

WOLG Issues and Programs: Fourth Quarter 2020

Issue: Family, Parenting and Relationships

10/1/20 8:00AM...CATHOLIC CONNECTION...60 minutes

In addition to her daily update on current events, Teresa has Greg and Julie Alexander discuss God's plan for marriage and family. Ralph Martin shares his new book, "A Church in Crisis: Pathways Forward."

10/11/20 6:30PM...BLESSED2PLAY...30 minutes

This week's guest is Kramer Soderberg the assistant head men's basketball coach at Millikin University and former division one basketball player at Miami University. Host Ron Meyer talks to Kramer about his athletic career, his father's influence in his life and his latest book..

11/3/20 4:00PM...CALLED TO COMMUNION...60 minutes

Today's program asks the question, "Why does human sexuality exist." Also discussed is the doctrine of atonement and why penal substitution doesn't coincide with Catholic teaching.

11/5/20 11:00PM...TAKE2...60 minutes

As we head into one of the most exciting and glorious times of the year, things may look a lot different for many of us than they have in the past. Everywhere you turn, you're hearing voices of extreme caution, advising people to do everything from keeping your holiday celebrations limited to just family, to not even celebrating holidays like Thanksgiving and Christmas this year. How do you feel about all of this? Have you made your plans already? Did you adjust them considerably in order to follow the warnings that are being given?.

12/2/20 8:00AM...CATHOLIC CONNECTION...60 minutes

Kimberly Hahn shares her book, Chosen and Cherished: Biblical Wisdom for your Marriage. Fatima producer Rose Ganguzza discusses the movie, now available on DVD.

Issue: Youth Programming

10/14/20 6:00AM...MORNING GLORY...60 minutes

Wednesday on Morning Glory - Could Blessed Carlo Acutis, an Italian computer genius, be the first millennial saint? He was best known for documenting Eucharistic miracles around the world and cataloguing them all onto a website that he created in the months before his death from leukemia.

10/18/20 6:30PM...BLESSED2PLAY...30 minutes

This week's guest is Todd Honas a deaf athlete who played football for the University of Nebraska Cornhuskers. Host Ron Meyer talks with Todd about overcoming adversity and why he is reaching out to college students.

11/5/20 5:00AM...SON RISE MORNING SHOW...60 minutes

On today's show, Matt Swaim and Anna Mitchell welcome Ken Craycraft to talk about an important foster care case that will be going before the Supreme Court. How will the new associate judge influence the decision? Should Judge Barrett recuse herself because she has two adopted children.

11/25/20 6:00AM...MORNING GLORY...60 minutes

Wednesday on Morning Glory discusses fun Thanksgiving activities for kids and having fun with your children is spiritually powerful.

11/29/20 6:30PM...BLESSED2PLAY...30 minutes

Today's guest is Steve Lavin who can be seen on FS1, Turner, and CBS as a college basketball analyst. Host Ron Meyer talks with the former head coach at UCLA and St. Johns about his career thru the coaching ranks and how virtue guided him in developing the student athlete..

Issue: Educational

10/8/20 1:00PM...CALLED TO COMMUNION...60 minutes

How does the Church address mental illness; is seeking pleasure for its own sake always wrong; and Pius XII on capital punishment vs. Pope JP II & Francis.

Issue: Educational (continued)

10/10/20 6:00AM...CHURCH ALIVE...60 minutes

The Catholic News Agency's Ed Condon sorts out the complicated Vatican real estate scandal and its reported ties to the sex abuse trial of Cardinal George Pell. Fr. Petri addresses the death penalty, clarifying the difference between the doctrine on the moral life and exhorting on the moral life.

11/1/20 6:30PM...BLESSED2PLAY...30 minutes

This week's guest is Leo Golembiewski who founded and coached the University of Arizona Icecats for 32 years, culminating in a National Championship. Host Ron Meyer talks with Leo about bringing competitive hockey to the desert Southwest and what inspired him along the way.

11/16/20 8:00AM...CATHOLIC CONNECTION...60 minutes

Fr. Mitch Pawa speaks on The McCarrick Report. In addition, Theresa discussed the frustrations about the elections. Matthew Archbold examines how big tech is not our friend.

11/26/20 1:00PM...CALLED TO COMMUNION...60 minutes

Happy Thanksgiving! Dr. Anders reaches into the mailbag and gives intuitive answers to listener questions. Is organized religion trustworthy; is perception reality; criteria for books being in the Bible; and, on convalidation of marriages.

Issue: Public Interest

10/12/20 8:00AM...CATHOLIC CONNECTION...60 minutes

Joe Condit addresses questions for Catholics voting this election. Benjamin Bull discusses the Netflix indictment for the film "Cuties." Gail Buckley gives the Bible verse of the week.

10/13/20 1:00PM...CALLED TO COMMUNION...60 minutes

What does modernism look like today; should we destroy the Catholic Church because of bad priests; and why did protestants toss out certain books of the Bible.

10/22/20 8:00PM...EWTN NEWS NIGHTLY...30 minutes

News topics include the US senators holding an initial vote on Judge Amy Coney Barrett's Supreme Court nomination. How Democrats are responding. Plus: President Donald Trump and rival Joe Biden are set for their final face-to-face debate before the election. The Vatican makes an announcement regarding its deal with China over the appointment of bishops.

11/8/20 4:00AM...CATHOLIC CAFÉ...30 minutes

Getting through a very contentious and divisive Election Day is certainly not easy, and it definitely is not over the day after Election Day. Perhaps we should ponder how to live life after the Election.

12/5/20 6:00AM...CHURCH ALIVE...60 minutes

Dr. Thomas McGovern with The Catholic Medical Association explains the moral implications of vaccines being developed to immunize against Covid-19. In this 2nd week of Advent, Fr. Petri teaches on Isaiah, whose prophecies were so accurate, some church scholars think of him more as an evangelist than as a prophet.

Issue: Health

10/10/20 4:00AM...CATHOLIC CAFÉ...30 minutes

A lot of us think it is always a blessing to have a lot, but there can be many social and physical challenges with living with abundance.

10/13/20 12:00PM...THE DOCTOR IS IN...60 minutes

Marsha called in to say that the state of New York has now mandated that if anyone is attending religious services that they must contact the state and inform them where and what time they will be going in case someone contracts the COVID-19 virus.

10/27/20 12:00PM...THE DOCTOR IS IN...60 minutes

Maria from Ohio has a question for the doctor about her autistic child. She questions how autism is diagnosed and what treatments are most effective. How is autism cured.

Issue: Health (continued)

10/29/20 7:30PM...EWTN Pro-Life Weekly...30 minutes

Archbishop Joseph Naumann explains why abortion is a priority for Catholics; Marjorie Dannenfelser discusses abortion misconceptions on the campaign trail; a late-term abortion ban is on the state ballot in Colorado.

11/29/20 4:00AM...CATHOLIC CAFÉ...30 minutes

Today's program states that these are certainly very tough times for many with the spread of the covid virus, but perhaps we can see some possibilities for a renewal in our lives as we seek to navigate through the difficulties.