RAB Training was started on or around 5/24/21 by Andriana Salas. It was successfully completed. The course descriptions follow.

Sales Foundations Class Descriptions

Recommended for sellers with 12 months or less Radio sales experience, or sellers who have never completed a comprehensive Radio sales program. One complete course includes all 17 classes.
Or, manager may assign only selected classes to the student.

Class 1: Role of a Radio Marketing Consultant

Anyone who has ever had a bad experience with a pushy, arrogant, money-hungry, obnoxious salesperson already has a sense of the difference between traditional selling and consultant-style selling. This class covers key concepts behind consultant style selling.

Class 2: Prospecting-Finding and Evaluating Prospects

As a Radio Sales Professional, you must divide your time between the three MOST important daily activities: asking for dollars, servicing your clients and PROSPECTING. This class will help you develop an effective prospecting strategy.

Class 3: Getting First Call Appointments

Face-to-face meetings are the best way to understand prospects' unique situation, advertising objectives and media perceptions. So how do we get in front of the prospective client? Is there a better way? The answer is YES!

Class 4: How to Conduct a Great Client Needs Analysis

The purpose of a good first-call appointment is to get enough information about the prospect to understand the prospect's needs and write a good proposal that provides solutions to the needs. The more information you learn, the better proposal you can write. And the better the proposal, the more likely the prospect will say "yes."

Class 5: Elements of a Good Written Proposal

Radio sales pros know a proposal is more than the station's latest package and a ranker. A good proposal serves many purposes. In this class, we'll explore the elements of great proposals ... proposals that position you as a marketing partner and make closing easier.

Class 6: The Difference between Features and Benefits

Prospects don't care so much about the FEATURES of our radio station as they do about what BENEFITS they will receive from advertising on our station. You'll learn the differences between Features and Benefits and conclude by having powerful statements ready to present.

Class 7: Understanding Competitive Media

When we talk about competitive media with the client, let's sound objective by sharing an advantage or two before sharing the disadvantages. In this class we'll discuss the key advantages and disadvantages of radio's major competitors.

Elia James

Thanks for getting the existing team on track with all things Nielsen/Tapscan over the last couple of months. Hopefully you all have some resources and data you can turn into dollars. Also - congrats on the new hire. As a reminder, you'll have to create their account using your Access Manager tool like you did for the rest of the team there.

Here is a direct link to our training calendar: <https://www.nielsen.com/us/en/client-learning/audio/calendar/>. I've outlined a training plan to work through the basics and key reports/tools spread out across June to get them familiar with all of the basics and have inserted some time with me to look into Scarborough since the way your group uses it is a bit different than other stations.

- PPM 101 - 5/31 @ 12n (Nielsen measurement basics)
- AUDIO 101 - 6/7 @ 1p (terms of the trade)
- TAPSCAN 100 - 6/7 @ 3p (Tapscan basics - Ranker)
- TAPSCAN 101 - 6/8 @ 2p (Composition reports)
- SCHEDULING 101 - 6/15 @ 12n (Schedule concepts)
- TAPSCAN 105 - 6/15 @ 2p (building Tapscan schedules)
- QUALITATIVE 101 - 6/21 @ 12n (Scarborough basics)
- TAPSCAN 102 - 6/21 @ 2p (Retail Spending Power)
- AUDIO 102 - 6/23 @ 2p (eBook)
- Scarborough IQP & Target Profile reports - w/Geri - any day/time 6/27-6/30

There are also a series of NEW HIRE sessions that can be helpful for those totally new to radio. If they can't make any of these sessions or need specific or extra help, they can look on the calendar for the next scheduled session or reach out to me directly and I'll work to schedule one-on-one training.

Best,

 To: <bart@wedjfm.com>

Dear Broadstreet Friends,

The best sales calls don't feel like sales calls. Because the truth is, the best salespeople aren't really selling on those calls.

Many of us think of sales as an act of persuasion. It isn't.

On Wednesday, November 30th at 1:00PM ET, I'm hosting a webinar called "The Ultimate Ad Sales Meeting".

If you or your team would like to hear the fundamental truth about sales, and how to run a deeply effective meeting for you and your potential client, that's where I'll share it.

It's definitely something to check out, whether you've been in the game for a while, are new to sales, or are in the position of needing to hire a salesperson.

At worst, you'll be reminded of the truth. At best, it'll be an inflection point in your professional life.

The session information is here: https://us02web.zoom.us/webinar/register/6016673077221/WN_XBqHnEQMSb6901ogrv7HbQ

I hope to see you there.

- Kenny Katzgrau, CEO of Broadstreet
