

ISSUES & PROGRAM REPORTS

WZUN-AM PHOENIX, NY

2Q 2022

ISSUES OF CONCERN TO PHOENIX, NY (OSWEGO COUNTY) ADDRESSED IN RESPONSIVE PROGRAMMING IN THE 2nd QUARTER OF 2022:

COMMUNITY APPEAL

4/10-4/17 Rural Development of US Dept. of Agriculture discussion on assisting rural individuals, businesses, and communities. 4/24 Programs supported by the CNY Community Foundation 5/8 Andrew Cuddy with Cuddy Law Firm on their mission to advocate for students and adults with special needs 5/29 Fundraising Manager Dede Van Allen and Director of Education Michelle Horton for Launch CNY discussed services for students, adults, and individuals with special needs, especially their upcoming golf tournament fundraiser.

GRIEVING/HEALING THERAPY

5/1 Pet Partners CNY discussed the emotional effect their therapy sessions and events have on community 6/5 James Evans the Director of Outreach and Engagement for CARE highlighted programs aimed at improving the emotional, mental, and physical well-being of seniors through community building activities.

ECONOMY

5/15 Ted and Betty Stark and Development Officer Prayga Murphy from CNY Community Foundation highlighted their donor advised fund to bring students facing difficult economic times and racial inequality to Disney World with hopes of inspiration as they start facing life decisions.

POVERTY

6/12 Gary Mann Project Manager for the Auburn Rescue Mission spoke on current status to help end homelessness in the community

AGRICULTURE

6/19 A discussion on sustainable eco-friendly farming and gardening with Stephanie Brainard farmer at the Brainard Farmette and a Master Gardener with the Cornell Cooperative Extension of Onondaga County

EDUCATION

6/26 Local Central New Yorker and AccessLex Institute National Director of Financial Education, Derek Brainard discusses the free services his organization offers to law students and those considering an education in law.

4/10/22

Guest: State Director Brian Murray and State Engineer John Helgren from the Rural Development branch of the US Department of Agriculture

Topic: Ways they help rural individuals, businesses, and communities in CNY – Part 1.

4/17/22

Guest: State Director Brian Murray and State Engineer John Helgren from the Rural Development branch of the US Department of Agriculture

Topic: Ways they help rural individuals, businesses, and communities in CNY – Part 2.

4/24/22

Guest: Ahmeed Turner, VP of the CNY Community Foundation

Topic: Say Yes Syracuse, Believe in Syracuse, and other programs supported by the CNY Community Foundation.

5/1/22

Guest: Susan Pedrosa Pet Partners CNY President and current Handler/Evaluator

Topic: The emotional effect their therapy teams have on the community.

5/8/22

Guest: President and Managing Attorney Andrew Cuddy with Cuddy Law Firm

Topic: Their mission to advocate for students and adults with special needs.

5/15/22

Guest: Stakeholders Ted and Betty Stark and Development Officer Prayga Murphy from CNY Community Foundation

Topic: Dunbar Disney Dreams Program – donor advised fund to bring students facing difficult economic times and racial inequality to Disney World with hopes of inspiration as they start facing life decisions.

5/29/22

Guest: Fundraising Manager Dede Van Allen and Director of Education Michelle Horton for Launch CNY

Topic: Services for students, adults, and individuals with special needs, especially their upcoming golf tournament fundraiser.

6/5/22

Guest: James Evans the Director of Outreach and Engagement for CARE, the Center for Aging, Research, and Enrichment.

Topic: Programs aimed at improving the emotional, mental, and physical well-being of seniors through community building activities.

6/12/22

Guest: Gary Mann Project Manager for the Auburn Rescue Mission

Topic: Current status to help end homelessness in the community

6/19/22

Guest: Stephanie Brainard farmer at the Brainard Farmette and a Master Gardener with the Cornell Cooperative Extension of Onondaga County.

Topic: Sustainable eco-friendly farming and gardening.

6/26/22

Guest: Local Central New Yorker and AccessLex Institute National Director of Financial Education, Derek Brainard

Topic: Free services his organization offers to law students and those considering an education in law.