

January to March Programs for KCVL/KCRK Colville WA

Issues affecting Stevens county area

School closings to On Site learning / remote learning via internet

Covid cases and immunization opportunities

Housing issues with homeless in Colville

Downtown Colville traffic / replacement of sewer/water lines

Mental Health issues in the county

Within local news broadcast 4 times per day the School superintendent was interviewed once each month on school plans of expanding in class learning and the challenges to getting kids into the classroom.

Tri County Health director was interviewed each week about current cases and hospitalizations due to Covid. Several weeks had two or more days with the Health Director on current conditions.

Colville mayor interviewed about lack of housing and the center set up for homeless at the American Legion hall.

Council members interviewed about closing of Main Street for utility replacement and effects on downtown merchants

County coroner interviewed in a two week series dealing with increase of suicides on 2020 and the large increase in 2021 in the county.

Local news presented M-F for 20 minutes at 7am, 8am, noon, 5pm. Saturday at 7am and 8am