

Period: 4th Quarter October-December 2019

Location (Markets): There follows a listing of some of the significant issues responded to by WRVL, WVRI, WVRP, WVRA, WVRD, WVRL, WBOP, WVRH- Coverage area of VA and NC- along with the most significant programming treatment of those for the period of 10/01/19-12/31/19. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

10/12/19 6:00 AM

Program: Hometown Journal

Length: 9:30

Market: Bedford, VA (Lynchburg market)

Topic: Education

Interview: Jess Chatin; Dir. of Reading Buddies

Issues: Reading Buddies was created to help Bedford County elementary school children improve their reading comprehension as well as overall academic performance. The students read to their selected stuffed animal (buddy) in an effort to encourage confidence and imagination.

10/26/19 6:00 AM

Program: Hometown Journal

Length: 22:30

Market: Rocky Mount, NC

Topic: Economic Development-Small Business Center

Interview: Theresa Peaden; Dir. Small Business Center

Issues: Education programs for new business and current business owners. Theresa Peaden explained how the center connects business owners with the necessary tools to launch and maintain their business including course material, workshops, and mentoring.

11/15/19

Program: Morning Journey AM Show

Length: 3:38

Market: Lynchburg-all Journey Network markets

Topic: Salvation Army Angel Tree campaign

Interview: Tammy Shank of the Lynchburg area Salvation Army

Issues: Providing gifts for needy at Christmas. Tammy discussed how the Angel Tree campaign benefits those in need by providing clothing and other necessities at Christmas. She explained how listeners can participate in helping to meet those needs during the holiday season.

11/16/19 6:00 AM

Program: Hometown Journal

Length: 30:00

Market: All Journey Network markets

Topic: Operation Christmas Child

Interview: Various Samaritan's Purse staff members and volunteers

Issues: The program highlighted the Operation Christmas Child campaign to deliver necessities and toys to children in underdeveloped countries. Journey radio listeners participated in the campaign by packing shoe boxes full of gifts to be sent to the children. The program included audio from villages and communities that received the packages as well as comments from the organizers of OCC.

11/21/19

Program: Morning Journey AM show

Length: 3:43

Market: All Journey Network markets

Topic: Upcoming conference for men

Interview: Dr. Tim Clinton; President of Ignite Men's Conference

Issues: Dr. Clinton discussed an upcoming conference (in Lynchburg, VA) promoting fatherhood, being a better husband, leadership, and family related issues.

12/07/19 6:00 AM

Program: Hometown Journal

Length: 18:27

Market: Lynchburg (plus all Journey markets)

Topic: Human Kind-child and adult development

Interview: Ashleigh Carol; Dir. of Communications

Issues: Ashleigh discussed the origin of Human Kind dating back to its beginning as an orphanage. She also explained the current mission of promoting foster care, working with individuals with developmental disabilities, promoting health and wellness, and improving the economic status of families.

12/28/19

Program: Hometown Journal

Length: 30 minutes

Market: All Journey Network markets

Topic: Year in Review

Interviews: The year in review program included interviews with representatives from Habitat for

Humanity (Roanoke), TV personality Maggie Thorne, Samaritan's Purse, Former NFL player and Lynchburg native Rashad Jennings, and Victory Junction Camp in Randleman, NC

Issues: The broadcast recapped The Journey's participation in the Habitat for Humanity Apostles Build including involvement from area churches in building a house for a family. TV personality and athlete Maggie Thorne shared tips on health and nutrition, and her work in empowering young girls to achieve their goals. Rashad Jennings shared details of his 180 program to address Lynchburg economic and poverty issues. NASCAR's Kyle Petty shared the vision of Victory Junction Camp and its efforts to provide a camping experience for children with severe illnesses and disabilities.

