

2022 DISCLOSURE STATEMENT REGARDING POLITICAL
SALES PRACTICES FOR LAST FRONTIER MEDIACTIVE LLC RADIO STATIONS
STATION(S): KMVN-FM/KZND-FM
POLITICAL ADVERTISING DISCLOSURE STATEMENT
EFFECTIVE ON AND AFTER 01/20/2022

The following practices apply to purchases of advertising time for “use” by legally qualified candidates for public office. In order to qualify for this treatment, candidates or their representatives are required to demonstrate that they are legally qualified. This Disclosure Statement is provided for general information as required by the rules and regulations of the Federal Communications Commission (“FCC”), and is not intended to be a part of any advertising sales contract, which is governed by applicable law and its own terms. Practices described herein are subject to change at the Stations discretion, to the extent permitted by law.

Legally qualified federal candidates are entitled to purchase time on the Station during their election campaigns. The Station will consider all requests for such time and will make reasonable accommodations to meet such requests. Although a federal candidate has the right to “reasonable access” to the facilities of the Station for the airing of political advertisements, the discretion with respect to the placement of political advertisements. The station will grant access to only specified day part placement that is published on the individual 2018 station political rate cards to all state and local candidates.

During the 45 days preceding the 2022 Alaska primary election (August 16th, 2022) and the 60 days before the 2022 Alaska general election (November 8th, 2022) and the 60 days before the 2022 Anchorage Municipal election (April 5th, 2022) the station charges candidates in the respective elections the “lowest unit charge” for an advertisement if the advertisement constitutes a “use” of the stations facilities, as defined by the FCC. During any time outside of the 45-day and 60-day periods, the charges for political advertisements constituting as “use” are set so as to be no higher than those charged other advertisers for comparable use of the station’s facilities. Any political advertisement that is not a “use”, including any advertisement purchased by a non-candidate or any advertisement dealing with non-candidate ballot issues, is sold prevailing commercial rates. If a political advertisement constitutes a use, the Station will provide opposing candidates with “equal opportunities” as established by federal law, to use the facilities of the station. No candidate will be offered the station’s lowest unit charge unless the candidate provides the station with certification that the candidate will not make any direct reference to another candidate for the same office in any broadcast unless the broadcast complies with SS315(b)(2)(C) of the Communications Act as amended by the Bipartisan Campaign Reform Act of 2002.

DISCLOSURE STATEMENT
