Prepared by Joe Salzone

ISSUES OF CONCERN TO SANDY CREEK, NY (OSWEGO COUNTY) ADDRESSED IN RESPONSIVE PROGRAMMING IN THE 4TH QUARTER OF 2018:

GRIEVING AFTER MASS TRAGEDY

A deadly limo crash in Schoharie led to a discussion about widespread grief on Oct. 14.

MIDTERM ELECTIONS/STATE POLITICS

The midterm elections in CNY, including the 24th Congressional race, were discussed on Nov. 4 and Nov. 11. Additionally, the topic of prohibition on a future ballot was the subject of a two-part show on Oct. 21 and Oct. 28.

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

On Dec. 9, the president of CenterStateCEO discussed economic development in Onondaga County and across the region. He also explained how the group works with neighboring counties. The Onondaga County Executive identified economic development as an area of improvement on Dec. 16.

INFRASTRUCTURE

The Onondaga County Executive said on Dec. 16 that infrastructure is crucially important, especially modernizing the county's sewer system. On Dec. 23, the county executive discussed the status of the I-81 project.

POVERTY

The Onondaga County Executive talked about the poverty problem in the county, and a new initiative to give jobs to the homeless population in Syracuse on Dec. 16.

TOURISM

Promoting regional tourism in Syracuse on Oct. 7.

COMMUNITY APPEAL

The Food Bank of Central New York and how they assist people throughout CNY was the subject of the show on Nov. 25, while discussing how CNY's Salvation Army spends money they raises yearly in the Red Kettle campaign was the topic on Dec. 2. Plus, the director of the countywide United Way responded to questions about helping people in CNY. Finally, a local motivational speaker wants to help people find their purpose on Dec. 23 and Dec. 30.

WSCP-AM program that addresses community issues is 'For The Record with Joe Salzone.' It airs Sunday mornings at 6 o'clock.
