

Issue	Name of Program/Segment	Date of Airing	Time of Airing	Duration	Narrative of How the Issue was Treated
1st quarter	2023
Traffic	Ampilified Afternoons with Corey	January 9th	5:30pm (approx.)	1 Minute	During traffic break staff informed listeners that the Bellevue Mayor Rusty Hike joined city officials and construction contractors for a ribbon cutting for the re-opening of 36th Street south of Capehart.
Health	Middays with Skinman	January 11th	11am (approx.)	1 Minute	During break staff discussed January is National Blood donor month, currently only about 3% of people donate and The American Red Cross encourages more people to sign up and give blood.
Health	Morning Fiasco	January 18th	7:50am (approx.)	1 Minute	During break staff discussed that January is National Mentoring Month, and Mentor Nebraska is celebrating by launching a statewide campaign to recruit mentors for young Nebraskans.
Health & Education	PSA	January 30th (6 times a day from January 30th until Febuary 10th)	12:00a-12:00m	30 Seconds	PSA over the annual Wings of Hope Winter Gala to help educate and raise funds to support 2023 operating budget for the Wings of Hope Cancer Support Center.
Crime	Ampilified Afternoons with Corey	February 3rd	1pm (approx.)	2 Minutes	During break staff informed listeners that Police are asking the public to please avoid the area of the Target Store at 178th and Center in West Omaha. Around Noon, police responded to calls of an active shooter in the Target store. No civilians were injured during the incident.

Health & Education	Ampilified Afternoons with Corey	February 10th	2:40pm (approx.)	1 Minute	During break staff discussed how February 11th has been decared 211 day by Nebraska state and community leaders in an effort to remind everyone about the existence of the 211 helpline number. 211 is a helpline that connects people to services and resources such as housing, health care and employment.
Education	Morning Fiasco	February 15th	8:20am (approx.)	1 Minute	During break staff discussed a new exhibit just opened at the Omaha Children's museum, which celebrates Indigenous people and traditions in the heartland. The exhibit was designed in partnership with the local indigenous community.
Health	Middays with Skinman	February 24th	10:30am (approx.)	1 Minute	During break staff discussed how The Street Dog Coalition is hosting a complimentary pet clinic every third Sunday of the month for pet owners who are in need. It's made up of volunteer veterinarians and technicians who provide health exams, vaccines, heartworm tests, and parasite preventatives to pets of people experiencing, or at risk of homelessness.
Town Beautification	Ampilified Afternoons with Corey	March 3rd	3pm (approx.)	1 Minute	During break staff discussed a redevelopment project that was proposed for South Omaha, specifically the 24th Street corridor.

Town Beautification	Morning Fiasco	March 5th	7:20am (approx.)	1 Minute	During break staff discussed another redevelopment proposal has been submitted for 17th and Cuming Streets. A park, that would be privately owned, but publicly accessible. The idea is a 1.4 acre entertainment space, featuring a grassy lawn oriented toward a giant movie screen and a stage for outdoor live performances.
Health & Education	Morning Fiasco	March 6th	8:40am (approx.)	1 Minute	During break staff discussed that the Nebraska Community Blood Bank has announced that they are in a blood emergency, and that they are in dire need of blood donations. Right now, the blood type that is at a critical level is type O, both negative and positive, and they stress that if they don't get more, the shortage could impact area hospitals.
Health	PSA	March 8th (6 times a day from March 8th until March 12th)	12a-12m	30 Seconds	PSA on the Iowa Western Community Colleges and American Red Cross blood drive Tuesday March 14th at the IWCC Wellness Center. Encouraging others to give blood to help save lives.
Crime	Amplified Afternoons with Corey	March 30th	1:40pm (approx.)	1 Minute	During break staff discussed how a police cruiser was involved in a crash in west Omaha on Wednesday night. The Officer struck witnessed a northbound Honda fail to yield while making a left turn and was struck by a southbound Ford Explorer.