Community Spotlight on Hope Chest for Women	Hope is incredible isn't it? When it seems like all is going WRONG around you, a little glimmer of hope can keep you going. So, when a woman learns that she has breast cancer, many women feel like they have NO hope. But Kim Battle and Debbie Burchfield are changing that narrative, by providing money for gas, groceries and other things with a smile to women with breast cancer...providing tangible hope in their time of need. Community Spotlight on Pray for NC	According to a recent study, fewer than half of American Christians pray daily. That should not be! How do we regain a passion for prayer as a nation? By starting on a local level. Tonya Skelly and Greg Christopher have a heart to help foster local prayer groups and are here to talk about how! They've also started the Pray for North Carolina prayer walk coming up!	10/8/2023	8:30pm	14:48
Community Spotlight on The Singles Network	Never married, divorced, or widowed. Whatever the reason for singleness, that's where you are. In fact, that's where more than 50 percent of Americans are...single. What is God doing though in this season? He has a purpose for your life, but finding it is easier than you may think. Kris Swiatocho has lead The Singles Network Ministries for years and has a special word for singles today about how God is at work in your life.	10/15/2023	8:30pm	12:55

Community Spotlight on Mission Increase	Mission work is so amazing and incredibly fulfilling! For many smaller non-profit ministries though, getting the funding needed to support their work can be an unwanted hurdle. In fact, a large number of those in ministry have little to no training on how to raise money, or understand why it's important. Mission Increase out of Greenville, SC exists to support small non-profits and train leaders how to effectively raise money so their mission can continue. Arnold gives great advice and shares how to choose a non-profit to give to this year if you'd like to help make a difference financially.	12/3/2023	8:30pm	12:34
