Section I
ISSUES OF CONCERN TO THE COMMUNITY

KEIB-AM 1150 provides its listeners with programming that addresses issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

CRIME

Many topics under this heading were prominent this quarter. In Santa Ana, several inmates (two of whom were convicted of murder) escaped a maximum security jail and were on the run for several days, leading to a concern for public safety. In addition, the trial of the Grim Sleeper, who is believed to be LA's most prolific serial killer, believed to have killed dozens of women over the course of 30 years, has started.

MEDIA

This quarter a controversy over nominations for the Oscars garnered attention. For two years in a row, no black actors were nominated in major categories, which has prompted the hashtag #OscarsSoWhite. Several prominent actors have vowed to boycott the awards. Discussed the issue at hand and on a larger scale, as to whether or not black actors get the same opportunities as white actors in Hollywood.

POLITICS

This quarter, a prominent issue was the 2016 presidential election. With primary season starting, we followed both sides of the political aisle and discussed all candidates and the issues that the American public want these candidates to tackle. We aired several debates live without commercial interruption and gave analysis on those debates and town halls.

PUBLIC SAFETY

This quarter, the Porter Ranch gas leak was still a prominent issue. Residents of the area complained that they were suffering from negative health affects because of a gas leak from one of So Cal Gas' gas lines. Company officials insisted the leak did not pose a hazard to the health of the public, but they relocated hundreds of residents until the problem could be fixed. So Cal Gas said the leak may not be capped until March and in late February they managed to cap the leak and worked to get residents back into their homes. Legal action is expected with several residents already filing lawsuits against So Cal Gas.

TERRORISM

During the quarter one of the topics in this category was the armed militia that seized a government wildlife building in Oregon and refused to leave in a protest against the U.S. Bureau of Land Management, they stayed for several weeks until they finally agreed to leave. During that time, while several of the members were on an outing they were arrested by FBI and during that arrest, one of the militia members was killed, authorities said it looked like he was reaching for a gun.

Section II
LOCAL PROGRAMMING

This section lists regularly-scheduled and special programs that represent the station's issue-responsive programming providing the most significant treatment of the issues listed above for the calendar quarter.
