS Foundation Houston is the only community-based AIDS services organization solely dedicated to ending HIV/AIDS in Houston. We talked about the World AIDS Day Luncheon, helping raise funds for services, testing and programs for men, women and children with HIV/AIDS, as well as support for "Getting to Zero"—a goal of zero new infections, zero AIDS-related deaths and zero stigma.	:30
FYI	11/27/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Jennifer Smart and John Nickens with Texas Children's Hospital. We talked about the annual Cox Media Group Radiothon, helping to raise critical funds to help benefit patient care, education and research at Texas Children's Cancer Center, the building of a new pediatric tower in the medical center for the most critically ill children, and the opening of a community	:30

		hospital in North Houston – Texas Children’s Hospital The Woodlands.
FYI	12/04/16 @ 5:00 am	Guest was Joel Cowley, President and CEO of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. We talked about the history of the HLSR, its dedication to agriculture and commitment to education. We talked about the millions of dollars in scholarships the HLSR has given to Texas students and schools, as well as the economic impact to the Houston area through sales and jobs. We talked about the tens of thousands of volunteers who help, and the millions of people who attend the trail rides, BBQ Cook-off, Rodeo, Concerts, Rodeo Run and grounds every year.	:30
FYI	12/04/16 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is Mike Legouds, Jr., Assistant Fire Chief for the Conroe Fire Department who told listeners of the full-time paid Department as well as explaining the types of equipment they have, the kind of events to which they respond, and the number of fire stations. He spoke of Station 7, the department’s newest station, and when it is expected to come on line. Legouds talked about the need to respond quickly, especially in cases such as a trench collapsing burying someone; hazardous chemical spills; and multi-structure fires. He related to listeners CFD also has fire and rescue boats on Lake Conroe.	:30
FYI	12/11/16 @ 5:00 am	Guest was Jackie Wallace with the Houston Zoo. We talked about the Houston Zoo’s commitment to be a leader in the global movement to save wildlife, as well as care for the animals in the zoo, while delivering a smart fun and inspiring experience to visitors and students. We talked about collaboration between the Houston Zoo, and other zoos and conservation programs around the world. We talked about the new gorilla habitat, baby sea lion and opening of the new Elephant exhibit, as well as the funding needed to operate safely while preserving and protecting wildlife and the environment.	:30

FYI	12/11/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Wade Morehead and Vicky Oddi With the Houston Marathon. We talked about preparations for the upcoming marathon, including safety, security and traffic along the course. We talked about the economic impact of the Marathon, as well as the charitable contributions through the "Run for a Reason" program. We also talked about the Houston Marathon Foundation, helping kids with scholarships, fitness programs and shoes.	:30
FYI	12/18/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guest was Butcher, Director of Transfer Admissions and Veteran Services at the University of St Thomas in Houston. We talked about the rise in adults returning to get degrees, and the University of St Thomas Adult Degree Completion Program, and Veterans Services. We talked about the kind of financial aid available as well as the commitment to finish a degree as an adult. We talked about the degrees available, financial and professional benefits, and the program success in helping students gain employment.	:30
FYI	12/18/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Mike Sullivan Director, Healthy Communities CHI St. Luke's Health, and Matt Johns Director, Mission Integration Programs Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston. We talked about poverty in Houston, and the upcoming poverty summit in Houston. We talked about the disparity in Houston between the wealthy and the poor. We talked about who is poor, the causes of poverty, and the needs of the poor, and the resources available to help people escape poverty. We talked about how poverty is bad for everyone in a community, about how the poor cannot contribute economically, and how without education and resources, the poor do not have hope.	:30

FYI	12/25/16 @ 5:00 am	Guest was Joel Cowley, President and CEO of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. We talked about the history of the HLSR, its dedication to agriculture and commitment to education. We talked about the millions of dollars in scholarships the HLSR has given to Texas students and schools, as well as the economic impact to the Houston area through sales and jobs. We talked about the tens of thousands of volunteers who help, and the millions of people who attend the trail rides, BBQ Cook-off, Rodeo, Concerts, Rodeo Run and grounds every year.	:30
For Your Information	12/25/16 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is D. Tim Holder, a Christian minister who spoke to listeners about the story of the first Christmas, including the foretelling by Old Testament Jewish prophets concerning the eventual birth of The Christ, the fulfilment of the prophecies by Jesus' birth, life, death, and resurrection. He talked about things such as the requirement The Christ be born of the lineage of Abraham and King David in Bethlehem. Holder read the story of Jesus' birth from the Second Chapter of the Gospel of Luke, and he discussed the story of the "Wise Men" from the Gospel of Matthew.	:30

Program Name	Date and Time Aired	Youth	Duration Of Discussion
FYI	10/16/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Marcie Zlotnick and Jay Miller with the Sugar Land Skeeters Foundation. We talked about the Skeeters Foundation and organization, and how Sugar Land has embraced the minor league baseball team. We talked about the Foundations education program, summer reading program, and the accessible playground project. We talked about the Foundation's contribution to the local YMCA baseball teams and facilities, as well as baseball camps and fundraisers for local little league teams.	:30
FYI	10/16/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Ernest Hawk, M.D., and Jennifer Cofer with MD Anderson Cancer Center, and the End Tobacco Moonshot Program. Lung cancer is the No. 1 cause of cancer deaths worldwide. We talked about the mission to eliminate lung cancer through prevention, screening, treatment and research. We talked about the importance of preventing smoking, quitting smoking and the elimination of second hand smoke.	:30
FYI	10/23/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guest was Kelly N. Klein, Development Director of Easter Seals Greater Houston. We talked about the services and community resources Easter Seals provides for the disabled, their caregivers and veterans. We talked about the educational, economic, social and developmental needs, and what more can be done. We also talked about the cap the Texas Department of Education has put on providing school with funds for disabled students, despite the rising number of students who need it.	:30

FYI	10/30/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Sgt. Chris Miller with Toys 4 Tots, and Eric Fry with Houston Children's Charity. We talked about the annual Marines Toys 4 Tots drive. The toys are distributed through the Houston Children's Charity. We talked about HCC programs for children, helping families in need.	:30
FYI	11/13/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Cammy Hazim with the MS Society, and MS patient and Rock Start Fundraiser Allison Mulligan. We talked about the upcoming MS Walk. We discussed MS, what it is, what the symptoms are and who it affects. We talked about how there is no known cause or cure, but how research has made vast improvements to treatment for MS in recent years. We discussed what resources and support the MS Society provides patients, care givers and family members, and the challenges of living with MS.	:30
FYI	11/13/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guest was Scott Arthur with the Star of Hope. Mission, committed to assisting homeless women, men and children. We talked about programs such as transitional housing, life-management, shelter, employment, education and recovery from substance abuse. We talked about the Women and Family Emergency Shelter, Men's Development Center, and the New Horizons program helping clients develop an action plan for families and singles. We also talked about the Thanksgiving feast, and special needs during the holidays.	:30
FYI	11/20/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Jennifer Smart and John Nickens with Texas Children's Hospital. We talked about the annual Cox Media Group Radiothon, helping to raise critical funds to help benefit patient care, education and research at Texas Children's Cancer Center, the building of a new pediatric tower in the medical center for the most critically ill children, and the opening of a community hospital in North Houston – Texas Children's Hospital The Woodlands.	:30

FYI	11/27/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Kelly Young and Ernie Menoz with AIDS Foundation Houston. We talked about World Aids Day. AIDS Foundation Houston is the only community-based AIDS services organization solely dedicated to ending HIV/AIDS in Houston. We talked about the World AIDS Day Luncheon, helping raise funds for services, testing and programs for men, women and children with HIV/AIDS, as well as support for “Getting to Zero”—a goal of zero new infections, zero AIDS-related deaths and zero stigma.	:30
FYI	11/27/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Jennifer Smart and John Nickens with Texas Children’s Hospital. We talked about the annual Cox Media Group Radiothon, helping to raise critical funds to help benefit patient care, education and research at Texas Children’s Cancer Center, the building of a new pediatric tower in the medical center for the most critically ill children, and the opening of a community hospital in North Houston – Texas Children’s Hospital The Woodlands.	:30
FYI	12/04/16 @ 5:00 am	Guest was Joel Cowley, President and CEO of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. We talked about the history of the HLSR, its dedication to agriculture and commitment to education. We talked about the millions of dollars in scholarships the HLSR has given to Texas students and schools, as well as the economic impact to the Houston area through sales and jobs. We talked about the tens of thousands of volunteers who help, and the millions of people who attend the trail rides, BBQ Cook-off, Rodeo, Concerts, Rodeo Run and grounds every year.	:30
FYI	12/11/16 @ 5:00 am	Guest was Jackie Wallace with the Houston Zoo. We talked about the Houston Zoo’s commitment to be a leader in the global movement to save wildlife, as well as care for the animals in the zoo, while delivering a smart fun and inspiring experience to visitors and students. We talked about collaboration between the Houston Zoo, and other zoos and conservation programs around the world. We talked about the new gorilla habitat, baby	:30 sea lion and opening of the new Elephant exhibit, as well as the funding needed to operate safely while preserving and protecting wildlife and the environment.

FYI	12/11/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Wade Morehead and Vicky Oddi With the Houston Marathon. We talked about preparations for the upcoming marathon, including safety, security and traffic along the course. We talked about the economic impact of the Marathon, as well as the charitable contributions through the "Run for a Reason" program. We also talked about the Houston Marathon Foundation, helping kids with scholarships, fitness programs and shoes.	:30
FYI	12/18/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Mike Sullivan Director, Healthy Communities CHI St. Luke's Health, and Matt Johns Director, Mission Integration Programs Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston. We talked about poverty in Houston, and the upcoming poverty summit in Houston. We talked about the disparity in Houston between the wealthy and the poor. We talked about who is poor, the causes of poverty, and the needs of the poor, and the resources available to help people escape poverty. We talked about how poverty is bad for everyone in a community, about how the poor cannot contribute economically, and how without education and resources, the poor do not have hope.	:30
FYI	12/25/16 @ 5:00 am	Guest was Joel Cowley, President and CEO of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. We talked about the history of the HLSR, its dedication to agriculture and commitment to education. We talked about the millions of dollars in scholarships the HLSR has given to Texas students and schools, as well as the economic impact to the Houston area through sales and jobs. We talked about the tens of thousands of volunteers who help, and the millions of people who attend the trail rides, BBQ Cook-off, Rodeo, Concerts, Rodeo Run and grounds every year.	:30

Program Name	Date and Time Aired	Education	Duration Of Discussion
FYI	10/02/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Laura Frnka-Davis with Life Gift, And heart valve recipient Katie Portell, We talked about Apple's recent announcement to register organ and tissue donors through the health app on the iPhone. We talked about the need to register as a donor, and a push to get information to minority donors.	:30
FYI	10/16/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Marcie Zlotnick and Jay Miller with the Sugar Land Skeeters Foundation. We talked about the Skeeters Foundation and organization, and how Sugar Land has embraced the minor league baseball team. We talked about the Foundations education program, summer reading program, and the accessible playground project. We talked about the Foundation's contribution to the local YMCA baseball teams and facilities, as well as baseball camps and fundraisers for local little league teams.	:30
FYI	10/16/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Ernest Hawk, M.D., and Jennifer Cofer with MD Anderson Cancer Center, and the End Tobacco Moonshot Program. Lung cancer is the No. 1 cause of cancer deaths worldwide. We talked about the mission to eliminate lung cancer through prevention, screening, treatment and research. We talked about the importance of preventing smoking, quitting smoking and the elimination of second hand smoke.	:30
FYI	10/23/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guest was Kelly N. Klein, Development Director of Easter Seals Greater Houston. We talked about the services and community resources Easter Seals provides for the disabled, their caregivers and veterans. We talked about the educational, economic, social and developmental needs, and what more can be done. We also talked about the cap the Texas Department of Education has	:30 put on providing school with funds for disabled students, despite the rising number of students who need it.

FYI	10/30/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Sgt. Chris Miller with Toys 4 Tots, and Eric Fry with Houston Children's Charity. We talked about the annual Marines Toys 4 Tots drive. The toys are distributed through the Houston Children's Charity. We talked about HCC programs for children, helping families in need.	:30
FYI	11/06/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guest was Phillip Butcher, Director of Transfer Admissions and Veteran Services at the University of St Thomas in Houston. We talked about the rise in adults returning to get degrees, and the University of St Thomas Adult Degree Completion Program, and Veterans Services. We talked about the kind of financial aid available as well as the commitment to finish a degree as an adult. We talked about the degrees available, financial and professional benefits, and the program success in helping students gain employment.	:30
FYI	11/13/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Cammy Hazim with the MS Society, and MS patient and Rock Start Fundraiser Allison Mulligan. We talked about the upcoming MS Walk. We discussed MS, what it is, what the symptoms are and who it affects. We talked about how there is no known cause or cure, but how research has made vast improvements to treatment for MS in recent years. We discussed what resources and support the MS Society provides patients, care givers and family members, and the challenges of living with MS.	:30
FYI	11/13/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guest was Scott Arthur with the Star of Hope. Mission, committed to assisting homeless women, men and children. We talked about programs such as transitional housing, life-management, shelter, employment, education and recovery from substance abuse. We talked about the Women and Family	:30

		Emergency Shelter, Men’s Development Center, and the New Horizons program helping clients develop an action plan for families and singles. We also talked about the Thanksgiving feast, and special needs during the holidays.
FYI	11/20/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Jennifer Smart and John Nickens with Texas Children’s Hospital. We talked about the annual Cox Media Group Radiothon, helping to raise critical funds to help benefit patient care, education and research at Texas Children’s Cancer Center, the building of a new pediatric tower in the medical center for the most critically ill children, and the opening of a community hospital in North Houston – Texas Children’s Hospital The Woodlands.	:30
FYI	11/27/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Kelly Young and Ernie Menoz with AIDS Foundation Houston. We talked about World Aids Day. AIDS Foundation Houston is the only community-based AIDS services organization solely dedicated to ending HIV/AIDS in Houston. We talked about the World AIDS Day Luncheon, helping raise funds for services, testing and programs for men, women and children with HIV/AIDS, as well as support for “Getting to Zero”—a goal of zero new infections, zero AIDS-related deaths and zero stigma.	:30
FYI	11/27/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Jennifer Smart and John Nickens with Texas Children’s Hospital. We talked about the annual Cox Media Group Radiothon, helping to raise critical funds to help benefit patient care, education and research at Texas Children’s Cancer Center, the building of a new pediatric tower in the medical center for the most critically ill children, and the opening of a community hospital in North Houston – Texas Children’s Hospital The Woodlands.	:30
FYI	12/04/16 @ 5:00 am	Guest was Joel Cowley, President and CEO of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. We talked about the history of the HLSR, its dedication to agriculture and commitment to education. We talked about the millions of dollars in scholarships the HLSR has given to	:30

		Texas students and schools, as well as the economic impact to the Houston area through sales and jobs. We talked about the tens of thousands of volunteers who help, and the millions of people who attend the trail rides, BBQ Cook-off, Rodeo, Concerts, Rodeo Run and grounds every year.
FYI	12/11/16 @ 5:00 am	Guest was Jackie Wallace with the Houston Zoo. We talked about the Houston Zoo's commitment to be a leader in the global movement to save wildlife, as well as care for the animals in the zoo, while delivering a smart fun and inspiring experience to visitors and students. We talked about collaboration between the Houston Zoo, and other zoos and conservation programs around the world. We talked about the new gorilla habitat, baby sea lion and opening of the new Elephant exhibit, as well as the funding needed to operate safely while preserving and protecting wildlife and the environment.	:30
FYI	12/11/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Wade Morehead and Vicky Oddi With the Houston Marathon. We talked about preparations for the upcoming marathon, including safety, security and traffic along the course. We talked about the economic impact of the Marathon, as well as the charitable contributions through the "Run for a Reason" program. We also talked about the Houston Marathon Foundation, helping kids with scholarships, fitness programs and shoes.	:30
FYI	12/18/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guest was Butcher, Director of Transfer Admissions and Veteran Services at the University of St Thomas in Houston. We talked about the rise in adults returning to get degrees, and the University of St Thomas Adult Degree Completion Program, and Veterans Services. We talked about the kind of financial aid available as well as the commitment to finish a degree as an adult. We talked about the degrees available, financial and professional benefits, and the program success in helping students gain employment.	:30

FYI	12/18/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Mike Sullivan Director, Healthy Communities CHI St. Luke's Health, and Matt Johns Director, Mission Integration Programs Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston. We talked about poverty in Houston, and the upcoming poverty summit in Houston. We talked about the disparity in Houston between the wealthy and the poor. We talked about who is poor, the causes of poverty, and the needs of the poor, and the resources available to help people escape poverty. We talked about how poverty is bad for everyone in a community, about how the poor cannot contribute economically, and how without education and resources, the poor do not have hope.	:30
FYI	12/25/16 @ 5:00 am	Guest was Joel Cowley, President and CEO of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. We talked about the history of the HLSR, its dedication to agriculture and commitment to education. We talked about the millions of dollars in scholarships the HLSR has given to Texas students and schools, as well as the economic impact to the Houston area through sales and jobs. We talked about the tens of thousands of volunteers who help, and the millions of people who attend the trail rides, BBQ Cook-off, Rodeo, Concerts, Rodeo Run and grounds every year.	:30

Program Name	Date and Time Aired	Health	Duration Of Discussion
FYI	10/02/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Laura Frnka-Davis with Life Gift, And heart valve recipient Katie Portell, We talked about Apple's recent announcement to register organ and tissue donors through the health app on the iPhone. We talked about the need to register as a donor, and a push to get information to minority donors.	:30
FYI	10/09/16 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is Justin Bower, Senior Environmental Planner for the Houston-Galveston Area Council (H-GAC), who spoke on a proposed Watershed Protection Plan for the West Fork of the San Jacinto River. The West SanJac River Watershed follows from Lake Houston up-river to Lake Conroe, including Peach, Mound, and Crystal creeks, and above Lake Conroe including Sandy, Caney, Little creeks among others, and includes thousands of acres ranging from forest and farm land, to major subdivisions and cities. He said the plan is a living document that guides the short and long term implementation of voluntary water quality improvement strategies. Bower explained H-GAC will provide the data and analysis to identify the sources of bacteria and other pollutants, and support local stakeholders in developing goals and strategies to improve water quality.	:30
FYI	10/16/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Ernest Hawk, M.D., and Jennifer Cofer with MD Anderson Cancer Center, and the End Tobacco Moonshot Program. Lung cancer is the No. 1 cause of cancer deaths worldwide. We talked about the mission to eliminate lung cancer through prevention, screening, treatment and research. We talked about the importance of preventing smoking, quitting smoking and the elimination of second hand smoke.	:30

FYI	10/23/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guest was Kelly N. Klein, Development Director of Easter Seals Greater Houston. We talked about the services and community resources Easter Seals provides for the disabled, their caregivers and veterans. We talked about the educational, economic, social and developmental needs, and what more can be done. We also talked about the cap the Texas Department of Education has put on providing school with funds for disabled students, despite the rising number of students who need it.	:30
FYI	10/23/16 @ 5:30a.m.	On FYI this week, my guest is Cleveland Fire Chief Sean Anderson who primarily spoke on readying your home for Winter weather before the cold days and nights actually arrive. He explained the areas of concern with different heating systems such as a central system, fireplace, open flame heaters, space heaters, and the danger each pose. Anderson also reminded listeners of to change out batteries in detectors, smoke and carbon dioxide, and to change out the detectors themselves at least every five years.	:30
FYI	10/30/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guest was Dr. Daniel Roubein, with Mammosafe, a mobile mammography service. October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month. We talked about mobile mammography and early detection. We discussed the recommendations for when to get a mammography, and controversy about what age to start. We talked about causes and myths about breast cancer, as well as risk factors, types and treatments. We also talked about breast cancer in men.	:30
FYI	11/06/16 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is Ashley McHenry, Communications Coordinator with the Montgomery County Foodbank (MCF) located in Conroe, who told listeners how the organization receives and dispenses millions of pounds of food and necessities to the tens-of-thousands of people in need there. She gave statics on the number of people in need in the county, and	:30 said there are 52 independent smaller foodbanks in the county that get items from MCF and they in turn disburse it to those in need. McHenry explained the majority of the food and items are bought by MCF, using cash donations, and by working with partners such as HEB, Kroger, produce outlets, even the FDA. MCF has storage, according to McHenry, of more than a million pounds of nonperishables and a refrigeration/freezer area of another million pounds of perishables. She also spoke of food drives coming up for the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons.

FYI	11/13/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Cammy Hazim with the MS Society, and MS patient and Rock Start Fundraiser Allison Mulligan. We talked about the upcoming MS Walk. We discussed MS, what it is, what the symptoms are and who it affects. We talked about how there is no known cause or cure, but how research has made vast improvements to treatment for MS in recent years. We discussed what resources and support the MS Society provides patients, care givers and family members, and the challenges of living with MS.	:30
FYI	11/13/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guest was Scott Arthur with the Star of Hope. Mission, committed to assisting homeless women, men and children. We talked about programs such as transitional housing, life-management, shelter, employment, education and recovery from substance abuse. We talked about the Women and Family Emergency Shelter, Men’s Development Center, and the New Horizons program helping clients develop an action plan for families and singles. We also talked about the Thanksgiving feast, and special needs during the holidays.	:30
FYI	11/20/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Jennifer Smart and John Nickens with Texas Children’s Hospital. We talked about the annual Cox Media Group Radiothon, helping to raise critical funds to help benefit patient care, education and research at Texas Children’s Cancer Center, the building of a new pediatric tower in the	:30 medical center for the most critically ill children, and the opening of a community hospital in North Houston – Texas Children’s Hospital The Woodlands.

FYI	11/27/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Kelly Young and Ernie Menoz with AIDS Foundation Houston. We talked about World Aids Day. AIDS Foundation Houston is the only community-based AIDS services organization solely dedicated to ending HIV/AIDS in Houston. We talked about the World AIDS Day Luncheon, helping raise funds for services, testing and programs for men, women and children with HIV/AIDS, as well as support for “Getting to Zero”—a goal of zero new infections, zero AIDS-related deaths and zero stigma.	:30
FYI	12/04/16 @ 5:00 am	Guest was Joel Cowley, President and CEO of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. We talked about the history of the HLSR, its dedication to agriculture and commitment to education. We talked about the millions of dollars in scholarships the HLSR has given to Texas students and schools, as well as the economic impact to the Houston area through sales and jobs. We talked about the tens of thousands of volunteers who help, and the millions of people who attend the trail rides, BBQ Cook-off, Rodeo, Concerts, Rodeo Run and grounds every year.	:30
FYI	12/04/16 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is Mike Legouds, Jr., Assistant Fire Chief for the Conroe Fire Department who told listeners of the full-time paid Department as well as explaining the types of equipment they have, the kind of events to which they respond, and the number of fire stations. He spoke of Station 7, the department’s newest station, and when it is expected to come on line. Legouds talked about the need to respond quickly, especially in cases such as a trench collapsing burying someone; hazardous chemical spills; and multi-structure fires. He related to listeners CFD also has fire and rescue boats on Lake Conroe.	:30

FYI	12/11/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Wade Morehead and Vicky Oddi With the Houston Marathon. We talked about preparations for the upcoming marathon, including safety, security and traffic along the course. We talked about the economic impact of the Marathon, as well as the charitable contributions through the “Run for a Reason” program. We also talked about the Houston Marathon Foundation, helping kids with scholarships, fitness programs and shoes.	:30
FYI	12/18/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Mike Sullivan Director, Healthy Communities CHI St. Luke’s Health, and Matt Johns Director, Mission Integration Programs Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston. We talked about poverty in Houston, and the upcoming poverty summit in Houston. We talked about the disparity in Houston between the wealthy and the poor. We talked about who is poor, the causes of poverty, and the needs of the poor, and the resources available to help people escape poverty. We talked about how poverty is bad for everyone in a community, about how the poor cannot contribute economically, and how without education and resources, the poor do not have hope.	:30

Program Name	Date and Time Aired	Safety	Duration Of Discussion
FYI	10/02/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Charlene Floyd, and Houston Police Assistant Chief Charlie Vasquez with the Houston Police Foundation. We talked about the challenges law enforcement has funding special equipment, and how one of the best solutions in many instances has turned out to be the establishment of a police foundation. The Houston Police Foundations has helped purchase K9's and Horses, as well as pay for the upkeep. They've purchased body armor, vehicles, computers, air support soft wear, and many other special needs equipment requested by the officers themselves.	:30
FYI	10/09/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guest was Dan Parsons with the Better Business Bureau of Greater Houston and South Texas. We talked about the difference between scams and actual business complaints to the BBB. We talked about the top 5 scams in Houston now, including ID theft, officious oppression scams such as the jury duty scam, energy re-sellers, private ER rooms and Urgent care facilities, and crowd funding. We also talked about the recent Wells Fargo scandal.	:30
FYI	10/09/16 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is Justin Bower, Senior Environmental Planner for the Houston-Galveston Area Council (H-GAC), who spoke on a proposed Watershed Protection Plan for the West Fork of the San Jacinto River. The West SanJac River Watershed follows from Lake Houston up-river to Lake Conroe, including Peach, Mound, and Crystal creeks, and above Lake Conroe including Sandy, Caney, Little creeks among others, and includes thousands of acres ranging from forest and farm land, to major subdivisions and cities. He said the plan is a living document that guides the short and long term implementation of voluntary water quality improvement strategies. Bower explained H-GAC will provide the data and	:30

		analysis to identify the sources of bacteria and other pollutants, and support local stakeholders in developing goals and strategies to improve water quality.
FYI	10/23/16 @ 5:30a.m.	On FYI this week, my guest is Cleveland Fire Chief Sean Anderson who primarily spoke on readying your home for Winter weather before the cold days and nights actually arrive. He explained the areas of concern with different heating systems such as a central system, fireplace, open flame heaters, space heaters, and the danger each pose. Anderson also reminded listeners of to change out batteries in detectors, smoke and carbon dioxide, and to change out the detectors themselves at least every five years.	:30
FYI	10/30/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Sgt. Chris Miller with Toys 4 Tots, and Eric Fry with Houston Children's Charity. We talked about the annual Marines Toys 4 Tots drive. The toys are distributed through the Houston Children's Charity. We talked about HCC programs for children, helping families in need.	:30
FYI	11/13/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guest was Scott Arthur with the Star of Hope. Mission, committed to assisting homeless women, men and children. We talked about programs such as transitional housing, life-management, shelter, employment, education and recovery from substance abuse. We talked about the Women and Family Emergency Shelter, Men's Development Center, and the New Horizons program helping clients develop an action plan for families and singles. We also talked about the Thanksgiving feast, and special needs during the holidays.	:30
FYI	11/27/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Kelly Young and Ernie Menoz with AIDS Foundation Houston. We talked about World Aids Day. AIDS Foundation Houston is the only community-based AIDS services organization solely dedicated to ending HIV/AIDS in Houston. We talked about	:30

		the World AIDS Day Luncheon, helping raise funds for services, testing and programs for men, women and children with HIV/AIDS, as well as support for “Getting to Zero”—a goal of zero new infections, zero AIDS-related deaths and zero stigma.
FYI	11/27/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Jennifer Smart and John Nickens with Texas Children’s Hospital. We talked about the annual Cox Media Group Radiothon, helping to raise critical funds to help benefit patient care, education and research at Texas Children’s Cancer Center, the building of a new pediatric tower in the medical center for the most critically ill children, and the opening of a community hospital in North Houston – Texas Children’s Hospital The Woodlands.	:30
FYI	12/04/16 @ 5:00 am	Guest was Joel Cowley, President and CEO of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. We talked about the history of the HLSR, its dedication to agriculture and commitment to education. We talked about the millions of dollars in scholarships the HLSR has given to Texas students and schools, as well as the economic impact to the Houston area through sales and jobs. We talked about the tens of thousands of volunteers who help, and the millions of people who attend the trail rides, BBQ Cook-off, Rodeo, Concerts, Rodeo Run and grounds every year.	:30
FYI	12/04/16 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is Mike Legouds, Jr., Assistant Fire Chief for the Conroe Fire Department who told listeners of the full-time paid Department as well as explaining the types of equipment they have, the kind of events to which they respond, and the number of fire stations. He spoke of Station 7, the department’s newest station, and when it is expected to come on line. Legouds talked about the need to respond quickly, especially in cases such as a trench collapsing burying someone; hazardous chemical spills; and multi-structure fires. He related to listeners CFD also has fire and rescue boats on Lake Conroe.	:30

FYI	12/11/16 @ 5:00 am	Guest was Jackie Wallace with the Houston Zoo. We talked about the Houston Zoo's commitment to be a leader in the global movement to save wildlife, as well as care for the animals in the zoo, while delivering a smart fun and inspiring experience to visitors and students. We talked about collaboration between the Houston Zoo, and other zoos and conservation programs around the world. We talked about the new gorilla habitat, baby sea lion and opening of the new Elephant exhibit, as well as the funding needed to operate safely while preserving and protecting wildlife and the environment.	:30
FYI	12/11/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Wade Morehead and Vicky Oddi With the Houston Marathon. We talked about preparations for the upcoming marathon, including safety, security and traffic along the course. We talked about the economic impact of the Marathon, as well as the charitable contributions through the "Run for a Reason" program. We also talked about the Houston Marathon Foundation, helping kids with scholarships, fitness programs and shoes.	:30
FYI	12/25/16 @ 5:00 am	Guest was Joel Cowley, President and CEO of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. We talked about the history of the HLSR, its dedication to agriculture and commitment to education. We talked about the millions of dollars in scholarships the HLSR has given to Texas students and schools, as well as the economic impact to the Houston area through sales and jobs. We talked about the tens of thousands of volunteers who help, and the millions of people who attend the trail rides, BBQ Cook-off, Rodeo, Concerts, Rodeo Run and grounds every year.	:30

Program Name	Date and Time Aired	Economy	Duration Of Discussion
FYI	10/02/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Charlene Floyd, and Houston Police Assistant Chief Charlie Vasquez with the Houston Police Foundation. We talked about the challenges law enforcement has funding special equipment, and how one of the best solutions in many instances has turned out to be the establishment of a police foundation. The Houston Police Foundations has helped purchase K9's and Horses, as well as pay for the upkeep. They've purchased body armor, vehicles, computers, air support soft wear, and many other special needs equipment requested by the officers themselves.	:30
FYI	10/09/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guest was Dan Parsons with the Better Business Bureau of Greater Houston and South Texas. We talked about the difference between scams and actual business complaints to the BBB. We talked about the top 5 scams in Houston now, including ID theft, officious oppression scams such as the jury duty scam, energy re-sellers, private ER rooms and Urgent care facilities, and crowd funding. We also talked about the recent Wells Fargo scandal.	:30
FYI	10/16/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Marcie Zlotnick and Jay Miller with the Sugar Land Skeeters Foundation. We talked about the Skeeters Foundation and organization, and how Sugar Land has embraced the minor league baseball team. We talked about the Foundations education program, summer reading program, and the accessible playground project. We talked about the Foundation's contribution to the local YMCA baseball teams and facilities, as well as baseball camps and fundraisers for local little league teams.	:30

FYI	10/16/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Ernest Hawk, M.D., and Jennifer Cofer with MD Anderson Cancer Center, and the End Tobacco Moonshot Program. Lung cancer is the No. 1 cause of cancer deaths worldwide. We talked about the mission to eliminate lung cancer through prevention, screening, treatment and research. We talked about the importance of preventing smoking, quitting smoking and the elimination of second hand smoke.	:30
FYI	10/23/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guest was Kelly N. Klein, Development Director of Easter Seals Greater Houston. We talked about the services and community resources Easter Seals provides for the disabled, their caregivers and veterans. We talked about the educational, economic, social and developmental needs, and what more can be done. We also talked about the cap the Texas Department of Education has put on providing school with funds for disabled students, despite the rising number of students who need it.	:30
FYI	10/23/16 @ 5:30a.m.	On FYI this week, my guest is Cleveland Fire Chief Sean Anderson who primarily spoke on readying your home for Winter weather before the cold days and nights actually arrive. He explained the areas of concern with different heating systems such as a central system, fireplace, open flame heaters, space heaters, and the danger each pose. Anderson also reminded listeners of to change out batteries in detectors, smoke and carbon dioxide, and to change out the detectors themselves at least every five years.	:30
FYI	10/30/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Sgt. Chris Miller with Toys 4 Tots, and Eric Fry with Houston Children's Charity. We talked about the annual Marines Toys 4 Tots drive. The toys are distributed through the Houston Children's Charity. We talked about HCC programs for children, helping families in need.	:30

FYI	10/30/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guest was Dr. Daniel Roubain, with Mammosafe, a mobile mammography service. October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month. We talked about mobile mammography and early detection. We discussed the recommendations for when to get a mammography, and controversy about what age to start. We talked about causes and myths about breast cancer, as well as risk factors, types and treatments. We also talked about breast cancer in men.	:30
FYI	11/06/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guest was Phillip Butcher, Director of Transfer Admissions and Veteran Services at the University of St Thomas in Houston. We talked about the rise in adults returning to get degrees, and the University of St Thomas Adult Degree Completion Program, and Veterans Services. We talked about the kind of financial aid available as well as the commitment to finish a degree as an adult. We talked about the degrees available, financial and professional benefits, and the program success in helping students gain employment.	:30
FYI	11/06/16 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is Ashley McHenry, Communications Coordinator with the Montgomery County Foodbank (MCF) located in Conroe, who told listeners how the organization receives and dispenses millions of pounds of food and necessities to the tens-of-thousands of people in need there. She gave statics on the number of people in need in the county, and said there are 52 independent smaller foodbanks in the county that get items from MCF and they in turn disburse it to those in need. McHenry explained the majority of the food and items are bought by MCF, using cash donations, and by working with partners such as HEB, Kroger, produce outlets, even the FDA. MCF has storage, according to McHenry, of more than a million pounds of nonperishables and a refrigeration/freezer area of another million pounds of perishables.	:30

		She also spoke of food drives coming up for the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons.
FYI	11/13/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Cammy Hazim with the MS Society, and MS patient and Rock Start Fundraiser Allison Mulligan. We talked about the upcoming MS Walk. We discussed MS, what it is, what the symptoms are and who it affects. We talked about how there is no known cause or cure, but how research has made vast improvements to treatment for MS in recent years. We discussed what resources and support the MS Society provides patients, care givers and family members, and the challenges of living with MS.	:30
FYI	11/13/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guest was Scott Arthur with the Star of Hope. Mission, committed to assisting homeless women, men and children. We talked about programs such as transitional housing, life-management, shelter, employment, education and recovery from substance abuse. We talked about the Women and Family Emergency Shelter, Men's Development Center, and the New Horizons program helping clients develop an action plan for families and singles. We also talked about the Thanksgiving feast, and special needs during the holidays.	:30
FYI	11/20/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were WITH Kerri McKeel and Lisa Tynan with the Houston SPCA. We talked about the Houston SPCA's lifesaving programs and services for animals that are orphaned, abused and neglected. We talked about the 24 hour emergency ambulance service, the cost of feral animals to the economy.	:30
FYI	11/20/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Jennifer Smart and John Nickens with Texas Children's Hospital. We talked about the annual Cox Media Group Radiothon, helping to raise critical funds to help benefit patient care, education and research at Texas Children's Cancer Center, the building of a new pediatric tower in the medical center for the most critically ill children, and the opening of a community	:30

		hospital in North Houston – Texas Children’s Hospital The Woodlands.
FYI	11/27/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Kelly Young and Ernie Menoz with AIDS Foundation Houston. We talked about World Aids Day. AIDS Foundation Houston is the only community-based AIDS services organization solely dedicated to ending HIV/AIDS in Houston. We talked about the World AIDS Day Luncheon, helping raise funds for services, testing and programs for men, women and children with HIV/AIDS, as well as support for “Getting to Zero”—a goal of zero new infections, zero AIDS-related deaths and zero stigma.	:30
FYI	11/27/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Jennifer Smart and John Nickens with Texas Children’s Hospital. We talked about the annual Cox Media Group Radiothon, helping to raise critical funds to help benefit patient care, education and research at Texas Children’s Cancer Center, the building of a new pediatric tower in the medical center for the most critically ill children, and the opening of a community hospital in North Houston – Texas Children’s Hospital The Woodlands.	:30
FYI	12/04/16 @ 5:00 am	Guest was Joel Cowley, President and CEO of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. We talked about the history of the HLSR, its dedication to agriculture and commitment to education. We talked about the millions of dollars in scholarships the HLSR has given to Texas students and schools, as well as the economic impact to the Houston area through sales and jobs. We talked about the tens of thousands of volunteers who help, and the millions of people who attend the trail rides, BBQ Cook-off, Rodeo, Concerts, Rodeo Run and grounds every year.	:30
FYI	12/04/16 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is Mike Legouds, Jr., Assistant Fire Chief for the Conroe Fire Department who told listeners of the full-time paid Department as well as explaining the types of equipment they have, the kind of events to which they respond, and the number of fire stations. He spoke of Station 7, the department’s newest	:30 station, and when it is expected to come on line. Legouds talked about the need to respond quickly, especially in cases such as a trench collapsing burying someone; hazardous chemical spills; and multi-structure fires. He related to listeners CFD also has fire and rescue boats on Lake Conroe.

FYI	12/11/16 @ 5:00 am	Guest was Jackie Wallace with the Houston Zoo. We talked about the Houston Zoo's commitment to be a leader in the global movement to save wildlife, as well as care for the animals in the zoo, while delivering a smart fun and inspiring experience to visitors and students. We talked about collaboration between the Houston Zoo, and other zoos and conservation programs around the world. We talked about the new gorilla habitat, baby sea lion and opening of the new Elephant exhibit, as well as the funding needed to operate safely while preserving and protecting wildlife and the environment.	:30
FYI	12/11/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Wade Morehead and Vicky Oddi With the Houston Marathon. We talked about preparations for the upcoming marathon, including safety, security and traffic along the course. We talked about the economic impact of the Marathon, as well as the charitable contributions through the "Run for a Reason" program. We also talked about the Houston Marathon Foundation, helping kids with scholarships, fitness programs and shoes.	:30
FYI	12/18/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guest was Butcher, Director of Transfer Admissions and Veteran Services at the University of St Thomas in Houston. We talked about the rise in adults returning to get degrees, and the University of St Thomas Adult Degree Completion Program, and Veterans Services. We talked about the kind of financial aid available as well as the commitment to finish a degree as an adult. We talked about the degrees available, financial and professional benefits, and the program success in helping students gain employment.	:30

FYI	12/18/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Mike Sullivan Director, Healthy Communities CHI St. Luke's Health, and Matt Johns Director, Mission Integration Programs Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston. We talked about poverty in Houston, and the upcoming poverty summit in Houston. We talked about the disparity in Houston between the wealthy and the poor. We talked about who is poor, the causes of poverty, and the needs of the poor, and the resources available to help people escape poverty. We talked about how poverty is bad for everyone in a community, about how the poor cannot contribute economically, and how without education and resources, the poor do not have hope.	:30
FYI	12/25/16 @ 5:00 am	Guest was Joel Cowley, President and CEO of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. We talked about the history of the HLSR, its dedication to agriculture and commitment to education. We talked about the millions of dollars in scholarships the HLSR has given to Texas students and schools, as well as the economic impact to the Houston area through sales and jobs. We talked about the tens of thousands of volunteers who help, and the millions of people who attend the trail rides, BBQ Cook-off, Rodeo, Concerts, Rodeo Run and grounds every year.	:30

Program Name	Date and Time Aired	Environment	Duration Of Discussion
FYI	10/09/16 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is Justin Bower, Senior Environmental Planner for the Houston-Galveston Area Council (H-GAC), who spoke on a proposed Watershed Protection Plan for the West Fork of the San Jacinto River. The West SanJac River Watershed follows from Lake Houston up-river to Lake Conroe, including Peach, Mound, and Crystal creeks, and above Lake Conroe including Sandy, Caney, Little creeks among others, and includes thousands of acres ranging from forest and farm land, to major subdivisions and cities. He said the plan is a living document that guides the short and long term implementation of voluntary water quality improvement strategies. Bower explained H-GAC will provide the data and analysis to identify the sources of bacteria and other pollutants, and support local stakeholders in developing goals and strategies to improve water quality.	:30
FYI	10/16/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Ernest Hawk, M.D., and Jennifer Cofer with MD Anderson Cancer Center, and the End Tobacco Moonshot Program. Lung cancer is the No. 1 cause of cancer deaths worldwide. We talked about the mission to eliminate lung cancer through prevention, screening, treatment and research. We talked about the importance of preventing smoking, quitting smoking and the elimination of second hand smoke.	:30
FYI	11/13/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Cammy Hazim with the MS Society, and MS patient and Rock Start Fundraiser Allison Mulligan. We talked about the upcoming MS Walk. We discussed MS, what it is, what the symptoms are and who it affects. We talked about how there is no known cause or cure, but how research has made vast improvements to treatment for MS in recent years. We discussed what resources and support the MS Society	:30 provides patients, care givers and family members, and the challenges of living with MS.

FYI	11/20/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were WITH Kerri McKeel and Lisa Tynan with the Houston SPCA. We talked about the Houston SPCA's lifesaving programs and services for animals that are orphaned, abused and neglected. We talked about the 24 hour emergency ambulance service, the cost of feral animals to the economy.	:30
FYI	11/27/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Jennifer Smart and John Nickens with Texas Children's Hospital. We talked about the annual Cox Media Group Radiothon, helping to raise critical funds to help benefit patient care, education and research at Texas Children's Cancer Center, the building of a new pediatric tower in the medical center for the most critically ill children, and the opening of a community hospital in North Houston – Texas Children's Hospital The Woodlands.	:30
FYI	12/04/16 @ 5:00 am	Guest was Joel Cowley, President and CEO of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. We talked about the history of the HLSR, its dedication to agriculture and commitment to education. We talked about the millions of dollars in scholarships the HLSR has given to Texas students and schools, as well as the economic impact to the Houston area through sales and jobs. We talked about the tens of thousands of volunteers who help, and the millions of people who attend the trail rides, BBQ Cook-off, Rodeo, Concerts, Rodeo Run and grounds every year.	:30
FYI	12/11/16 @ 5:00 am	Guest was Jackie Wallace with the Houston Zoo. We talked about the Houston Zoo's commitment to be a leader in the global movement to save wildlife, as well as care for the animals in the zoo, while delivering a smart fun and inspiring experience to visitors and students. We talked about collaboration between the Houston Zoo, and other zoos and conservation programs around the world. We talked about the new gorilla habitat, baby sea lion and opening of the new Elephant	:30 exhibit, as well at the funding needed to operate safely while preserving and protecting wildlife and the environment.

FYI	12/25/16 @ 5:00 am	Guest was Joel Cowley, President and CEO of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. We talked about the history of the HLSR, its dedication to agriculture and commitment to education. We talked about the millions of dollars in scholarships the HLSR has given to Texas students and schools, as well as the economic impact to the Houston area through sales and jobs. We talked about the tens of thousands of volunteers who help, and the millions of people who attend the trail rides, BBQ Cook-off, Rodeo, Concerts, Rodeo Run and grounds every year.	:30

Program Name	Date and Time Aired	Crime	Duration Of Discussion
FYI	10/02/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Charlene Floyd, and Houston Police Assistant Chief Charlie Vasquez with the Houston Police Foundation. We talked about the challenges law enforcement has funding special equipment, and how one of the best solutions in many instances has turned out to be the establishment of a police foundation. The Houston Police Foundations has helped purchase K9's and Horses, as well as pay for the upkeep. They've purchased body armor, vehicles, computers, air support soft wear, and many other special needs equipment requested by the officers themselves.	:30
FYI	10/09/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guest was Dan Parsons with the Better Business Bureau of Greater Houston and South Texas. We talked about the difference between scams and actual business complaints to the BBB. We talked about the top 5 scams in Houston now, including ID theft, officious oppression scams such as the jury duty scam, energy re-sellers, private ER rooms and Urgent care facilities, and crowd funding. We also talked about the recent Wells Fargo scandal.	:30
FYI	10/23/16 @ 5:30a.m.	On FYI this week, my guest is Cleveland Fire Chief Sean Anderson who primarily spoke on readying your home for Winter weather before the cold days and nights actually arrive. He explained the areas of concern with different heating systems such as a central system, fireplace, open flame heaters, space heaters, and the danger each pose. Anderson also reminded listeners of to change out batteries in detectors, smoke and carbon dioxide, and to change out the detectors themselves at least every five years.	:30
FYI	11/13/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guest was Scott Arthur with the Star of Hope. Mission, committed to assisting homeless women, men and children. We talked about programs such as transitional housing, life-management, shelter, employment, education	:30 and recovery from substance abuse. We talked about the Women and Family Emergency Shelter, Men’s Development Center, and the New Horizons program helping clients develop an action plan for families and singles. We also talked about the Thanksgiving feast, and special needs during the holidays.

FYI	11/20/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were WITH Kerri McKeel and Lisa Tynan with the Houston SPCA. We talked about the Houston SPCA's lifesaving programs and services for animals that are orphaned, abused and neglected. We talked about the 24 hour emergency ambulance service, the cost of feral animals to the economy.	:30
FYI	11/27/16 @ 5:00a.m.	Guests were Kelly Young and Ernie Menoz with AIDS Foundation Houston. We talked about World Aids Day. AIDS Foundation Houston is the only community-based AIDS services organization solely dedicated to ending HIV/AIDS in Houston. We talked about the World AIDS Day Luncheon, helping raise funds for services, testing and programs for men, women and children with HIV/AIDS, as well as support for “Getting to Zero”—a goal of zero new infections, zero AIDS-related deaths and zero stigma.	:30
FYI	12/04/16 @ 5:30a.m.	On For Your Information this week, my guest is Mike Legouds, Jr., Assistant Fire Chief for the Conroe Fire Department who told listeners of the full-time paid Department as well as explaining the types of equipment they have, the kind of events to which they respond, and the number of fire stations. He spoke of Station 7, the department’s newest station, and when it is expected to come on line. Legouds talked about the need to respond quickly, especially in cases such as a trench collapsing burying someone; hazardous chemical spills; and multi-structure fires. He related to listeners CFD also has fire and rescue boats on Lake Conroe.	:30

FYI	12/11/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Wade Morehead and Vicky Oddi With the Houston Marathon. We talked about preparations for the upcoming marathon, including safety, security and traffic along the course. We talked about the economic impact of the Marathon, as well as the charitable contributions through the “Run for a Reason” program. We also talked about the Houston Marathon Foundation, helping kids with scholarships, fitness programs and shoes.	:30
FYI	12/18/16 @ 5:30a.m.	Guests were Mike Sullivan Director, Healthy Communities CHI St. Luke’s Health, and Matt Johns Director, Mission Integration Programs Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston. We talked about poverty in Houston, and the upcoming poverty summit in Houston. We talked about the disparity in Houston between the wealthy and the poor. We talked about who is poor, the causes of poverty, and the needs of the poor, and the resources available to help people escape poverty. We talked about how poverty is bad for everyone in a community, about how the poor cannot contribute economically, and how without education and resources, the poor do not have hope.	:30