

QUARTERLY ISSUES PROGRAMS LIST FOR STATION - WFXX

JANUARY 1 - MARCH 31, 2023

PLACED IN THE PUBLIC FILE - APRIL 7, 2023

SECTION 1 - ISSUES

The station has identified the following issues pertaining to our community this quarter:

1. Community Affairs

SECTION 2 - RESPONSIVE PROGRAMMING

WFXX has broadcast the following programming with the referenced identified issues

1. Community Affairs

JANUARY

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on January 6 at 5:03 pm Andalusia Chamber director Laura Wells was interviewed for 9 minutes the increased traffic for Candyland, the City of Andalusia's Christmas event. Duffy said the city attracted the most visitors in Candyland's history, including visitors from 14 different states. This past event featured additional events like free music concerts and extended hours for ice skating, the ice slide and "snow" events on the court square.

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on January 19 at 4:04 pm Andalusia Chamber director Laura Wells was interviewed for 11 minutes about the upcoming Andalusia Chamber of Commerce annual membership banquet. The banquet will be held January 20 at 5 pm and will be titled "Champions in Business." Wells said it will be an ESPY type awards night celebrating local businesses. A 7 pm dinner will be followed by the awards ceremony and then guest speaker, Bert Bean of Insight Global. Entertainment will also come from a Harlem Wizard performer. For more information on the annual Chamber Banquet, Wells told listeners to call the chamber at 334 222-2030, or search Facebook for complete Banquet details.

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on January 31 at 5:05 pm City of Andalusia Public Information Director Michele Gurlach provided information concerning registration for Andalusia baseball and softball leagues. Registration opened today, January 31 and will continue until February 15. Baseball is open to ages 4-15 and softball is for ages 4-12. Tryouts for both sports will be Friday, Feb 17 and a $35 registration fee is required for both sports for one child, $55 for 2 children and $75 for 3 or more children. Scholarships are also available for those with a financial need. Register at Johnson Park or online at cityofandalusia.com. For more information, listeners were asked to call 334 222-2714.

FEBRUARY

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on February 2 at 4:07 pm, Kayla Salter, representing the Covington Equine Association, was interviewed for 10 minutes about the group's upcoming Valentine Dance. The dance is scheduled for Saturday, February 11 and will be held at the Covington Center Arena, located on the North Bypass in Andalusia. Tickets will be $20 for adults and $5 for children and all proceeds will go to the Regina Short Memorial Fund and Mentor Program. There will be a live band and a BBQ dinner served. For additional information, Salter urged listeners to call her at 334 504-9495, or search Covington Equine Association of Facebook.

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on February 3 at 5:11 pm, Leigh Darby, Assistant Director for the Evergreen Chamber of Commerce, provided information concerning investment opportunities for members of the Chamber. Darby's information urged local businesses to take advantage of a benefits package for individual businesses that includes a partnership with VIVA Health, ALLIANCE, as well as Canopy Insurance to offer businesses' employees comprehensive healthcare benefits at affordable rates. Darby asked listeners to call her for more information at 251 578-1000, or email CCAAquotes@allianceplans.com to receive individual quotes for local businesses.

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on February 24 at 4:03 pm, Covington Baptist Association (CBA) Director of Missions, Otis Corbitt, announced that disaster relief training is coming to Covington County March 17-18. Corbitt said disaster relief is a great ministry to people in need, but training is required for safety and effectiveness. The Alabama Baptist Disaster Relief Ministry is bring cleanup, recovery and chainsaw training to the local association Friday and Saturday, March 17-18. Although there is a registration fee, Corbitt said simply pay for the training and present a receipt after training is completed, and the CBA will reimburse each individual fully. To register and pay visit sbdr.org/event/disaster-relief-training-covington-association; that web address was repeated multiple times, and listeners were urged to call Corbitt at 334 222-3009. Leroy Cole and Larry Jackson will also be available to help those interested in the training.

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on February 28 at 4:33 pm, Fox 107 announced the State of Alabama had awarded a grant to Bethesda House, a local emergency domestic violence safehouse in the amount of $105, 757. Because of the possibility of immediate danger to the victims and occasional victim's children at the home, the location is not available to the public. However, Fox 107 urged any and all victims of domestic violence to call any local police department or sheriff's office for help, and if warranted, how to be placed in the secure location. WFXN is proud to stand with Alabama Governor Kay Ivey, who said "I commend these shelter organizations that are used to help victims flee volatile and often dangerous situations and find refuge and safety in those shelters." For more information, listeners were urged to call Fox 107 at 334 222-2222.

MARCH

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on Thursday, March 2 at 5:04 pm, LBW Community College Director of Community and Student Engagement, Katie King, was interviewed for 12 minutes concerning upcoming weekend events at LBW. King said Friday and Saturday, March 3-4 it's time for the 2nd Annual Saints on Stage, a variety show that will include singing groups and individuals, comedy skits, dancing and more, all provided by local entertainers from LBW Community College and the Andalusia area residents. King also said they are hosting LBW Homecoming on March 4th at the Andalusia campus. "This will be a great day of sports and early spring weather and we're excited to showcase our amazing sports teams. All community members are welcome to come out and join us for this FREE event." King said any listeners wanting additional information can contact her at 334 881-2236. King said local businesses can be sponsors of both events by emailing her at kking@lbwcc.edu.

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on March 15 at 5:12 pm, Mandi Morris, a teacher at Straughn Elementary School in Covington County, provided Fox 107 with important information for local parents. Straughn Elementary School kindergarten registration will take place Friday, March 24 from 8 am until 1 pm at Straughn Elementary School. Parents are asked to bring the child or children's birth certificate, Social Security Number, immunization record and proof of residence, such as a current utility bill. Morris said the child or children must be 5 years of age before September 1, 2023 to qualify for registration. Parents needing additional information were urged to call Straughn Elementary School at 334 427-1311.

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on March 23 at 4:06 pm, City of Andalusia Communications Director, Michele Gerlach provided information about the City's opening of The Splash Pad. The Splash Pad is a water recreation area for children of all ages and has become very popular at Andalusia's recreation park, Johnson Park. Gerlach said The Splash Pad will open on Saturday, March 25, just in time for Spring Break. Gerlach said The Splash Pad attraction will remain open through next weekend, then resume regular hours for the summer, closing on Mondays for maintenance. Listeners were urged to email Gerlach at Michele.Gerlach@cityofandalusia.com, or call 334 222-2714.