

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

The following is a listing of some significant issues reported on by 95.1 & 1510 KMSD for the period of Oct 1st to Dec 31st 2022. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

On Wednesday October 12th at 9:20am KMSD interviewed Milbank school district Superintendent Justin Downes about the recent Milbank School board meeting and events. Duration of interview was 20 minutes. Portions of the interview were used in KMSD newscasts in subsequent days.

On Tuesday October 11th at 9:20am KMSD interviewed Milbank Mayor Pat Raffety about the action items from that Monday's city Council Meeting. Duration of interview was 20 minutes. Portions of the interview were used in KMSD newscasts in subsequent days.

On Thursday October 27th at 9:20am KMSD interviewed Angie Messeberg, Outreach coordinator for the Beacon center in Watertown about sexual education, shelter update, needs list and her upcoming schedule. Duration of interview was 20 minutes. Portions of the interview were used in KMSD newscasts in subsequent days.

On Wednesday November 16th KMSD interviewed US Congressman Dusty Johnson regarding election results and his plans moving forward in leading the state in Congress. This political interview lasted 20 minutes, Portions of the interview were used in KMSD newscasts in subsequent days.

On Wednesday November 23rd at 9:20 am KMSD interviewed Milbank Chamber director Jamie Henderson regarding the upcoming Holiday Bingo put on by the chamber and broadcast on KMSD as well as other community events organized by the chamber. This community event interview lasted 20 minutes. Portions of the interview were used in KMSD newscasts in subsequent days.

On Thursday December 22nd at 9:25am KMSD interviewed warning coordination meteorologist Kelly Serr with the national weather service about the upcoming weather patterns. This community education interview lasted 20 minutes. Portions of the interview were used in KMSD newscasts in subsequent days.

On Thursday December 22nd at 9:45 KMSD interviewed Desmond ward about the free Christmas day dinner at Parkview United Methodist church. This community service interview lasted 10 minutes. Portions of the interview were used in KMSD newscasts in subsequent days.