Mission Statement

KIWR endeavors to serve its listeners, the business community, Iowa Western Community College and students of the Electronic Media Studies Program.

Our mission is to provide:

- Access to unique, quality programming for Southwest Iowa and Eastern Nebraska.
- Educational opportunities for broadcasting students.
- Ethical and successful business opportunities for local, regional and national enterprises.
- A liaison between Iowa Western Community College and the community.

It is our ultimate goal to enhance the quality of life of those with whom we serve by providing information, education and entertainment to the community.
