1	Ongoing Event	Establishment of an intern program designed to assist members of the community	In September 2022, our SEU continued the iHeartMedia Chicago Pilot Internship Program in partnership with the Northwestern University School of Communication to provide a 12-week paid internship opportunity for six students in Programming, Promotions and Marketing, Public Affairs and BIN: Black Information Network. Our Senior Vice President of Communications, Vice President of Programming, Vice President of Network Operations, Director of Promotions and Marketing and Public Affairs Show Hosts managed the program which allowed the students to gain experience and acquire skills for broadcast employment in show production, event management, news gathering and community engagement. In June 2023, the SEU hired one of internship participants in a permanent part-time promotions position.	4	Senior Vice President, Communications Vice President, Programming Program Director Vice President, BIN News Operations
2	3/25/2023	Participation in other activities designed by the station employment unit	Our SEU's WGCI-FM, established an annual music summit providing a platform for Chicago music artists, producers and songwriters to network and learn valuable skills for music business careers. As a part of this effort, on March 25, 2023, the SEU hosted panel discussions, music critique and networking sessions at Kennedy King College in Chicago, IL. The SEU participants included Vice President of Programming, Program Director, Director of Marketing and Promotions, Promotions Director, On-Air Talent and record label music executives, who spoke about music and radio broadcasting careers.	4	Vice President, Programming Program Director Director of Marketing and Promotions Promotions Director
