(MERRILL RABUS, NEW TENANT: it's been amazing they've really done a lot of work fast) RABUS HAS BEEN HOMELESS OFF AND ON FOR NEARLY 10 YEARS. BUT HE LOOKS FORWARD TO THE SIMPLE PLEASURES OF HAVING A PLACE TO CALL HOME. (MERRILL RABUS, NEW TENANT: I can do that, I can wake up at midnight and get a cold bowl of cereal if I want.) HE ALSO UNDERSTANDS THE RESPONSIBILITES. (MERRILL RABUS, NEW TENANT: this is my bathroom so if it's a mess I know who to blame and who to get onto) RABUS IS ONE OF A DOZEN MEN WHO Has COMPLETED A life-skills PROGRAM AT THE UNION RESCUE MISSION. Because of that - he has a place to lay his head.... (nat: testing springs on bed) until he can WORK TO SAVE UP FOR MORE PERMANENT HOUSING. The QUICK CONSTRUCTION IS A BLESSING.
