To Whom It May Concern:

Please be advised that the programming network currently known as ABC Family does not currently air children's programming that is subject to the quarterly certification requirements of the Children's Television Act of 1990 (the "Act"). Should ABC Family commence airing children's programming that is subject to the Act during the term of the ABC Family License Agreement, we will commence providing you with quarterly certifications in accordance with the Act.

You may rely on this certification for all future quarters until further notification by ABC Family.
