

WOLG Issues and Programs: First Quarter 2017

Issue: Personal Story Related

Program: Journey Home

Monday – Saturday: 3:00 pm

Length: 60 Minutes

Description: This is a program where host Marcus Grodi interviews people who have converted to Catholicism. They discuss their lives before becoming Catholic and What events led to their conversion.

Issue: Inspirational Figures

Program: Tom Shrewsbury

Friday: 7:00 am

Length: 30 Minutes

Description: This is a program that describes the lives of obscure religious figures, or obscure religious events. Shrewsbury details the importance of these obscure people and events and how much they have impacted the Catholic Church.

Issue: Historical

Program: Early Church History

Date: Sunday

Description: This is a program that details the history of the early Catholic Church. The time period discussed ranges from 70 A.D. to the 5th century.

Issue: Self Help/Instructional

Program: Spiritual Life

Date: Saturday

Description: This is a program that helps people improve their faith by teaching them about church practices. One example of this was a program that told the Audience the importance of confession, and how to make the best confession one could make.

Issue: Religious Debate

Program: Called to Communion

Date: Monday – Friday 1:00 P.M. CST

Description: This is a program where non-Catholics call in to ask challenging questions about the Catholic faith. The purpose of this show is that those that are both Catholics and non-Catholics can have a greater understanding of the Catholic Faith.