

Quarterly Issues/Programs List

KWED Radio

4th Quarter 2016

Oct., Nov., Dec.

This is a list of the significant issues responded to by radio station KWED, Seguin, Texas during the most recent quarter. The list is by no means exhaustive, and does not include all of the news items covered by our station on a daily basis. The order, in which the issues appear, does not reflect any priority or significance. The items are listed chronological order by air date.

October 1, 2016

Community Organizations/Public Service, Saturday Topic program

It's almost Guadalupe County Fair time. The 133rd Guadalupe County Fair and PRCA Rodeo returns to the Fairgrounds next month. This is the second oldest county fair in Texas, and it has been regularly voted as the top event in Guadalupe County each year. Fair Association Board Members Jenny Siltmann, and Gay Lynn Olsolvsky join us for a look at this year's event. (21:30)

October 8, 2016

Community Organizations/Public Service, Saturday Topic program

We'll talk to Dina Dillon, unit commander of the Guadalupe Valley Young Marines. You may not know much about this fantastic organizations, but chances are you have seen some of their members marching in parades or helping out around town. Dillon will tell you more about the organization, how you can get involved, and how you get your kids signed up to participate. 15:29

October 8, 2016

Business/Economy, Saturday Topic program

Kendy Gravett and Georgia Hester, from the Seguin Area Chamber of Commerce, join us for our monthly look at the local business community, and to provide an update on the chamber's calendar of events and business activities. (16:34)

October 15, 2016

Health/Wellness, Saturday Topic program

When parents split up, the children are often the collateral damage of a relationship gone bad. The challenges that go along with being a divorced parent will be the focus of the Saturday Topic program this weekend on AM 1580 KWED. Dr. Nick Wilkins, director of the Guadalupe Valley Christian Counseling Center (GVCCC), says divorce is already a difficult situation for adults, but he says when you add children to the equation, it can make being an effective parent even harder. He says that's one of the reasons why he thought this topic was so important at this time. You can hear the rest of Dr. Nick's conversation at 8:00 Saturday morning on KWED and online at SeguinToday.Com. Dr. Wilkins will discuss those parenting types when it comes to kids and divorce. He will also provide some tips and suggestions on how parents can work together to make the divorce a little bit easier for children. (52:34)

October 22, 2016

Elections/Politics, Saturday Topic program

Voters will be heading to the polls soon to decide who will be the next mayor of the city of Seguin. Our coverage of the local contested races begins today on the Saturday Topic program. The candidates for mayor will be featured on this weekend's Saturday Topic Program on Seguin Radio KWED. The radio program will feature current Mayor Don Keil and his opponent Edward Davila, Jr. General Manager Darren Dunn will sit down with each candidate to discuss the issues and to talk more in-depth about why they each feel that they are the best person for the job. The interview comes just two days before the start of early voting for the November 8 General Election. (39:38)

October 29, 2016 and November 5, 2016

Elections/Politics, Saturday Topic program

There's are important school board elections in both the Seguin and Navarro school districts. This morning, we'll let you hear from those candidates. Our guests include Seguin ISD candidates Ricardo Guerra, Carl Jenkins, Craig Thomas, Cinde Thomas-Jimenez and Elaina Reihl; and from the Navarro ISD, Amy Innes, Tracy Large, and Renee Rehfeld.

{Saturdaytopic1}	Ricardo Guerra	41:20
{saturdaytopic2}	Carl Jenkins	10:55
{saturdaytopic3}	Craig Thomas	44:28
{saturdaytopic4}	Cinde Thomas-Jimenez	15:57
{saturdaytopic5}	Elaina Reihl		19:29
{saturdaytopic6}	Amy Innes		10:57

{saturdaytopic7}	Tracy Large	8:21
{saturdaytopic8}	Renee Rehfeld	12:08

November 12, 2016

Health/Wellness, Saturday Topic program

Dr. Frank Wright talks about diabetes awareness, and quality family medical care on the Saturday Topic program. It's a new monthly feature focused on health and wellness. (16:37)

November 12, 2016

Business/Economy, Saturday Topic program

Kendy Gravett, Georgia Hester and Stephanie Scheller are here to discuss the latest news impacting the business community in Seguin. (14:35)

November 19, 2016

Public/Higher Education and Arts/Entertainment, Saturday Topic program

Stan Mauldin, director of band programs for the Seguin ISD, joins us to discuss the programs recent success during the marching season. The band is also preparing for its first ever trip Carnegie Hall in New York City. Mauldin explains how the band earned the prestigious trip, and how the community can help the kids get to their performance there. (14:15)

November 19, 2016

Community Organizations/Public Service, Saturday Topic program

Charlie Wilmann, Sandra Moline and Jackie Gross, of the Seguin Library Foundation, discuss their work to help keep the public library sustainable in the city of Seguin. The trio discusses how its helps to bridge the funding gap between what's provided by city and county governments, and what the library actually needs. They discuss how people can support the foundation. Gross also serves as the director of library services for the city of Seguin. She discusses the brand new state-of-the-art $15 million public library that was opened recently on West Nolte Street. (20:24)

November 26, 2016

Health/Wellness, Saturday Topic program

When parents split up, the children are often the collateral damage of a relationship gone bad. The challenges that go along with being a divorced parent will be the focus of the Saturday Topic program this weekend on AM 1580 KWED. Dr. Nick Wilkins, director of the Guadalupe Valley Christian Counseling Center (GVCCC), says divorce is already a difficult situation for adults, but he says when you add children to the equation, it can make being an effective parent even harder. He says that's one of the reasons why he thought this topic was so important at this time. You can hear the rest of Dr. Nick's conversation at 8:00 Saturday morning on KWED and online at SeguinToday.Com. Dr. Wilkins will discuss those parenting types when it comes to kids and divorce. He will also provide some tips and suggestions on how parents can work together to make the divorce a little bit easier for children. (52:44)

December 3, 2016

Community Organizations/Public Service, Saturday Topic program

Country Christmas is coming to the Big Red Barn. My guests today include Jenny Siltman, Ali Bratcher Wilkinson and Ronald Heinemeyer join us to discuss the big holiday celebration at the Texas Agricultural Education and Heritage Center. (15:17)

December 3, 2016

Public/Higher Education and Arts/Entertainment, Saturday Topic program

Stan Mauldin, director of band programs for the Seguin ISD, joins us to discuss the programs recent success during the marching season. The band is also preparing for its first ever trip Carnegie Hall in New York City. Mauldin explains how the band earned the prestigious trip, and how the community can help the kids get to their performance there. 14:15

December 10, 2016

Health/Wellness, Saturday Topic program

Do you struggle with drug or alcohol addiction? Do you know someone else who does? There's a new service that's now available at Guadalupe Regional Medical Center, which can help you completely turn your life, or someone else's around. The new 180 Program is now available. It's an in-patient program that provides medical support that begins the process of healing for those fighting addictions. Michelle Schwantz is the coordinator for the local program, and she's here to explain how it works, and how it can -- combined with other resources -- provide a way out. (13:00)

December 10, 2016

Business/Economy, Saturday Topic program

Plans are under way for the biggest business trade show in the area. The Seguin Area Chamber of Commerce is a couple of months away from its annual Showcase Seguin. Dozens of vendors show off their products and services to the community. The showcase is all about helping businesses connect with others. Chamber officials Kaylynn Hawkins and Georgia Hester say its also about having a good time in the process. This morning they'll talk about what you can expect during this year's trade show. They will also provide a look at the chamber calendar for the month, and discuss other issues critical to the operation of businesses here in Seguin. (18:50)

December 17, 2016

Community Organizations/Public Service, Saturday Topic program

Charlie Wilmann, Sandra Moline and Jackie Gross, of the Seguin Library Foundation, discuss their work to help keep the public library sustainable in the city of Seguin. The trio discusses how its helps to bridge the funding gap between what's provided by city and county governments, and what the library actually needs. They discuss how people can support the foundation. Gross also serves as the director of library services for the city of Seguin. She discusses the brand new state-of-the-art $15 million public library that was opened recently on West Nolte Street. (20:24)

Health/Wellness, Saturday Topic program

Do you struggle with drug or alcohol addiction? Do you know someone else who does? There's a new service that's now available at Guadalupe Regional Medical Center, which can help you completely turn your life, or someone else's around. The new 180 Program is now available. It's an in-patient program that provides medical support that begins the process of healing for those fighting addictions. Michelle Schwantz is the coordinator for the local program, and she's here to explain how it works, and how it can -- combined with other resources -- provide a way out. (13:00)

December 31, 2016

Health/Wellness, Saturday Topic program

When parents split up, the children are often the collateral damage of a relationship gone bad. The challenges that go along with being a divorced parent will be the focus of the Saturday Topic program this weekend on AM 1580 KWED. Dr. Nick Wilkins, director of the Guadalupe Valley Christian Counseling Center (GVCCC), says divorce is already a difficult situation for adults, but he says when you add children to the equation, it can make being an effective parent even harder. He says that's one of the reasons why he thought this topic was so important at this time. You can hear the rest of Dr. Nick's conversation at 8:00 Saturday morning on KWED and online at SeguinToday.Com. Dr. Wilkins will discuss those parenting types when it comes to kids and divorce. He will also provide some tips and suggestions on how parents can work together to make the divorce a little bit easier for children. (52:44)