We have a special start time for our Saturday Topic program this weekend. Our coverage of the local contested races that will appear on the November 8 ballot will get started on Saturday morning. The show will begin at 7 a.m. Saturday morning on KWED. The earlier start time at 7 a.m. is needed to provide adequate time to bring you the candidates from the District 3 race for the Seguin City Council and the District 7 race for the Seguin ISD Board of Trustees. The race for the city council seat features Jim Lievens and Darius Gil, who will both be here to discuss their qualifications for the job and to discuss their vision of the future for the city of Seguin. There's another contested race in the city of Seguin. Three candidates are running for the District 8 seat on the Seguin City Council. We will have Steven Berger, Bill Keller and Eddie

Davila on the Saturday Topic next week. The District 7 school board race features incumbent Glenda Moreno, who is being challenged by Steve Turner and Josh Bright. They will discuss the current state of the school district, the challenges it faces, and also weigh-in on the upcoming bond package that will also goes before voters on November 8. Our earlier than normal Saturday Topic, will end with a conversation about Pecan Fest at the Big Red Barn. The Texas Agricultural Education and Heritage Center is hosting several activities during the event slated for later this month. Jenny Siltmann and Kay Willmann will join us to discuss all the family fun planned for the event. We'll also discuss the antique tractor pull that's scheduled for this weekend at the Big Red Barn.

Saturday Topic

Today's Saturday Topic program will again give you a chance to hear directly from some of the candidates that will appear on the November 8 ballot. The city of Seguin is hosting two contested races, and we'll feature each of the candidates from those districts. The District 8 race will kick things off on this week's program. Three candidates are looking to fill the seat that's currently held by Mark Herbold, who is not eligible to seek re-election due to term limits. Bill Keller, Edward "Eddie" Davila, and Steven Berger will each join us for a look at the issues that are important to voters in the city of Seguin. Our conversation with the candidates in the race for the District 3 council seat will also again be featured on the Saturday Topic. Our encore presentation of our interview with Jim Lievens and Darius Gil will focus each candidate and why they think they are the right person for the job. Lievens and Gil are seeking the seat currently held by Chris Aviles, who decided not to seek re-election.

Our final segment on the Saturday Topic takes a look at the Watoto Kickball Tournament this weekend in Seguin. Dr. Rodrick Shao and student David Miller discuss the project that works to support children in need in Tanzania. Our Saturday Topic program airs at 8:00 Saturday morning here on AM 1580 KWED. You can also listen live online at seguintoday.com.
