Section 1: issues and concerns in the Kansas City area:

(KCJK -FM) During 1st quarter of 2024 (January, February, March) 105.1 FM and Cumulus Media actively solicited community concerns on the air, via our website and through our social media platforms and virtual town halls. We made our station personnel and resources available for events to continue our mission to serve the public interest. During this quarter, we were focused on assisting with the following: Advocacy and Awareness Group of Johnson County to discuss their social justice programming. Kansas City, Mo City Councilwoman Melissa Robinson discusses her new Youth Commission for youth advocacy. Unity Southeast Church gives an update on the holiday coat drive for Project Warmth. Cornerstones of Care discussing their mission and their work with foster children struggling with mental illness. Base Academy of Music bringing awareness to their annual fundraising event. UMKC Friends of the Conservatory promotes their fundraising event. The Giving Grove and Kansas City Community Gardens discusses their mission and upcoming annual luncheon. Therapist Heather Williamson discusses trauma after the shooting at the Chiefs parade. Ewing Marion Kauffman School promoting enrollment. Falling Forward Foundation talks about their mission to help people with catastrophic injuries. The Battle Within discusses their signature fundraiser and mission. Smiles and Kuts discusses their mission to provide haircuts for underserved children . Faceless Angels works with homeless veterans. Urban League of Greater Kansas City discusses their educational and workforce programming. Author Ebony Reed discusses her new book Fifteen cents on the dollar. Pastor Ron Lindsay discusses voting “YES” on question #1 in the April election. Local Entrepreneur Jill Cockson discusses voting “NO” on questions #1 in the April election. Giving Hope & Help discusses their upcoming Education is your Passport event.
