

On the Record

30-minute weekly program
Thursdays at 7:00pm on KLRN

Hosted by veteran journalist Jim Forsyth of WOAI radio, On the Record features interviews with San Antonio's key players in politics, business and community activism. Each week, Jim also hosts a roundtable discussion with local journalists who keep a pulse on important issues impacting our city.

301

First air date/time: January 16, 2020 7:00pm

On The Record this week, Sheriff Salazar explains how jail inmate deaths have prompted an investigation into medical care by University Hospital. VIA's President and Chair both join guest host Leslie Bohl to discuss the VIA Reimagined plan, and how they expect it to increase ridership. Then, on the Reporters Roundtable, Express News Reporters Brian Chasnoff and Joshua Fechter discuss their coverage of the controversial Rey Feo land deal and the plan to move city money from aquifer protection to transportation.

Participants and their affiliations, titles (if applicable):

Leslie Bohl, Host

Sheriff Javier Salazar

Jeff Arndt, President, VIA Metro Transit

Rey Saldana, Chairman, VIA Metro Transit Board

Brian Chasnoff, Columnist, SA Express News

Joshua Fechter, Reporter, SA Express News

302

First air date/time: January 23, 2020 7:00pm

On The Record this week, guest host Leslie Bohl focuses on the plan to move the Edwards aquifer water protection program from the city's oversight to SAWS. She hears from the Mayor on why he thinks that will work, and from SAWS President and CEO Robert Puente on what the plan could mean for SAWS customers. On the Reporters Roundtable this week, Express News columnist Elaine Ayala and business editor Greg Jefferson guest, with more discussion about the SAWS plan, and the controversy over the San Antonio College mascot.

Participants and their affiliations, titles (if applicable):

Leslie Jones, Host

Mayor Ron Nirenberg

Robert Puente, SAWS President and CEO

Elaine Ayala, Columnist, Express News

Greg Jefferson, Business Editor, Express News

303

First air date/time: January 30, 2020 7:00pm

On The Record this week, guest host TJ Mayes talks with Molly Cox, President and CEO of SA2020, about the organizations annual report released this week. San Antonio is seeing success in lowering teen pregnancy rates, and increasing high school graduation rates, but there are challenges we are facing, as Cox explains. We also hear about the city's efforts in creating a strategic plan for the homeless with the city's homeless program administrator Morjorie White.

And on Reporters Roundtable, Express News columnist Scott Huddleston explains the latest decision on the Cenotaph, and Gilbert Garcia discusses the Precinct 3 County Commissioners Race.

Participants and their affiliations, titles (if applicable):

TJ Mayes, Host

Molly Cox, Pres/CEO, SA 2020

Morjorie White, Homeless Administrator, City of SA

Gilbert Garcia, Columnist, SA Express News

Scott Huddleston, Reporter SA Express News

304

First air date/time: February 6, 2020 7:00pm

This week On The Record, guest host Molly Cox talks with District 9 Councilman John Courage about tax incentives for new housing projects downtown. When should the city say no to the developers? She also talks about the city's new focus on dealing with domestic violence...how it works, and what's next for the plan with Melody Woosley, Director of the city's Department of Human Services. On Reporters Roundtable, Rivard Report Education Reporter Emily Donaldson details her current story on wasteful energy spending by the Northside ISD, and Express News Columnist Gilbert Garcia talks about the serious issues facing the local Republican Party leadership.

Participants and their affiliations, titles (if applicable):

Molly Cox, Host

Melody Woosley, Director, Department of Human Services, City of SA

John Courage, Councilman, District 9

Gilbert Garcia, Columnist, San Antonio Express News

Emily Donaldson, Education Reporter, Rivard Report

305

First air date/time: February 13, 2020 7:00pm

The first case of Coronavirus has been confirmed at JBSA-Lackland in the group of evacuees currently under quarantine. Guest Host TJ Mayes talks with the CDC's Deputy Director Capt. Jennifer McQuiston on what the public needs to know. Then, SA Chamber of Commerce President Richard Perez shares what the San Antonio delegation accomplished on its recent trip to Washington DC. And on the Reporters Roundtable, hear more about the students rights push in SAISD from Express News Education Reporter Alia Malik, and details on how the Express News Editorial Board decides which candidates to endorse from Editorial Page Editor Joshua Brodesky.

Participants and their affiliations, titles (if applicable):

Capt. Jennifer McQuiston, Deputy Director, CDC
Richard Perez, President, SA Chamber of Commerce
Joshua Brodesky, Editorial Page Editor, SA Express News
Alia Malik, Education Reporter, SA Express News

306

First air date/time: February 20, 2020 7:00pm

This week On The Record, County Judge Nelson Wolff talks with guest host Molly Cox about his effort to have the CDC keep coronavirus evacuees on base if they need medical treatment, instead of transporting them to area hospitals. The, District 10 Councilman Clayton Perry explains why he didn't want to see the PreK 4 SA vote moved to the May election. And on the Reporters Roundtable, Express News Columnists Gilbert Garcia and Greg Jefferson discuss city issues including Pre-K 4 SA and the search for a new VIA chair.

Participants and their affiliations, titles (if applicable):

Molly Cox, Host
Bexar County Judge Nelson Wolff
District 10 Councilman Clayton Perry
Greg Jefferson, Business Editor/Columnist, SA Express News
Gilbert Garcia, Columnist, SA Express News

307

First air date/time: February 27, 2020 7:00pm

This week On The Record, guest host Michael Board talks with District 1 Councilman Robert about the controversial Renters Commission and about the latest on the Alamo Plaza renovations. We also spend time with Krystal Jones, San Antonio Film Commissioner, to talk about the growing film business here. On the Reporters Roundtable, Express News reporters Lauren Caruba and Emily Donaldson are on set to discuss the coronavirus and the billion dollar bond for SAISD.

Participants and their affiliations, titles (if applicable):

Michael Board, Host
Roberto Trevino, District 1 Councilman
Krystal Jones, San Antonio Film Commissioner
Emily Donaldson, Education Reporter, SA Express-News
Lauren Caruba, Health Reporter, SA Express-News

308

First air date/time: March 26, 2020 7:00pm

San Antonio Mayor Ron Nirenberg joins host T.J. Mayes with the latest information on the COVID 19 crisis and mandatory shelter-in-place order for the city of San Antonio.

Participants and their affiliations, titles (if applicable):

Mayor Ron Nirenberg