WILM
 Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WILM provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Health: Delaware expands its drug abuse treatment services in response to growing opioid epidemic; Autism Delaware pushes for greater funding to provide services to autistic children and their families; the American Cancer Society explains its work across the state.
- Transportation: Dover/Kent County Metropolitan Planning Organization works on a long-term plan to improve transportation in central Delaware, AAA Mid-Atlantic explores the dangers faced by young drivers
- Education: Delaware State University hires a new director of its Aviation Studies program; NCAA honors Sanford School student for her community service
- Economic Development: The opening of DE Turf sports complex near Frederica expands sports tourism in Delaware; Kent Tourism fights to keep state funding.
- Animal Welfare: Faithful Friends Animal Society raises money for only no-kill animal shelter in the state, discusses impact of economy on pet owners.

Section I
