KCPQ

2Q 2020

Pursuant to the disclosure requirements in 47 C.F. R. 73.3526(11)(i), and during the quarter referenced above, this station provided information to its viewers regarding the following significant issues, detailed below. Because the quarter includes dates prior to Fox Television Stations, LLC’s acquisition of this station on March 2, 2020, the station cannot, nor is it required to, prepare a report for programming aired between January 1, 2020 – March 1, 2020. See Hensley Broadcasting, Inc., Forfeiture Order, 24 FCC Rcd 115, 116 n.8 (2009) (whereby the FCC noted that negotiating an assignment of license - as opposed to a transfer of control - insulates the assignee from liability for the assignor’s violations).

| KCPQ | Economy           | 5:00 AM | 6/3/2020  | 4:35 | Q13 News This Morning | We featured local black-owned businesses viewers may consider patronizing. Buying local not only helps the economy, but is a way to show support especially during times of protest.   |
| KCPQ | Youth Development | 4:00 PM | 6/5/2020  | 3:41 | Q13 News at 4         | We discussed the challenges youth sports may face as they begin the process to start up again. Coronavirus has caused clubs to cancel crucial fundraising events and further crowd restrictions may impact their ability to generate profits at games. Teams plan to use current health guidelines to keep players and family members safe, but right now, there is no clear path forward. |
| KCPQ | Public Safety     | 5:00 PM | 6/9/2020  | 4:19 | Q13 News at 5         | We interviewed the former King County Sheriff to discuss concerns over defunding the police. Loss of funds will likely mean fewer officers and less training which may increase crime in communities across the region. He hopes all sides of the debate can come together and create a comprehensive plan to address police force issues and still maintain public safety.                |
| KCPQ | Environment       | 9:00 AM | 6/12/2020 | :29  | Q13 News This Morning | We told viewers about a disease affecting Washington cherries that may impact this year's harvest. We also provided tips on how to combat the issue.   |
