3Q 2020

Pursuant to the disclosure requirements in 47 C.F. R. 73.3526(11)(i), and during the quarter referenced above, this station provided information to its viewers regarding the following significant issues, detailed below. Because the quarter includes dates prior to Fox Television Stations, LLC's acquisition of this station on March 2, 2020, the station cannot, nor is it required to, prepare a report for programming aired between January 1, 2020 – March 1, 2020. See Hensley Broadcasting, Inc., Forfeiture Order, 24 FCC Rcd 115, 116 n.8 (2009) (whereby the FCC noted that negotiating an assignment of license - as opposed to a transfer of control - insulates the assignee from liability for the assignor's violations).

Quarterly Issues and Program List

KCPQ	Public Safety	4:00 PM	7/1/2020	3:23	Q13 News at 4	We told viewers the Seattle police department regained control over some areas of CHOP. While officials respect the message of the mostly peaceful protestors, the recent gun violence created an unsafe environment for residents. The police union maintains its commitment to reinvent community policing to address the public's concerns.
KCPQ	Environment	5:00 AM	7/2/2020	:22	Q13 News This Morning	We told viewers the Department of Natural Resources reports 90% of wildfires are man-made. As they prepare for this year's season they want to remind people to take precautions by avoiding fireworks, ensuring campfires are contained and put out properly, and creating a defensible space around their homes.
KCPQ	Public Safety	5:00 AM	7/3/2020	:38	Q13 News This Morning	With the Fourth of July approaching health officials are worried about a surge in Coronavirus cases. We shared with viewers that officials still recommend that people stay home and limit social gatherings.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

KCPQ	Education	4:00 PM	7/3/2020	4:32	Q13 News at 4	We shared new recommendations for going back to school from the American Academy of Pediatrics. They suggest not returning to the classroom may be more detrimental than the risks Covid presents. Doctors report increased cases of anxiety, depression, obesity, and hunger. They also cite new research indicating adolescents may not be as susceptible to Covid or spread it as easily.
KCPQ	Government	5:00 PM	7/3/2020	3:47	Q13 News at 5	We told viewers that the governor has added new restrictions for businesses to the statewide mask requirement. Starting next week, businesses must turn away any patrons not wearing a mask or face possible fines.
KCPQ	Government	10:00 PM	7/5/2020	:20	Q13 News at 10	We told viewers the Seattle city council is preparing to vote on the jumpstart tax bill. The new bill would make businesses pay a tax on any employee making over $150,000 a year. The tax would generate about 215 million a year in revenue for the city.
KCPQ	Health	11:00 PM	7/7/2020	3:35	Q13 News at 11	We checked in with a local woman who was one of the first to test positive for Covid without experiencing any symptoms. She shared the toll quarantine is having on her as well as the stigma of testing positive for Covid. We also updated viewers on Covid numbers which continue to rise especially among young people. Officials still recommend limiting your exposure to the public.

KCPQ	Youth Development	10:00 PM	7/8/2020	4:19	Q13 News at 10	We updated viewers on youth fall sports. The Washington Interscholastic Activities Association announced this week that activities may begin on September 5. But Safe Start Washington says some high risk sports like football can't begin until phase four of reopening. With phases paused in many counties it still creates uncertainty for many, but coaches and players are trying to think positive.
KCPQ	Health	10:00 PM	7/15/2020	1:47	Q13 News at 10	We told viewers about a statewide program called Washington Listens. It is a call center offering advice and listening to people's concerns regarding the pandemic. Callers may also get referrals to find support for housing, finances, and food banks.
KCPQ	Public Safety	10:00 PM	7/15/2020	:46	Q13 News at 10	We told viewers Kirkland is implementing park ambassadors to make sure people are wearing masks while using city parks. They are also handing out masks to anyone that needs them. It's all an effort to keep recreation sites open and keep the public safe.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

KCPQ	Community	4:00 PM	7/22/2020	:16	Q13 News at 4	We let viewers know about a project called 10,000 Headshots. It's a group of professional photographers offering free headshots to unemployed people. Opportunities are available at multiple locations through the nation including Alderwood Mall.
KCPQ	Community	10:00 PM	7/23/2020	7:06	Q13 News at 10	We told viewers about a local teen determined to make a difference. His current project is supplying water, meals, and hygiene kits to Seattle's homeless community. He is also raising money to fund the kits and delivering supplies to local food banks in order to reach even more people in need.
KCPQ	Transportation	5:00 AM	7/28/2020	:20	Q13 News This Morning	We provided viewers with an update on the West Seattle Bridge. Today crews took the first step toward repairing or replacing the bridge by placing two new platforms. The platforms will allow workers to stabilize the bridge and slow the cracking.
KCPQ	Economy	4:00 PM	7/29/2020	3:58	Q13 News at 4	We talked about Covid's impact on local live entertainment and dining experiences. One local business, Café Nordo, has found some ways to adapt with take out, delivery, and virtual cooking classes. But like many other local businesses and artists, they fear that the longer restrictions continue, the harder it may become.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

KCPQ	Economy	10:00 PM	7/29/2020	4:30	Q13 News at 10	We told viewers low demand from airlines may result in more layoffs at Boeing. The company has already retired the 747 line and may cancel or move production of some other 787 lines.
KCPQ	Public Safety	5:00 PM	8/4/2020	3:55	Q13 News at 5	We let viewers know about increasing gun violence. The King County prosecutor's offices says it has handled a year's worth of cases in the first seven months of 2020. Budget cuts and a push to defund police makes things even harder. Officials support the need to fund efforts to prevent further violence, but they also don't want victims and their families to lose resources.
KCPQ	Government	7:00 AM	8/5/2020	:25	Q13 News This Morning	We provided a rundown of primary election results for our viewers.
KCPQ	Economy	10:00 PM	8/5/2020	4:10	Q13 News at 10	We highlighted a local restaurant owner in Ballard who was forced to close in March, but found a way to adjust and reopen to meet new standards. She hired back her staff to help bake and started a food truck. She also plans to open a second location for take-out only. Even though times are still difficult, being flexible has kept her from shutting down for good and find a rare bout of success.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

KCPQ	Education	11:00 PM	8/5/2020	3:32	Q13 News at 11	We updated viewers on the governor's recommendations for going back to school. In general, officials need to see fewer cases overall and encourages schools to consider a slow return back to the classrooms. But some parents, especially those of kids with specials needs, still worry their kids progress will be stunted without access to resources.
KCPQ	Public Safety	10:00 PM	8/7/2020	3:07	Q13 News at 10	We told viewers about new standards for restaurants entering phase two of reopening. All staff must undergo health screenings before each shift, wear masks, and follow social distancing guidelines. Also, restaurants must limit capacity and record customer's contact information so they may be contacted if a positive Covid case occurs. Similarly, all patrons must wear masks unless seated at their table.
KCPQ	Health	7:00 AM	8/10/2020	:37	Q13 News This Morning	We told viewers that gyms are opening in counties at phase 2 or 3 of reopening. But patrons must follow strict safety guidelines including maintaining a 17-foot distance from other people and wearing a mask. Also, gyms must limit capacity. Some think the rules are too restrictive and may be more detrimental to smaller gyms.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

KCPQ	Community	5:00 AM	8/12/2020	4:54	Q13 News This Morning	We told viewers that during August the city of Kent celebrates black owned businesses by highlighting local entrepreneurs on social media. By doing so, the city hopes to bolster the local economy and encourage residents to consider supporting new businesses.
KCPQ	Public Safety	6:00 AM	8/12/2020	:25	Q13 News This Morning	We told viewers the Pierce County Sheriff's Office is hiring two dozen more deputies. Despite calls to defund police, Pierce County is looking forward to improving public safety by hiring more staff.
KCPQ	Economy	10:00 PM	8/13/2020	3:53	Q13 News at 10	We told viewers that thousands of Washington residents are still waiting for their unemployment claims to be processed. One viewer said she filed on May 8th and has made over 1,000 calls and is still waiting. The ESD says they have processed 81,000 claims made between March and June, but most belong to a specific category. This leaves 24,000 claims unanswered and residents with no money to pay their bills.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

KCPQ	Community	5:00 AM	8/14/2020	4:33	Q13 News This Morning	We told viewers about growing concerns in Fall City. During summer it's a popular spot for people to come and float the river to cool off. However, community residents say visitors aren't complying with guidelines such as wearing masks and maintaining a safe social distance. Residents also say that in eight weeks, visitors have left behind 50,000 pounds of trash. Officials are responding by adding more patrols to help enforce the rules.
KCPQ	Government	10:00 PM	8/17/2020	1:51	Q13 News at 10	We told viewers the postmaster general is coming under fire for actions he has taken to slow mail delivery and decommission mail sorting machines. Many are concerned the moves are politically motivated to hurt the upcoming election. Meanwhile, citizens who rely on the USPS to deliver their medications are also hurting due to the delays.
KCPQ	Health	4:30 AM	8/20/2020	:43	Q13 News This Morning	We interviewed a physician to provide our viewers with tips on knowing when to get tested for Covid. He said that everyone should be vigilant about monitoring their health, but shouldn't get paranoid. He also encourages people to use the symptom checker provided by the CDC. It may help people determine the next steps to take should they experience any new symptoms.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

KCPQ	Community	5:00 AM	8/25/2020	:22	Q13 News This Morning	We let viewers know how the Rainier Beach Urban Farm and Wetlands, is helping families in need. It is the largest urban farm in Seattle run by local members and aims to provide access to fresh food to those who can't normally afford it. It operates a farm stand every Thursday using a pay what you can scale and also gives away bags of produce.
KCPQ	Economy	4:00 PM	8/25/2020	5:14	Q13 News at 4	We told viewers how Covid may impact ag tourism this Fall in the region. The state issued new safety guidelines for operating which eliminates hay rides, animal petting, and campfires. This basically leaves picking pumpkins as the only activity. Maris Farms, a popular local destination, says the restrictions means she'll likely only earn about 25% of revenue this year.
KCPQ	Education	10:00 PM	8/30/2020	3:04	Q13 News at 10	We highlighted local residents preparing for a new kind of back to school with most students starting the year online. Aside from getting the right tools such as desks, pens, or paper, parents also worry about maintaining their kid's mental and physical health. One mom in Snoqualmie Valley is creating a workout routine and making sure she plans meals and snacks to keep everyone healthy and focused.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

KCPQ	Education	5:00 PM	9/3/2020	4:06	Q13 News at 5	The deputy director of the Tacoma Pierce County Health Department has walked back its decision requiring all schools, public or private, to begin the school year remotely. It now will allow each district to decide on their own. This gives parents some hope their kids may return to the classroom sooner than previously thought.
KCPQ	Youth Development	9:00 AM	9/4/2020	:43	Q13 News This Morning	We told viewers a group of student athletes, coaches, and supporters marched at the capitol building in Olympia asking the governor to allow them to play Fall sports. While students say they understand the risks of Covid, many rely on sports for college opportunities. Losing a season of play means not being seen by college recruiters which may limit their future options.
KCPQ	Economy	5:00 PM	9/9/2020	2:54	Q13 News at 5	We discussed how wildfire smoke and poor air quality is impacting local restaurants. With phased in reopening, restaurants must limit capacity, but outdoor dining allowed many to serve more guests. But now people can't sit outside and soon the weather will be too cold to offer outdoor dining. Many owners are still unsure how they will get through prolonged restrictions.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

KCPQ	Education	5:00 AM	9/11/2020	:34	Q13 News This Morning	We told viewers a report from the superintendent of public instruction's office shows thousands of kids across the state lack the internet connection and devices they need for online learning. Not every family can afford to upgrade, but hope what they have is enough to help their kids keep up with their classmates.
KCPQ	Community	4:30 AM	9/11/2020	:15	Q13 News This Morning	We let viewers know the Seattle Art Museum is reopening after a months-long closure due to Covid-19. The museum is following strict cleaning and safety guidelines. Patrons must purchase a timed entry ticket online and have their temperature taken upon arrival. Other museums opening include MoPop and the Nordic museum in Ballard.
KCPQ	Government	8:00 AM	9/11/2020	:23	Q13 News This Morning	We highlighted key voter registration dates for our viewers. We also let them know that ballots will be mailed starting October 16.
KCPQ	Environment	9:00 AM	9/16/2020	:17	Q13 News This Morning	We told viewers air quality alerts are still in effect throughout the state. The area may finally get some relief this weekend with a new system moving in. But until then, officials say the alerts for hazardous and unhealthy air quality will remain in place until noon on Thursday.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

KCPQ	Environment	4:00 PM	9/16/2020	3:49	Q13 News at 4	With ongoing issues and damage caused by wildfires, officials are renewing their calls for more funding to better manage forests. A century of fire suppression tactics has led to tinder box conditions. The public lands commissioner created a 20-year management plan focusing on proactive treatment. But so far the plan is not passing through committees which means she can't get the funding she needs.
KCPQ	Government	8:00 AM	9/17/2020	:47	Q13 News This Morning	We told viewers the court decided efforts to recall council member Kshama Sawant may proceed. Organizers now need to collect 11,000 signatures from District 3 residents to get the recall vote on the ballot. Supporters say Sawant has abused her position whereas opponents to the recall say it's a political hit job.
KCPQ	Public Safety	10:00 PM	9/18/2020	2:40	Q13 News at 10	We told viewers the city of Seattle has decided to temporarily close Pier 57 which impacts several tourist attractions including the Ferris wheel. Even though it didn't sustain any damage from Pier 58's collapse they don't want to take any risks. Officials say the pier will remain closed until they complete the demolition of Pier 58.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

KCPQ	Health	10:00 PM	9/20/2020	:36	Q13 News at 10	We interviewed a psychiatrist at Overlake Hospital who told us more people are seeking professional help and patients are experiencing more severe symptoms of depression and anxiety. Experts say 40% of adults in Seattle, Bellevue, and the Tacoma metro area report feeling anxious most days of the week. That number jumps to 50% for multi-racial adults. Also, 62% of teens say the pandemic has had a negative impact on their mental health.
KCPQ	Economy	10:00 PM	9/21/2020	:19	Q13 News at 10	We told viewers Boeing is considering moving production of the 787 from Everett to South Carolina. Thousands have already been laid off and this move could mean the loss of up to 10,000 more jobs.
KCPQ	Public Safety	10:00 PM	9/21/2020	3:06	Q13 News at 10	We let viewers know the city of Tacoma is looking to require police officers to wear body cams. Some have mixed feelings about the move, but supporters say it provides transparency and accountability. These are things the department needs to gain public trust and maintain the public's safety.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

KCPQ	Youth Development	9:00 AM	9/24/2020	4:29	Q13 News This Morning	We told viewers about the Kent School District's new emotional wellness program. The program requires teacher's to start the school day with a 30-minute virtual meeting. The time is spent allowing students to discuss how they're feeling, do a physical activity, and then engage in positive self-talk. Also, every Tuesday students fill out a confidential survey for their teachers. This helps teachers identify any issues and provide resources.
