

Quarterly Issues/Programs List

KWED Radio

1st Quarter 2015

Jan., Feb., March

This is a list of the significant issues responded to by radio station KWED, Seguin, Texas during the most recent quarter. The list is by no means exhaustive, and does not include all of the news items covered by our station on a daily basis. The order, in which the issues appear, does not reflect any priority or significance. The items are listed chronological order by air date.

January 3, 2015

Arts/Entertainment, Saturday Topic program

Laurie Jenske, director of the Mid-Texas Symphony/Texas Lutheran University Community Music Academy, and C.J. Washington, executive director of the Mid-Texas Symphony. Jenske speaks about their CMA program and how its introducing music to children in the Seguin and New Braunfels areas. The CMA offers string and voice training through a number of area school districts. Washington discusses the collaboration that exists between the university, the symphony and the community and how that's helping kids and adults learn a greater appreciation for music and the arts. (20:08)

January 10, 2015

Elections/Politics, Saturday Topic program

This morning's Saturday Topic program features a look at the upcoming Texas legislative session. State Representative John Kuempel will join us this morning to discuss some of the important issues facing the state during the new session, which starts next week. (19:30)

January 10, 2015

Community Organizations/Public Service, Saturday Topic program

Our program features a look at the upcoming four-day Dr. Martin Luther King celebration in Seguin. MLK Committee members Earl Mosely, Joe Patterson, Linda Schuler, Regina Lee, and Dr. Jerry Carr. The group will discuss the importance of remembering Dr. King, and why they work so hard each year to honor his memory. They'll also tell you how you can get involved in next weekend's event, including the dinner show next Saturday in the Coliseum. (35:36)

January 17, 2015

Public/Higher Education, Saturday Topic program

This week's Saturday Topic program features a look at the more than $80 million in bond projects currently underway in the Seguin ISD. Dr. Irene Garza, Seguin ISD Superintendent of Schools; Bill Lewis, Assistant Superintendent for Technology and Curriculum Support; and Carlos Alexander, Director of Facilities and Construction will join KWED General Manager Darren Dunn for a look at the $78 million Seguin High School construction project, and we'll also look at the $5 million in technology upgrades that are underway districtwide. This is the first of a two-part series on the latest happenings in the Seguin ISD. Next week, we'll take a look at some of the other changes being made in the district to improve the performance of students, teachers and administrators. (42:38)

January 17, 2015

Business/Economy, Saturday Topic program

Representatives from the Seguin Area Chamber of Commerce are back with us this morning to provide a look at the latest happenings in the local business community. Our guests include Kaylynn Hawkins, Dana Overstreet, Amber Sabino, and John Kublank. This morning we'll focus primarily on the chamber's business trade show known as Showcase Seguin. It's the largest business expo in the area, and it's a great opportunity for business people to meet and mingle, and also meet folks in the community who might need their products and services. It's also a major social event and it's coming up at the end of February. We'll also talk about the chamber's Leadership Seguin program, and how its leadership class members are working together to make a difference in the community. (17:01)

January 24, 2015

Public/Higher Education, Saturday Topic program

Part two of our conversation on the latest happenings in the Seguin ISD comes to listeners of this weekend's Saturday Topic program on Seguin Radio, KWED. Last week's program focused on the status of the district's bond projects, including the construction of a new Seguin High School, and technology upgrades district wide. This week's program takes a look at a number of other improvements occurring district wide. The changes include the creation of a framework that tries to improve the performance of students, teachers, and administrators. Saturday Topic guests include Dr. Irene Garza, Seguin ISD superintendent of schools; Dr. Guadalupe Gorordo, deputy superintendent; and Anna Lisa Garza, director of the early college high school. (53:15)

January 31, 2015

Community Organizations/Public Service, Saturday Topic program

This week's Saturday Topic program features a look at a number of large street and drainage projects currently underway. City Engineer Joe Ramos and Projects Manager Nate Garza will be here to discuss the latest details on the River-San Marcos-Heideke project, that will create a new drainage backbone for the city. The pair will also discuss several other projects, including the Walnut Creek Hike and Bike Trail, a water line extension on the southeast side of town, and plans for a major renovation of TOR Drive. (49:20)

February 7, 2015

Community Organizations/Public Service, Saturday Topic program

Bras for a Cause is our topic today. Our guests are Kay Martin, Derek Clark, Jennifer Schultze and Joann Maples. They join us for a look at this fundraising event that raises money for cancer patients at Guadalupe Regional Medical Center. (11:40)

February 7, 2015

Community organizations, Saturday Topic program

Guest(s): Denise Crittenden, of the Girls Scouts Council brings cookie talk to the Saturday Topic. Cookies have arrived for 2015, and today we talk not just about the yummy treats, but also why scouting is so important to girls all around the world. (36:59)

February 14, 2015

Business/Economy, Saturday Topic program

Showcase Seguin is less than two weeks away. The business expo hosted by the Seguin Area Chamber of Commerce is set for Thursday, Feb. 26 at the Seguin-Guadalupe County Coliseum. Our monthly business update includes a look at the business trade show, and all of the other activities going on at the Seguin Area Chamber of Commerce. (20:38)

February 14, 2015

Arts/Entertainment, Saturday Topic program

Live theatre returns to Seguin this weekend. Agatha Christie's "And Then There Were None" kicks off a two weekend schedule at the Texas Theatre. Our guests include director Pat Hoppe and cast members Frank Follis, John Turnbow, Jeff Fowler, and Mary Jane Windle. (13:52)

February 21, 2015

Community Organizations/Public Service, Saturday Topic program

This week's Saturday Topic program features a look at a number of large street and drainage projects currently underway. City Engineer Joe Ramos and Projects Manager Nate Garza will be here to discuss the latest details on the River-San Marcos-Heideke project, that will create a new drainage backbone for the city. The pair will also discuss several other projects, including the Walnut Creek Hike and Bike Trail, a water line extension on the southeast side of town, and plans for a major renovation of TOR Drive. (49:20)

February 28, 2015

Public/Higher Education, Saturday Topic program

This week's Saturday Topic program features a look at the more than $80 million in bond projects currently underway in the Seguin ISD. Dr. Irene Garza, Seguin ISD Superintendent of Schools; Bill Lewis, Assistant Superintendent for Technology and Curriculum Support; and Carlos Alexander, Director of Facilities and Construction will join KWED General Manager Darren Dunn for a look at the $78 million Seguin High School construction project, and we'll also look at the $5 million in technology upgrades that are underway districtwide. This is the first of a two-part series on the latest happenings in the Seguin ISD. Next week, we'll take a look at some of the other changes being made in the district to improve the performance of students, teachers and administrators. (41:38)

February 28, 2015

Community Organization/Public Service, Saturday Topic program

Bras for a Cause (11:40) Guests: Kay Martin, Derek Clark, Jennifer Schultze and Joann Maples join us for a look at this fundraising event that raises money for cancer patients at Guadalupe Regional Medical Center.

March 7, 2015

Public/Higher Education, Saturday Topic program

Part two of our conversation on the latest happenings in the Seguin ISD comes to listeners of this weekend's Saturday Topic program on Seguin Radio, KWED. Last week's program focused on the status of the district's bond projects, including the construction of a new Seguin High School, and technology upgrades district wide. This week's program takes a look at a number of other improvements occurring district wide. The changes include the creation of a framework that tries to improve the performance of students, teachers, and administrators. Saturday Topic guests include Dr. Irene Garza, Seguin ISD superintendent of schools; Dr. Guadalupe Gorordo, deputy superintendent; and Anna Lisa Garza, director of the early college high school. (53:15)

March 21, 2015

Community Organizations/Public Service, Saturday Topic program

This week's Saturday Topic program features a look at a number of large street and drainage projects currently underway. City Engineer Joe Ramos and Projects Manager Nate Garza will be here to discuss the latest details on the River-San Marcos-Heideke project, that will create a new drainage backbone for the city. The pair will also discuss several other projects, including the Walnut Creek Hike and Bike Trail, a water line extension on the southeast side of town, and plans for a major renovation of TOR Drive. (49:20)

March 28, 2015

Elections/Politics, Saturday Topic program

Border security has been a growing story across Texas, and its been volatile policy debate across the United States. Today we get a firsthand look at efforts to curb illegal immigration, and why this is a problem that should be important to all Americans. Rio Grande City Mayor Ruben Villarreal is our guest this morning on the Saturday Topic. Villarreal is hear to discuss the enforcement response from federal, state and local governments. He discusses the recent trend that saw thousands of kids crossing the border without adult supervision, and he looks at what he thinks needs to happen in border communities like his. Villarreal will also discuss what he says are myths about the lack of safety in the Rio Grande Valley. (50:39)