

WPRL 91.7 FM Quarterly Issues Programs List

July-September 2023

Placed in the Public File on October 30, 2023

July 2023

No Events

Community: A city wide clean up took place in Port Gibson Ms. On August 19,2023, the event was organized by Alderwoman Myrtle Hedrick, Lula Buck. The community came to help with worthy cause, WPRL 91.7 FM was glad to help and cover this annual community event.

WPRL 91.7 FM was an invited guess for the Rual Economic Development Initiative Kick-off reception the event was held on August 24, 2023, at 3:00 thanks to Mr. Milton Chambliss.

Port Gibson had its ribbon cutting for The Blue Barn Theatre. The event was held on August 1, 2023 and was attended by many in the community. Special performance was by blues artist Big Yayo, Port Gibson's own & award-winning 'Divas Elite'. WPRL 91.7 FM covered the event.

WPRL 91.7 FM Quarterly Issues Cont.

Event: WPRL 91.7 FM has covered Jefferson County HS. Football for over the last 10 years on every Friday night radio broadcast gives the young men in the area a chance to be promoted on the radio for their hard work on, off the field. Thanks to the Jefferson County School Board and Superintendent. The season starts in Sept. and ends in Nov.

JD Boyd library had their annual Friends of the library event on Sept. 13, 2023 in the Gold Room. The event was attended by many students, faculty and staff. WPRL provided the music for the event.

The School of Agriculture and Applied Science held its annual Small Farmers Conference on Sept. 25-27 in Flowood Ms. At the Sheraton Flowood the Refuge Hotel & Conference Center. The event was well attended by farmers from across the states, the local Flowood officials, Alcorn faculty and staff. The theme was Sustaining Agriculture Practices for Small Farmers Through the impact of Climate Change. WPRL covered all three days.

Alcorn State University held its annual Fall Career Expo 2023, the event was held on Sept. 28, 2023, in the Davey L. Whitney HPER Complex. This event gives students especially the seniors an opportunity to speak with the many businesses that was represented on that day some students were even offered interns on site. WPRL 91.7 FM covered the all day event.

Events Cont. Alcorn State University Convocation was held on Thursday September 21 at 10am in the historic Okland Memorial Chapel. This year's speaker was Valmadge Towner president of Coahoma Community College and superintendent of Coahoma Early College High School. This year's event was hosted by the College of Agriculture and Applied Sciences. Founders Day is a special celebration of Alcorn's history and the influential student's faculty and staff. The annual event was attended by many faculty, students, staff and the local community and officials. WPRL 91.7 FM again covered the event.