THE MISSY OHE SHOW
MAY 2013

May 5th John Nystrom
The Nystrom Family was in Papa New Guinea to do Bible translations for the tribes there. They were not home when the tsunami hit there but went back to help the tribe. John talked about what was left, the help the people needed, and the translations that they have done while there. He also talked about the fact that he and his family are still involved with Bible translations with Wycliffe and they are traveling back to New Guinea in June.

May 12th Holly Marie
Holly Marie has written her first book 31 Rays of Hope. During the interview she discussed her book and the journey she took to get the book published. She talked about leaning on God and her mentors along the way. She also talked about her book and what readers would read if they bought her book.

May 19th Danna Demetre
Danna is a speaker. Danna spoke of her life's journey and the lessons that she has learned along her life. She talked about the different things she has learned through her lessons in life. She shared her faith in leaning on God in and through all things. She also talked about being transparent so others can learn from you.

May 26th Mercy Medical
Mercy Medical was started by Ed Boyer. They help to transport individuals to medical facilities by land or air when they cannot get there themselves because of a lack of finances. They travel all over the United States and will help anyone that is financially in need. Their main focus is on veterans.
