IN RESPONSIVE PROGRAMMING IN THE 2nd QUARTER 2017:

WOMEN'S IMPOWERMENT/HEALTH: A major conversation on the Importance of women eating the proper foods for good nutrition
And health. A cancer survivor tells her story. Also a former S.U.
Grad tells her story about college life in the 80's.

INVESTING/SMALL BUSINESS: A very insightful look into alternative
Investments for local residents and small business owners. What
Is the difference between alternative and traditional investments?
The results of a new survey concerning investment habits of Those nearing retirement.

FLOODING AND COASTAL ISSUES: As we head into the upcoming boating
And tourism season a serious discussion about the environmental Impact of the recent flooding and high water conditions affecting our
Many coastal areas. Also the NYSG Discover Clean and Safe
Boating Campaign. Two parts.

AGRICULTURE/RESCUE MISSION: Local farmers are faced with many Issues such as: diverse farmer memberships, educational opportunities,
Lower commodity prices, increasing minimum wage, migrant workers
And much more. Many local farmers support the Food Bank and Rescue
Mission. Also discussion of upcoming fund raisers.

IMMIGRATION/SANCTUARY CITIES: Syracuse is a sanctuary city. A
Deep debate concerning the pros and cons of this policy and
Its effects on local citizens and the economy. Important points
Brought out on both sides of this controversial issue.

TOPICS AND BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF DISCUSSED ISSUES:

A discussion about every parent’s nightmare and that is how do I Communicate with my child (children)? The ideal family image is a fantasy, But a realistic version may be possible. The answer lies in communication, And in this digital age, teaching communication skills to parents and children Is more important than ever. Besides parenting and persuasion, we talk about Emotional literacy. Parents should listen to understand, rather than to respond.
