Section 3: Other Public Service Announcements

Section 1: Issues and Concerns in the Fayetteville, NC Area

Issue: Reclaiming Education On America's Constitutional Heritage

Air Date: April 1, 2023

Air Time: 0700

Synopsis: This week on Family Policy Matters, host Traci DeVette Griggs welcomes Jameson Broggi, one of the primary supporters of the North Carolina REACH Act (Reclaiming Education on America's Constitutional Heritage Act). This legislation would require three credit hours of instruction in American history and our nation's founding documents as a prerequisite for graduation from North Carolina's public universities and community colleges.

Issue: The Other Side Of Racism

Air Date: April 8, 2023

Air Time: 0700

Synopsis: This week on Family Policy Matters, host Traci DeVette Griggs welcomes Kenny Xu to discuss an alternative to diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) requirements, especially in the healthcare industry. Xu is the author of the book An Inconvenient Minority, the president of Color Us United, and a resident of North Carolina.

Issue: Legalizing Marijuana

Air Date: April 15, 2023

Air Time: 0700

Synopsis: This week on Family Policy Matters, host Traci DeVette Griggs welcomes Jaime Zerbe, chief of staff at Smart Approaches to Marijuana, along with NC Family's Jere Royall and Sharon Sullivan to discuss the dangers of "medical" marijuana and the impact it could have on North Carolina.

Issue: Reclaiming Feminism

Air Date: April 22, 2023

Air Time: 0700

Synopsis: This week on Family Policy Matters, host Traci DeVette Griggs welcomes Erika Bachiochi to discuss the true heart of feminism, and how we can work to reclaim the original vision and achieve true equality (spoiler alert, it involves celebrating gender differences instead of denying them).

Issue: Protecting Our Teens

Air Date: April 29, 2023

Air Time: 0700

Synopsis: Addressing the drastic rise in mental health problems, especially amongst teens. This has become apparent not just in how frequently we are talking about things like depression and anxiety, but also by the rise in actions such as suicide that are measurable indicators.

This week on Family Policy Matters, host Traci DeVette Griggs welcomes Dr. Jean Twenge, an author and Professor of Psychology at San Diego State University, to discuss why this rise is occurring and what we can do to protect our teens.

Issue: Attacks on Religious Liberty

Air Date: May 6, 2023

Air Time: 0700

Synopsis: Attacks against churches in the United States have been steadily rising over the past five years. Unfortunately, North Carolina had seven of these incidents, making us the top state for church attacks so far in 2023.

This week on Family Policy Matters, host Traci DeVette Griggs welcomes back Arielle Del Turco, Director of the Center for Religious Liberty at Family Research Council, to discuss the rise in these attacks, how they are impacting religious liberty, and what we can do about it.

Issue: The Damage of the Sexual Revolution

Air Date: May 13, 2023

Air Time: 0700

Synopsis: From abortion to divorce, the Sexual Revolution altered our culture in countless ways. Families have been torn apart from the societal changes brought about as a result of this era, which can be linked to gang violence, protests, and civil unrest.

This week on Family Policy Matters, host Traci DeVette Griggs welcomes Mary Eberstadt, Author and Senior Research Fellow at the Faith & Reason Institute, to discuss the damage that is still being done as a result of the sexual revolution, and how the church can work to combat it.

Issue: Public Education in America

Air Date: May 20, 2023

Air Time: 0700

Synopsis: This week on Family Policy Matters, host Traci DeVette Griggs welcomes Alvin Lui, President of Courage is a Habit, to discuss the ways that some school systems in America are dumbing down our children and pushing a liberal agenda.

Issue: 3 Ways The 2024 Elections Will Look Different In North Carolina

Air Date: May 27, 2023

Air Time: 0700

Synopsis: This week on Family Policy Matters, host Traci DeVette Griggs welcomes Dr. Andy Jackson, Director of the Civitas Center for Public Integrity at the John Locke Foundation, to discuss the North Carolina Supreme Court's recent reversals and the implications they will have for the 2024 elections.

Issue: The New Focus For The Ethics And Religious Liberty Commission

Air Date: June 3, 2023

Air Time: 0700

Synopsis: This week on Family Policy Matters, host Traci DeVette Griggs welcomes Brent Leatherwood, the new president of the Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission, to discuss what's in store for the organization in the near future.

Issue: An OB/GYN Corrects Abortion Myths

Air Date: June 10, 2023
