HOW ISSUE WAS TREATED: Interview with Officer Bino Cadenas, Sadot Azzua.

TITLE: ANNUAL CRIME AND TRAFFIC REPORT.

DATE: 01.14.2019.

TIME: 9:00am

DURATION: 20 minutes

TYPE: Live Interview on KLZT-FM Morning Show

DESCRIPTION: Sadot Azzua and Officer Cadenas talked about the crime in Austin, and how to prevent crime, how to report a crime, each calendar year, the Austin Police Department reports crime statistics to the FBI through the Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) program. After federal review, these become their “official” statistics and are useful in tracking year-to-year APD performance and trends, as well as comparing crime statistics to other US cities of comparable size. This report contains Austin’s final crime statistics reported to the FBI; it updates the preliminary report produced in September 2018.

We talked about the notable findings

This year’s crime statistics include the following noteworthy findings:

Austin’s violent crime rate of 415 per 100,000 residents increased 2% as compared with 2016.

Austin’s property crime rate of 3,190 per 100,000 residents decreased 9% as compared with 2016 and is a 20-year low.

The aggravated assault rate of 225 per 100,000 represents a 4% increase as compared with 2016.

The burglary rate of 451 per 100,000 residents represents an 18% decline as compared with 2016 and is a 20-year low.

The violent crime clearance rate remained stable at 46% from 2016 to 2017. The property crime clearance rate declined two points to 11%.

Traffic fatalities decreased from 79 in 2016 to 76 in 2017; and fatal crashes decreased from 77 in 2016 to 71 in 2017.

Residents’ perception of safety in neighborhoods at night and safety in city parks scored well above the national average (24 points and 10 points respectively) in Austin’s annual survey.

TITLE DATING VIOLENCE.

DATE: 02.25.19

TIME: 9:00am

DURATION: 20 minutes.

TYPE: Live interview on KLZT-FM MORNING SHOW with Sadot Azzua and Official Bino Cadenas.

DESCRIPTION: We talked about “dating violence”, that is defined as an act by an individual that is against another individual with whom that person has or has had a dating relationship and that is intended to result in physical harm, bodily injury, assault or sexual assault, or that is a threat that reasonably places the individual in fear of imminent physical harm, bodily injury, assault or sexual assault, but does not include defensive measures to protect oneself. Like domestic violence, dating violence typically includes a pattern of hurtful and controlling behaviors such as physical abuse (hitting, slapping, destroying property, driving fast to scare you), psychological/emotional abuse (yelling, name-calling, put-downs, threats), sexual abuse (forcing or coercing sex, unwanted sex acts, exposure to pornography) and stalking (following, calling or texting repeatedly, monitoring activity), which can occur in person and/or online.

Dating violence has devastating consequences for individuals and the entire community. Survivors experience higher rates of physical and mental health issues, unintended pregnancy and sexually transmitted infections, eating disorders, substance abuse, and suicide. Youth who witness or experienced violence (at home or in their relationships) are at increased risk for victimization and perpetration of violence in future relationships.
