Samuel Hampton, Joseph Colini, Limarie Vargas, Charles Redmon, Tim Neal. Can you elaborate Romans 13:1-2 as it pertains to obeying governing leaders? Well, I mean, I agree with Pastor Redman completely, we obey the laws as long as those laws coincide with the word of God, the ultimate law is the word of God.

Tim Walker, Luwana Ware, Mark Galambos, David Gray, Joseph Colini, Stephen Owens. How does religion affect education? I would like to take you to Proverbs 1:7. I think this helps us get an understanding of how what we believe should affect what we are acquiring and knowledge. It says the fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge but fools despise wisdom and instruction. I think what this verse is telling us is that the way we think about God and how we are to live for God gives us a worldview so that we can be able to examine anything we learn and through the lens of scripture and through the lens of us obeying Christ and God's word. So, I think no matter what you are learning, if your filtering it through the scriptures you'll be able to have a good grasp of how you are to live and to apply that thing, whatever you may be learning to your life, into your situation.

Dr. Faron Cole, Samuel Hampton, Limarie Vargas, Joseph Colini, Timothy Roeser. How do we balance making time for the Lord and taking care of our families and serving others? For everything there is a season and a time. For every activity under Heaven, a time to be born a time to die, a time to plant a time to harvest. So, with that said, you know that there's a time for everything we have to do. We have to be very wise with time management. This is something I talk a lot to the woman. You have to be wise with the time. If God could create a whole world in seven days, he gave us 24 hours, because that's what we all need. But some people say, no, we need more hours. No, we don't need more, we need peace. We need to manage, we need to see how we are managing the time.

Join William Federer as he guides you through the faith in our history with the story of the Booth family, and how their business changed America and the world. William Booth created the Salvation Army. At the age of 13, he was sent to apprentice as a pawnbroker. While doing this, he became aware of the poverty in his neighborhoods. When he married his wife, they created The Christian Mission. It was created to end child sex trafficking and minister to the wretched people of East London. The Salvation Army created the first rescue home for women and girls escaping sex trafficking and prostitution. By the year 1879, it had 81 mission stations and thousands of volunteers. In 1880 it came to the United States and now has operating missions in over 100 other countries. The Salvation Army organized programs for unwed mothers, homeless, and disaster relief.

We see that he did it in the gospels when he was walking this Earth. How at one point he wanted to cross a lake or river and there was a big storm that came about and his disciples woke him up and asked him, do you not care that we perish? And he did not get into panic mode, he just spoke the word and calm the winds and so I believe he's still that same God.

J.K. Rodgers, Charles Redmon, Albert Lewis, Rich Hall, Tyrone Hughes, Ronald Turner. Does the Bible speak about climate change? The Bible does not speak about climate control but it does talk about in second Peter. The third chapter in the 10th, verse says, but the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise and the elements will melt with fervent heat both the Earth in the works that are in it will be burned up. That's the only area where it speaks about something happening to the Earth.

Timothy Walker, David Gray, Mark Galambos, Lawanna Williams, Albert Lewis, David Hughes II. In Genesis chapter 1, plant life was created a day before the sun and the moon, but photosynthesis is required for all plant life to survive. How could plants come first? Well, it's really actually pretty clear that even though we see that the sun and the moon were not created until after plant life, that light was created and for photosynthesis you need light, you know, need the Sun and the Moon and we're thinking of creation in a short period of time. We're not they're not going thousands of years without there being any sun and the moon so it's only days and so the reality is that the sun and the moon were not necessary because light had already been created and you see he said let there be light in verse 3 and he created the plants several days later.

He went for breakfast and he saw the tree and it looked like it had figs. But it deceived him and that really kind of messed with him and he got a little angry with it because it was supposed to be the season for figs. Now we know that points to Israel. It was supposed to be ready for him and they were not ready and so that's why he cursed the fig tree.

Faron Cole, Samuel Hampton II, Charles E. Redmon Jr., Limarie Vargas, David Hughes II, Julia Ferrell. How did dinosaurs fit into creation? This topic of dinosaurs is ongoing debate between the Christian community over the age of the Earth. About did they happen before or after. For me, I like to see some scriptures. When you see the Hebrew words for some animals or some definition that we can see there there's one that it says tanin or sea monsters or Dragon. When he says tannin, is giant reptile and these scriptures are mature a lot in the Old Testament. Like in the book of Psalm, Isaiah and Jeremiah and they were also in the land and in the water. Especially the Book of Job, also it speaks about Behemoth I believe it is and Leviathan. So, I'm not going to say yes, they were because I know, like I said, this is an ongoing debate. But for me, those creatures and especially in the Book of Job which is one of the oldest one, and maybe the way he described it I can say yeah it fits in the creation. Yes, they were here. It is God's creation. They'll try to say it was millions of years old but they have found that even petrified wood can be petrified in just a few years with the right kind of climate.

Brandon Hollis, Mark Galambos, David Gray, Joseph Colini, David Hughes. Why is the church silent on politics? I would say some churches are, but not all churches are silent. There are a lot of churches that are extremely outspoken on politics and they have a reputation for that. But you know, for me, for I would say at least half of my ministry to 3/4, I never follow politics. I was only following the word of God. And let me say this in order for you to truly serve in politics, you need to discern the word of God first.

Samuel Hampton II, Tim Roeser, Charles. E Redmon Jr., Nick Lindsay, David Hughes II, Tim Neal. Can you please explain Isaiah 56:10? Watchmen are blind. They are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark, sleeping lying down, loving to slumber. The word of God explains that the watchmen were the nation's leaders at that time. And the leaders of Israel, they were blind to the danger and the deeper things that were coming. So that's where this is originating from. They were apathetic about the people's needs. They were more concerned about satisfying their own greed than they were the things of God and I do believe that we have a little bit of that issue even today.

If you're a Christian and you're running for a public office, you are putting yourself up for an attack of the enemy. And so, it's not going to be perfect, but if someone is trying to make a difference, let's support them like you've never seen because the last thing the enemy wants, obviously, is to make a spiritual difference in government.

Brandon Hollis, David Gray, Lawanna Williams, Mark Galambos, Juanita Bagley-Watson, David Hughes. Is there anywhere in the Bible where it says that one nation or person would rule the world? I expect that the best answer comes out Revelation 13:7 Right now we see the whole world in upheaval and nation against nation. And we go to Matthew 24 and we start to read out the things that Jesus talked about when it came to the end times. And we're asking about Nations and One World rulers. Now, we're talking about the Antichrist. But don't fear. Know that God is with you. Know that God has a plan and a purpose for you. And even if you end up living in an era where the Antichrist is rising, and all types of things are happening, know that God is still your God. Know that he is still on your side and just like it says, in Joshua 1 and 9, have I not commanded you be strong and courageous.

Brandon Hollis, Mark Galambos, David Gray, Joseph Colini, David Hughes. As a follower of Christ, why is it necessary to get degrees from a Bible college? Well, it's not necessary to get a seminary degree, but at the same time, we all going to need training. Especially if you are going to be preaching the word, teaching the word, we need training. I look at it like this, if you're in the hospital and you know you're about to get major surgery, you don't want your doctor to come in there talking about, he read half of his books in medical school and dropped out. You don't want that. You want to see that degree. You want to see that he knows what he's doing, you know? And if we're a spiritual hospital, you know, I'm not trying to say that a degree says that you know what you're doing, but you want to be with a person who you're confident in that they know what they're talking about. That they know what you're doing, because your spiritual life is on the line.

Tim Walker, Luwanna Ware, Mark Galambos, David Gray, Joseph Colini, Stephen Owens. In 1 Corinthians 13:8, is Paul referring to secular knowledge or biblical wisdom? First Corinthians, 13:8 says Love never fails, but whether there be prophecies, they will fail. Whether there are tongues, they will cease whether there is knowledge will vanish away. And so, when we look at verse 8, I believe that the Apostle Paul is speaking to spiritual knowledge, one of the gifts of the Spirit. If you see in the verse, the other two things that has talked about is a gift of the spirit right prophecy and tongues. So, it will be going when that same process that he will also be talking about another gift, which is the gift of knowledge, which he talks about in the previous chapter 12, where he talks about in verse 8, it says a word of knowledge. Knowledge comes from the same spirit so I believe what the Apostle Paul is speaking to is one of the gifts of the Spirit and the thing that will continually last on even into eternity will be love because God is love.

Dr. Faron Cole, Samuel Hampton II, Joseph Colini, Limarie Vargas, Charles E. Redmon Jr., Tim Neal. What is something that we need to be teaching the new generations? Jesus, when you're done teaching them about Jesus, teach them about Jesus. In Colossians 1:17 It says, and he is before all things, and in all things, and in him, all things consist, everything consists through Jesus. The word of God says, in Hebrews, he spoke the world into existence and he maintains them with the power of his word. So, everything is Jesus.

Samuel Hampton II, Tim Roeser, Charles. E Redmon Jr., Nick Lindsay, David Hughes II, Tim Neal. Why do Reformed Teachers teach regeneration precedes faith? You have to understand how reformed preachers look at the sovereignty of God and the will of God. You know the Bible clearly teaches that God knows us before the foundations of the world. God knows before the creation of the world he knows who is going to come to him and who is not, so we teach that this is all a part of God's Eternal plan. God knows beforehand now people say that just because he knows doesn't mean that he has preordain things to be that way but that's actually exactly what we're saying that God who is all knowing, all-powerful, and sovereign, just his knowledge makes things so so that that's what we're saying. Because God knows what is going to happen he has knowledge and he has sway in that that world. I don't teach regeneration before faith but I do teach that God is in control. Of that God you are saved because God allows you to be saved because God knows that you are going to be saved.

In this scripture, Jesus encourages His followers to be generous with their wealth in this life so that in the life to come their new friends will receive them “into eternal dwellings.” Use the monetary resources you have to reach out to others. We just want to let the nurses, doctors, and first line people know that they're appreciated. They've been through a lot. So, we do random acts of kindness, we take gift cards to Starbucks to the hospital and we hand them out to volunteers. As soon as they get the card, then they start crying and they just are so appreciative. Lady Meranda Hampton sits down with Julie and the ladies to discuss the challenges of maintaining a healthy church in our world today. We have a lot of 80-90-year-old seniors in our church and a lot of them live alone. A lot of them don't have relatives nearby. Seniors would just come to the build and just to be out the house. They may go on a picnic, they may come to the church and just hang out. Because of that being disturbed because of Covid, we did have a lot of seniors feeling hopeless. So, just being able to just send them a message, whether it be, you know, some of them, we sent cards in the mail so that they can have something tangible to hold and read to give them hope. We caught some on the phone. Try different methods just to keep them engaged to let them know that someone is here for you.

Stacy Simmons talks about how her organization is working to meet both physical and spiritual needs in her community. We serve actually 69 different zip codes and 16 different counties. And we couldn't have done it with lot with our volunteers at the Lord's Pantry. 40% of our volunteers have come out of the people we serve and that is God at work. The day they come to Pantry when they first walk in through the door they get to shop at the household and the closet. The reason we did it with the way we did is because statistics show, 40% of people that goes to pantries won't eat everything you give them. So, with us, when we purchase the food, I want to be in date and be good. Because anything that has the Lord's name, it has to be good. And if they pick it out we know they're going to eat it.

Samuel Hampton II, Tim Roeser, Charles. E Redmon Jr., Nick Lindsay, David Hughes II, Tim Neal. Would it be considered murder to destroy embryos that are no longer needed? To get a clear understanding, basically it comes down to Leviticus 17:11. The scripture says this that the life of the flesh is in the blood, and an embryo does not have blood flowing through it at that point. So, if that's the case, because you really can't freeze a human being and come back to life again. So, I'm not going to say it's okay. It's really a personal decision you have to sit down with your pastor sit down and get great counseling but it clearly it says that unless there's blood flowing in the body at some point, even in the embryo, that's when there is a life.
