2015 July – September

July

July 5th Monique Pearson Stretching Yourself
Monique shared her thoughts of trying to grow both personally and professionally. She said that there are times a person has to stretch himself or herself just like a rubber band. Monique found that out first hand when she had an injury and had to start working out slowly instead of at her full range of motion.

July 12th Missy Ohe Communication
Missy Ohe shared stories from previous shows. The shows she highlighted were ones that she interviewed people who went after their dreams and didn't let anything hold them back.

July 19th Mike Harbour Power Principles
Michael Harbour shared about his journey and where he is today. He shared that through God's help he has had the ability to do things he thought were impossible years ago. He grew up in a verbally abusive home and found that affirmations helped him on his journey.

July 26th Dawna Johnson Singer
Dawna is a Christian singer from Minneapolis. She has been touring around the country and people are enjoying the passion she has for serving the Lord through her musical ministry. She has two CDs out and has a full schedule where she sings her original music. She said that it hasn't been easy but that she couldn't imagine doing anything else.

August

August 2nd Author Ann Ault Topic: Hi From the Sky
Ann Ault has written a book about Heaven and the possibilities available to people. She said people talk about fairytales wishing they were true yet we have an amazing God that can do anything. We need to put our focus on Him and His glory.

August 9th Mike Harbour Power Principles
Michael Harbour shared about his journey and where he is today. He shared that through God's help he has had the ability to do things he thought were impossible years ago. He grew up in a verbally abusive home and found that affirmations helped him on his journey.

August 16th Bob Kittridge Life Changing
Bob shared about his struggles through his life and how he found himself spending the night in a jail cell. The experiences was enough for him to make a decision to change his life right then and there. Now he does all he can to make a positive impact on those around him.

August 23rd Dr. Hawkens Co Dependency
Dr. Hawkins shared about the dangers of co dependency. He talked about the warning signs and the research he has done on the subject. Co dependency does not help the individuals who are dependent or the person causing the dependency.

August 30th

Chris Brady

Going Dark

Chris Brady talked about his thoughts on going dark. Going dark is a term used to describe the lack of use of electronics. People are finding that they are consumed with electronics and need a break from all of their devices. They are finding that people go through a withdrawal period at times without their devices. People are finding the ability to hold real conversations more and more difficult. Chris offered some suggestions on the subject as well.

Robyn Coates and Lara Shoup

Peace with Food

Robyn Coates and Lara Shoup discovered that they both shared a common struggle with food and their weight. They decided to go on a peace journey with food to see what they could discover about their addictions to food. They had such great success with this procedure that they decided to write a book and help others on their journeys as well.

September 20th

Miracle in Peru

Connie Kunkle

Connie Kunkle went on a trip with friends. While she was there she decided to take some photos. When she took a photo of school children going by in a parade she noticed one of the girls had a lazy eye. As soon as she took the photo the children moved on and she could not see the child anymore. Through the help of others she was able to locate the child and her family. Connie arranged for the little girl to have surgery and it is a good thing that she did. In another year the surgery would not have been successful because of her age. Connie believes that she was part of a miracle. She was grateful that God used her to help in this one.

September 27

Amanda

Bullying

Amanda Telker was severely bullied as a child. Amanda shared the things that she went through while being bullied and how she felt during that time in her life. She also shared how she feels today looking back. She prays for the people that chose to bully her and hopes that through this show others will learn. She is also very grateful that her relationship with God has grown stronger over the years.
