

WOLG Issues and Programs: Second Quarter 2017

Issue: Family, Parenting and Relationships

4/25/17 4:00PM...KRESTA IN THE AFTERNOON...60 minutes

A Mother's Story of Love, Faith and Crystal Meth – Barbara Coefer-Stoefen's daughter Annie was bright and beautiful, the last person you'd expect to be addicted to crystal meth. Barbara never imagined such a scenario would destroy her dreams for her family. But it did. Annie committed crimes against herself and community that knocked her parents to their knees. Barbara's drive to save her daughter and her rage gave way to new insights about herself. She tells her story and how lives were changed.

6/13/17 9:00PM...REAL LIFE CATHOLIC...30 minutes

FREEDOM IN PHILADELPHIA - Experience the stories of immigrants who found freedom in the city where the Declaration of Independence was signed. Meet that city's great Archbishop. And of course, eat cheesesteaks.

6/14/17 5:30AM...SONRISE MORNING SHOW...30 minutes

Dr Jim Schroeder: St Mary's Center for Children: What Kids Will Tell a Psychologist, But Are Often Afraid to Tell Their Parents - As our children get older, they may act as if they don't care what we think about them and what they do. Yet if the labels of Mom and Dad reflect the time and attention we have given them, then they care more than we know, and even they know. It is embedded into the deep recesses of their mind and in the mannerisms and statements that probably appear eerily familiar. They may not always like you, but the hope is they will always love you.

6/17/17 3:00AM... The World Over...60 minutes

Dr. Meg Meeker, pediatrician, author and mother on parenting, teens and children's health and the importance of fathers in the lives of their kids talks about her latest book, "Hero; Being the Strong Father Your Children Need... an encore of the World Over interview in honor of Father's Day.

6/24/17 8:00pm...LIVING RIGHT WITH DR. RAY...60 minutes

MISTAKES IN PARENTING - Sue Morey discusses parenting decisions with Dr. Ray, as they review the things they wish they had done differently; why elderly people do not need to feel sorry for themselves; Larry Richards answers audience questions, and more.

Issue: Youth Programming

4/18/17 9:00AM...MORE2LIFE...60 minutes

Psychologist Dr. White, a graduate of Virginia Commonwealth University and St. Mary's University in San Antonio now works as a writer, editor and consultant to Our Sunday Visitor. He has a part-time practice specializing as a clinical child psychologist. He and his wife Ana frequently do missionary and relief work in Panama and other locations, such as Mexico and Cambodia.

6/3/17 3:30PM...BLESSED2PLAY...30 minutes

This week's collegiate spotlight show features Mount St. Mary's University track athlete Kielce Gussie. Ron talks with Kielce about the challenges of being a division one student athlete and how she keeps on track with her personal life.

6/17/2017 3:30PM...BLESSED2PLAY...30 minutes

This week's guest is Major League Baseball's Pittsburgh Pirates Catcher Christ Steward. A veteran of 11 years in the big leagues, Ron talks with Chris about his long career in pro baseball and the challenges he faced.

6/19/17 5:30AM...SONRISE MORNING SHOW...30 minutes

Bear Woznick discusses his Book "Deep in the Wave." - He is a two-time Masters World Champion Tandem surfer and cofounder and ambassador of the International Tandem Surfing Association for serious competitors, as well as the founder of The BearsWave.com Tandem Expression Teams for those who simply want to enjoy the beauty and art of tandem. He is acknowledged as having revived the ancient art of tandem surfing and he won Duke OceanFest Masters World Tandem Surfing Title in 2007 and 2008.

6/27/17 3:30PM...BLESSED2PLAY...30 minutes

Baseball Player – University of Texas: The NCAA College World Series is in full swing. Ron talk's with University of Texas baseball player Andres Sosa about playing for one of the nation's top collegiate baseball programs and where he sets his sights as a student athlete.

Issue: Educational

6/10/17 7:00PM...CELTIC CONNECTIONS...60 minutes

St. Thomas More vs Bonnie & Clyde – Host Kathy Sinnott with guest Kevin Turley discuss the one movie that dominated the Oscars fifty years ago this month. The movie was about a Catholic saint and martyr Sir Thomas More and the movie was called "A Man for all Seasons."

6/14/17 4:30AM...JOY OF MUSIC...30 minutes

GERMANY & AUSTRIA - Host Diane Bish brings you a sparkling array of classical music in this unique tour through the mountains of Germany and Austria.

6/15/17 5:30AM...SONRISE MORNING SHOW... 30 minutes

Rita Heikenfeld: About Eating - Readers want to know: How to peel and mash a garlic clove without getting garlic on your hands FYI: Garlic is best planted in fall. That way, by mid summer of the next year, it will have grown. You'll know it's ready when the leaves start to die back. Garlic has to "cure" in a cool, dry place outside for a couple of weeks. Store just like you store potatoes, again in a cool, dry place.

6/23/17 9:00AM...MORE2LIFE...60 minutes

Guest Rachel Watkins is the homeschooling mother of eleven, a freelance writer and creator of the The Little Flower Girl's Clubs. The program for girls ages 5 and up but is flexible enough to use with a variety of age groups. Sashes, vests, skirts, bandanas, t-shirts and other items are extras that add to the experience.

6/27/17 4:00PM... KRESTA IN THE AFTERNOON...60 minutes

Guest Andreas Widmer, Director of Entrepreneurship at Catholic University discusses the entrepreneurial culture and how it's built. How a true entrepreneurial culture supports innovation and provides opportunities for men and women to succeed.

Issue: Public Interest

4/26/17 4:00PM... KRESTA IN THE AFTERNOON...60 minutes

France is a broken Country - Sam Gregg discusses how the results of the first round of France's presidential election have predictably been portrayed as embodying a struggle between "globalists" and "nationalists" that is replicated across the world. But the deeper – and more troubling – reality is that France's election illustrates the degree to which a nation once considered the epitome of European civilization has entered, like much of the rest of the West, a state of advanced decline and political paralysis

5/26/17 4:00PM... KRESTA IN THE AFTERNOON...60 minutes

Latest in the Manchester Bombing – Robin Simcox discusses the latest developments emerging about the Manchester terrorist attack and how British police have made several more investigations. Investigators, furious after the US media published photos from the case, have also announced they will not be sharing new intel from the case with US officials.

6/11/17 4:30AM...WHERE GOD WEEPS...30 minutes

The struggle for peaceful coexistence in Pakistan - James Channan, Executive Director of the Peace Center in Lahore, Pakistan, relays the extremely difficult conditions minorities face in Pakistan and how dialogue helps promote peaceful coexistence there.

6/21/17 4:00PM... KRESTA IN THE AFTERNOON...60 minutes

Jay Richards, a senior fellow at the Discovery Institute discusses a new and evolving governing approach. Popular comparisons of political economy often treat the primary options as either free-market capitalism or socialism, but in the 21st century, both of these options are being displaced by a third way: cronyism. Unlike a free market, cronyism involves the widespread collusion between government regulators and large private corporations.

6/24/17 3:00AM...THE WORLD OVER...60 minutes

NEWT GINGRICH, former Speaker of the US House of Representatives talks about the special counsel investigation of Russian interference in the 2016 election, the state of the Administration's agenda and his new book,

Issue: Health

5/30/17 4:00PM... KRESTA IN THE AFTERNOON...60 minutes

CBO Criticizes Healthcare Bill – Mr. Brad Hahn, CEO of Solidarity Healthcare, discusses the Congressional Budget Office release of May 24th with an updated score on the American Health Care Act. According to the CBO, 23 million more Americans will be uninsured by 2026 compared to the current systems.

6/14/17 5:30AM...SONRISE MORNING SHOW... 30 minutes

Author Jeannie Ewing is no stranger to suffering. Her family has long struggled with bipolar disorder and depression, and her baby daughter was born with a rare genetic disorder that caused her bones to prematurely fuse together. Despite the many layers of sadness, loss, confusion, and anger, Jeannie responded and transformed her life into one with profound purpose and joy.

6/15/17 3:00PM...SAVORING OUR FAITH...30 minutes

FAMILY OF FAITHFUL FOODIES - Leo Patalinghug makes healthy pasta rosettes while visiting the Cathedral Shrine of the Virgin of Guadalupe in Dallas.

6/20/17 7:00PM...MOTHER ANGELICA LIVE CLASSICS...30 minutes

Peer pressure, pride and prejudice - EWTN foundress Mother Angelica tackles the subjects of peer pressure, pride and prejudice and how these can sometimes lead us astray on the path to well-being and a good life.

6/30/17 6:00PM...MORNING GLORY SHOW...60 minutes

Guest Dr. David Prentice from the Charlotte Lozier Cancer Center discusses "Jackie's story:" a success story through the use of adult stem cells.