Why We Support Vegas PBS...

Alex De Castroverde and Orlando De Castroverde

Alex and Orlando De Castroverde established De Castroverde Law Group in 2005. The brothers were inspired to study law and form their own firm by their father, attorney Waldo De Castroverde, a Cuban-born community leader who continued to work as counsel for the firm until his death in 2014.

In 1987, their father became the first Cuban-born attorney in Northern Nevada. A few years later in 1993, his firm began operating with one lawyer and one secretary, his daughter, Ana, and his two sons answering phones and filing documents during their summers off from high school. Following his success in Northern Nevada, the elder De Castroverde opened a Las Vegas office in 1995. The firm has grown into one of the state's most successful Hispanic-owned businesses with Las Vegas locations along Maryland Parkway and inside Tivoli Village and a Reno office, where it all started.

The De Castroverde Law Group is committed to Vegas PBS and its educational efforts. Education is one of the firm's core values and we are honored to support the educational and entertaining programming Vegas PBS offers to the children and families of Southern Nevada.

How Do You Become a Sponsor ?

When you support quality Vegas PBS programming, you're helping build a stronger and healthier community. Simply select from favorite evening programs or underwrite a daytime show that children enjoy. We'll do the rest. While our programming value is high, its price is low. For information on how to sponsor Vegas PBS programming, contact Summer Collins at scollins@VegasPBS.org.
