The Missy Ohe Show

October -December 2014

October 5th Cindy Egli Her Story on Cancer

Cindy Egli went through a battle of breast cancer. Cindy shared how she got through her battle by journaling. She took her journal entries and created a book with them. She now speaks about her journey with others. She talked about how God was present for her then and now.

October 12th Sheri Rose Sheppard

Sheri talked a lot about her past and the things that she has been through in her life. She talked about how God was there for her and how we can all overcome our challenges in life. She said that she speaks around the country telling women about the love of Christ and how they are making a difference.

October 19th Operation Christmas Child

We had the leader and the lead volunteer for the Northern Region on the show along with a man whom received a gift as a child in Russia. While in Russia he was an orphan along with his two sisters. He talked about the gifts he received and how those gifts helped him to realize that someone out there really does love him.

October 26th Renee Rongren Fundamentally Female

Renee is a public speaker and an author. We talked about her book and the joy she has in life. She talked about living her life without stress and enjoying every day and making sure everyone in their lives knows how special they are. She also talked about how they donate and help others when and where they can.

November 2nd Julie Hadden Fat Chance

Julie Hadden was on The Biggest Loser and became runner up. She talked about her struggles and challenges through her time on the show. The time she spent on the show helped her to dig deeper into her feelings and emotions. While there she gained a deeper relationship with Christ and was able to see how he was there for her. She also realized that her body was a temple and that she mattered to God.

November 9th Denise Reclaiming Your Heart

She commented on the todo lists that we make and how we feel bad about the things that we do not accomplish and we feel that is represents us. She said we wonder if who we are makes a difference. She asked if we ever wonder if the best years have already gone by. She says that "A failed relationship, a health crisis, a job loss, or the death of a loved one—all can cause us to hide out, go numb, give up. Before we even know it, we're simply coping with life instead of living it to the fullest.

November 16 Papa Jo

Joe Bradford better known as Papa Jo talked about the life he has lead up to this point. He shared that through all of the bad things that have happened God was there with him as well as the many lessons in life. He talked about homeless children and children without fathers and what that is doing to our nation. He talked about how we as a nation can come together to help these children
