

Quarterly Needs and Programs Report

3rd Quarter 2022

Description of Programming

KSJQ Perspective

A two-minute program on a topic of interest, often one of the top news stories of the week, based on interviews with the people involved. Perspective is broadcast Saturday at 5:50 am

Quality of Life

7.2.22 What Independence Day means to the military; with Staff Sergeant Mary Kate Masters, 139th Airlift Group based in St. Joseph.

7.30.22 Chiefs Training Camp returns to St. Joseph; with Missouri Western State University President Elizabeth Kennedy and Chiefs President Mark Donovan.

Economic Development

7.23.22 St. Joseph State Representative is on a trade mission to Germany; with State Representative Brenda Shields and Governor Mike Parson.

Health

9.24.22 Drug overdose cases, including deaths, continue to rise in Buchanan County; with Stephanie Malita, St. Joseph Health Department educator.

Government

7.9.22 St. Joseph parks projects update; with Parks and Recreation Director Chuck Kempf.

Education

7.16.22 Find My Path program is helping people find new work and better pay; with Jerri Arnold-Cook, Director, Missouri Western State University Career Development Center.

9.3.22 One last time for the Bishop Leblond Carnival; with Ann Lachowitz, President of the St. Joseph Catholic Academy.

9.10.22 Missouri Western State University will commemorate Nine-Eleven with a stair climb honoring first responders who climbed stairs to rescue victims trapped in the World Trade Center towers; with Chelsey Clark, Director of the Center for Military and Veterans Services at the university.

Political Issues

8.6.22 Review of the primary election results; with St. Joseph School Board President David Foster, Superintendent Gabe Edgar, Presiding Commissioner candidate Scott Nelson, and Congressman Sam Graves of Tarkio.

Service Organizations

8.13.22 Mosaic Life Care Foundation announces project details for the long-planned Child Discovery Center in St. Joseph; with Jeni Doolittle, chair of the foundation board of trustees, MLC CEO Mike Poore, and foundation president Julie Gaddie.

9.17.22 St. Joseph Sports Hall of Fame honors new inductees; with Brett Esely, director, St Joseph Sports Commission.