

Quarterly Issues/Programs List KWED Radio 3rd Quarter 2015 July, Aug. Sept.

This is a list of the significant issues responded to by radio station KWED, Seguin, Texas during the most recent quarter. The list is by no means exhaustive, and does not include all of the news items covered by our station on a daily basis. The order, in which the issues appear, does not reflect any priority or significance. The items are listed chronological order by air date.

July 4, 2015 and July 11, 2015

Business/Economy, Saturday Topic program

Our July 2015 business update from the Seguin Area Chamber of Commerce. Chamber officials Kendy Gravett and Dana Overstreet join us with a look at the latest news impacting the local business community, including the chamber's Youth Leadership Academy, which begins in a week at Texas Lutheran University. (23:01)

July 11, 2015

Public/Higher Education and Community organizations/Public Service, Saturday Topic

Everyone knows the current success of the Navarro High School football program, but do you know how it all got started. It's a story that's tragic, that ended with two men cut down in the prime. They died in an accident putting up the goal post at what is now Ewrin-Lee Field. We tell their story, and share a little bit of history about the Navarro football program during this morning's program. We also talk about an effort to raise money to build a memorial monument to both men. (16:42)

July 18, 2015

Health/Wellness, Saturday Topic program

ADD and ADHD are the focus of today's Saturday Topic program. Dr. Nick Wilkens, executive director of the Guadalupe Valley Christian Counseling Center, joins us with a look at the disorders, how they are often presented and potential treatments, especially for children. (45:13)

July 25, 2015

Community organizations/Public Service, Saturday Topic program

Barry Robinson and Gary Miller from the Guadalupe Valley Chapter of Habitat for Humanity discuss the need for affordable decent housing in Seguin, and how their organization is working to meet that need. They also discuss the group's new habitat store, that's been greatly received by the community. (42:44)

August 1, 2015

Community Organizations/Public Service, Saturday Topic program

Fundraising continues for the Navarro football memorial. The program started with the tragic death of the football coach and ag teacher from Navarro. Former players and Navarro supporters join us for a look at the effort to remember Coach Ewin and Mr. Lee. (16:42)

August 8, 2015 and August 15, 2015

Community Organizations/Public Service, Saturday Topic program

Before the Seguin Little League Major All-Star Softball Team can head to the Little League World Series, the team will be needing to collect plenty of support from their fans here at home. A special Meet & Greet and Pep Rally is set for this Sunday night at the Seguin-Guadalupe County Coliseum. The Seguin Little League Major All-Stars (Texas East) defeated Greater Helotes (Texas West) for the chance to represent the United States in Portland, Oregon. The entire team and their have been invited to share their experiences and thoughts of the upcoming Little League World Series on our Saturday Topic program this morning. (26:00)

August 22, 2015

Community Organizations/Public Service, Saturday Topic program

Our Saturday Topic program this week features a conversations about the Seguin Silver Center. The center has been in operation for more than 20 years serving as a place for active seniors. It offers a number of free services to its members, and to the community. It's also a favorite meeting space for businesses, churches, and civic groups in the community. Those services, but the center's Taste of Seguin event are part of our discussion this morning. Our guests include Silver Center Board members

Brenda Englemann and Kathy Nossaman, and Executive Director Nancie Gonzales. (28:51)

August 29, 2015

Community Organizations/Public Service, Saturday Topic program

Carmen Davila and Glenda Moreno, of Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church, are here to discuss the Labor Day weekend event known as the Bazaar. The OLG bazaar has been around for more than seven decades. It started as a church event, and has blossomed into a homecoming event for many, and an event that's enjoyed by the overall community. Food, games, rides, live music and a car raffle are just a few things being offered this year at the Seguin Events Complex. (10:39)

August 29, 2015

Business/Economy and Community Organizations/Public Service, Saturday Topic program

Kendy Gravett, Dana Overstreet and Debbie Magin join the program today to provide an update on the local business community. Magin is part of the chamber's Education Partnership Committee. She'll discuss the committee's focus on project based learning, and how they are working with local businesses to try to help them connect with local schools and also help make learning more relevant for local students. Overstreet and Gravett will provide an update on all the other activities going on this month at the chamber office, including its annual awards banquet scheduled for late September. (15:32)

September 5, 2015

Elections/Politics, Saturday Topic program

A number of new laws went into effect on September 1. State Representative John Kuempel joins us this morning for a look at some of the new laws, and also to reflect on the outcome of the recent Texas Legislative session. (26:50)

September 5, 2015

Business/Economy, Saturday Topic program

Our September update from the Seguin Area Chamber of Commerce includes a discussion about the chamber's upcoming Awards Banquet, including the announcement of the new board of directors and board chairman. 16:32

September 12, 2015

Arts/Entertainment, Saturday Topic program

Maestro David Mairs, music director for the Mid-Texas Symphony, joins us with a look at the 38th season for the MTS. Six shows have been scheduled at venues in Seguin and New Braunfels. It's also a major milestone for the maestro. He's lead the orchestra for the last 20 years. (34:06)

September 19, 2015

Health/Wellness, Saturday Topic program

Guadalupe Regional Medical Center (GRMC) is gain growing its medical staff. Several more new doctors are being added to the hospital's roster. We'll introduce you to each of the doctors who are new the community. We'll talk about their specialties, their training and why they decided to join the medical staff at GRMC. Our guests include:

{Saturdaytopic1}	Dr. Brian Scott	6:15
{Saturdaytopic2}	Dr. Humayun Beg	6:52
{saturdaytopic3}	Dr. Daniel Okorodudu	7:40
{saturdaytopic4}	Dr. Juan Arenas	9:54
{saturdaytopic5}	Dr. Frank Wright	5:23

September 26, 2015

Health/Wellness, Saturday Topic program

PART ONE: Last week we introduced you to doctors Brian Scott, Humayun Beg, Daniel Okorodudu, Juan Arenas and Frank Wright. This week, we have four more highly trained physicians to share with you today. Our guests include Dr. Karl Vega (saturdaytopic2), a spine surgeon; Dr. Clint Burrus (saturdaytopic3), obstetrician/gynecologist; Dr. Kevin McMahon (saturdaytopic4), a nuerologist; and Dr. Sarah Lester (saturdaytopic5), a hospitalist joining the staff at GRMC. The widespread expansion of the local medical community is making a real difference when it comes to the quality and availability of care in this area. We'll speak to each physician about their training and background, and we'll also find out why they decided GRMC was the place the wanted to be. Our guests included:

{saturdaytopic2}	Dr. Karl Vega	6:09
{saturdaytopic3}	Dr. Scott Burris	6:54
{saturdaytopic4}	Dr. Kevin McMahon	5:05
{saturdaytopic5}	Dr. Sarah Lester	5:51

September 26, 2015

Health/Wellness and Community Organizations/Public Service, Saturday Topic program

Our program today features our annual look at the local effort raise awareness about the need for more organ donors in Texas. The statistics demonstrate how great the need is for organ and tissue donations not just in Texas, but all across the United States. Our friends from Seguin's Walk For Life event are back with us today. Cliff and Marci Letbetter have been the driving force behind this event for years. Cliff, who's a heart transplant recipient will be hear to again tell us how he's doing and why he and Marci continue to try to encourage more people to give so others can live. We'll also be joined by Greg Leal and Kim Rodriguez. A little more than a year ago Kim gave Greg a special gift. She donated a kidney to her friend, and has given him a new lease on life. We'll talk to them both about that experience, and have them tell you why they think you should consider signing up to become an organ donor. (18:42)