A RECAP OF THE REMEMBRANCE

Jacqueline Pisano, Coordinator of Media and Public Relations Nov 1 2021

This Saturday marked the highly anticipated in-person return of District 99, the Town of Cicero and the Cicero Mexican Cultural Committee's annual Dia de los Muertos celebration, and the day was not short on the fun!

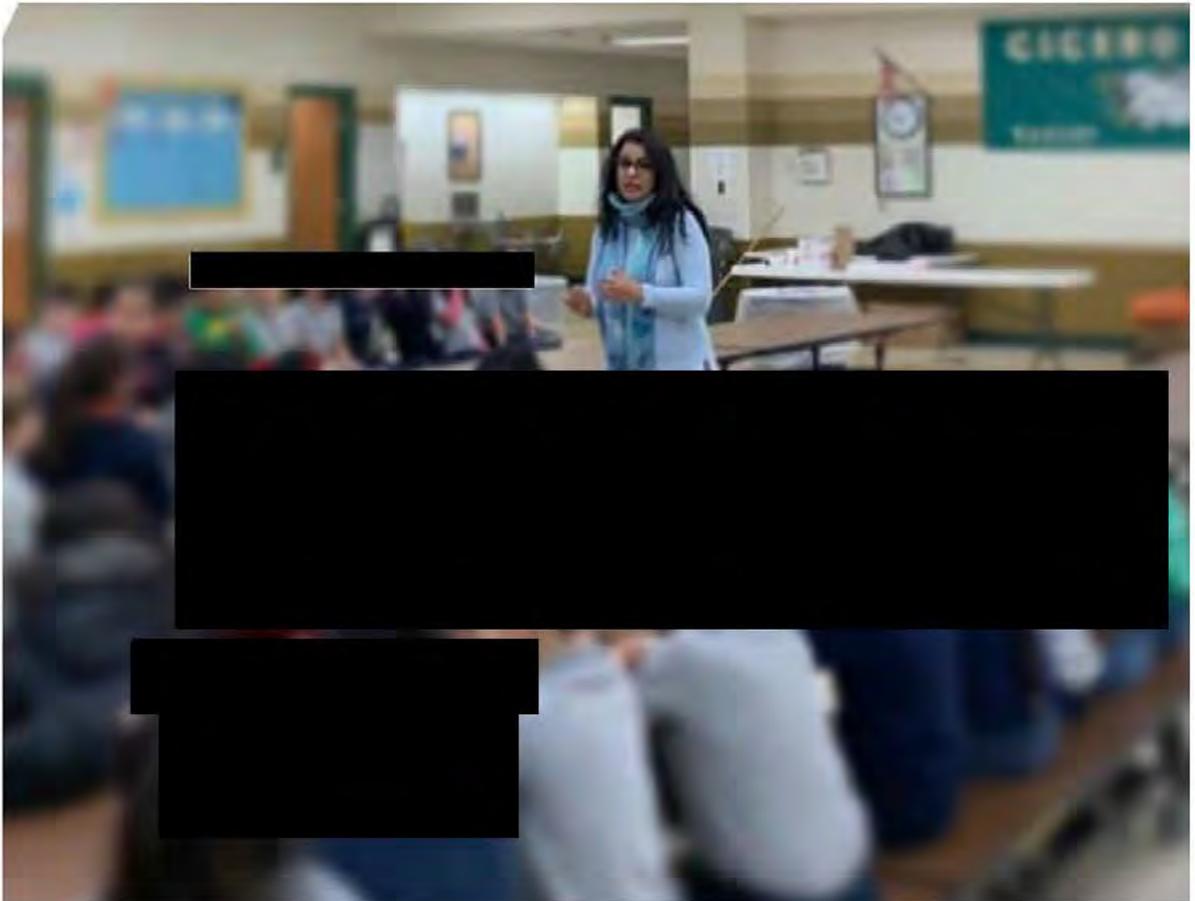

Celebrating all things community, Mexican culture, arts and music, the event was a wonderful tribute to neighborly camaraderie and the importance of honoring family members and friends who have passed on.

From hand-painted xolos by students to mariachi songs, folkloric dancing and festive foods, the program lived up to its goal of reflecting on the importance of cultural connections and helping support the spiritual journeys of the deceased.

Once again, special thanks to [\[REDACTED\]](#) of Univision Radio Chicago for serving as the guest emcee.
