ISSUE: FAMILY, PARENTING AND RELATIONSHIPS

1/19/16 at 2:00 pm Faith and Family Radio with Steve Wood...30 minutes. This program talked about ancient wisdom for family life, in particular listening to reproof and correction, and heeding advice for finding our way in the midst of this chaotic 21st century world. People today can make moral decisions but from their own perspective, or self-determined morality. As early as 107 AD they were teaching how dangerous this is. This type of thinking can cause incredible friction in marriages today.

1/26/16 at 2:30 pm Faith and Family Radio with Steve Wood...30 minutes. This program looked at proverbs dealing with wine and alcohol abuse. Drunkenness is associated with strife, sorrow and complaining and wounds without cause. Excessive alcohol use and moral failings often go hand-in-hand. Alcoholism is one of the leading causes of troubled marriages in family life in our country and the world. About 43% of the U.S. population has been exposed to some sort of alcohol abuse. He recommended the book "Dying for a Drink".

3/22/16 at 2:30 pm Faith and Family Radio with Steve Wood...30 minutes...Training your child at a young age determines their behavior later in life is a common belief that does not always hold true. Understand that what is "generally true" doesn't always occur because we can't "program" our children.
