

QUARTERLY ISSUES PROGRAMS LIST FOR STATION - WFXX

4TH QUARTER - OCTOBER 1 - DECEMBER 31, 2023

PLACED IN THE PUBLIC FILE - JANUARY 10, 2024

SECTION 1 - ISSUES

The station has identified the following issues pertaining to our community this quarter:

1. Community Affairs

SECTION 2 - RESPONSIVE PROGRAMMING

WFXX has broadcast the following programming with the referenced identified issues

1. Community Affairs

OCTOBER

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on October 6 at 5:08 pm, LBW Community College in Andalusia recently announced another partnership with Shaw Industries. Already a corporate sponsor for the school's technical career field, Shaw recently made a donation to the LBW Community College Foundation. The Foundation exists to support the many programs of LBW Community College, as well as providing scholarships to students who will be pursuing career in their many technical training programs. Fox 107 announced the partnership in a live segment discussing local businesses partnering with the various educational institutions in the Andalusia and Covington County area.

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on October 19 at 4:05 pm, Andalusia Chamber of Commerce Director Maggie Mash was interviewed for 10 minutes concerning this year's trick or treat schedule for Halloween in Andalusia and surrounding areas Mash said beginning October 25 there will be a Halloween fun run in Lockhart at Longleaf Pine Memorial Park from 5-8pm; Opp's annual fall festival will be held downtown Opp Halloween night, and Andalusia will host its 13th annual Halloween on the City Square, sponsored by local merchants. Mash urged listeners to contact the Chamber office at 334 222-2030 for a complete Halloween schedule.

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on October 22 at 5:08 pm, Andalusia Kiwanis Club member Don Cotton was interviewed for 15 minutes about the upcoming Kiwanis Covington County Fair. This year's fair will take place October 23-29 with a full range of events and entertainment. Cotton said profits are always poured back into many local children's programs, including Miracle League, Full Tummy Project, Child Advocacy Center, Foster Parent Association and many more. Listeners were urged to visit the website, kiwaniscovingtoncountyfair.com, or follow Andalusia Kiwanis Club on Facebook for complete daily schedules.

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on October 24 at 5:08 pm, Andalusia Chamber of Commerce Executive Vice President Maggie Mash was interviewed on the phone about the ribbon cutting and open house for Dermatology Specialists of Alabama at their new office, located at 822 South Three Notch Street in Andalusia. The event will be held Wednesday, October 25 from 11 am until 1 pm and will be hosted by Jeffrey Stricker and Amanda Day, both of whom will practice at the new facility. Mash urged listeners to call the Chamber at 334 222-2030 for additional information.

NOVEMBER

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on November 7 at 5:10 pm, Fox 107 shared information about the upcoming Veterans Day Parade in Andalusia, sponsored by the Andalusia Chamber of Commerce and scheduled for Saturday, November 11 beginning at 10 am. All veterans and their family members are invited to ride in the parade on floats prepared by the chamber with lineup beginning at First Baptist Church on East Three Notch Street from 9-9:45 am. The parade will start around 10 am and will end at Andalusia City Hall, where there will be a short ceremony at Veterans Park. Listeners were urged to register for the event on the chamber's website, andalusiachamber.com.

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on November 17 at 4:30 pm, information was broadcast concerning a state grant that will directly help the city of River Falls provide a multi-use trail for local citizens. The grant, totaling $90,857, will provide construction of the trail, located at the River Falls Pavilion and property adjoining the River Falls Cemetery. The .3 mile concrete trail will be 8 feet wide and is one of several grants to provide Alabamians with new opportunities to enjoy the outdoors. The funds will help build, restore or improve trails at seven different locations across the state. Listeners were urged to call ADECA Communications director Jim Plott at 334 242-5525 for additional information.

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on November 24 at 5:07 pm, Katie King, Director of Student Activities and Community Engagement for LBW Community College in Andalusia, was interviewed for 11 minutes about the recently held Miss LBW Pageant. Rhian Grayson, a native of Greenville, Alabama, was crowned the new Miss LBW from among 11 finalists who attend LBW and are active in their communities. Grayson is a sophomore at LBW where she is a vocalist in the LBW Ensemble and is involved with the Bleed Blue Crew, Common Ground and Compass Club.

DECEMBER

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on Friday, December 1 at 5:10 on, Andalusia Mayor Earl Johnson, along with Andalusia Chamber President Maggie Mash, were interviewed for just under 20 minutes about the 10 anniversary celebration for Candyland, now held at both Springdale Estate and the Andalusia Court Square. Mash said a new interactive website, christmasincandyland.com, was up and running and contains the complete schedule for Christmas 2023 and New Year's hours as well. Mayor Johnson told listeners from perfect photo opportunities, play cottages for the kids, train rides, snow tubing, winter skating, lights and decorations, this year's Candyland will be the best ever. Mayor Johnson also said he expects to break another attendance record, set last year with just under 90,000 visitors. At the end of the interview we repeated the website christmasincandyland.com for listeners to get complete schedules for all events at Candyland.

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on December 5 at 5:12 pm, Maryanne Martin Murphy, director for the Andalusia Ballet Company, was interviewed for 11 minutes about the group's upcoming performance of The Nutcracker, scheduled for the Thursday, December 7 at 7 pm, Friday, December 8 at 7 pm and Saturday, December 9 at 2 pm and 7 pm at the LBW Dixon Center for the Performing Arts in Andalusia. General admission tickets are now available for $20 each and premium seating for $25 at Harold's Furniture and Christopher's Diamonds in Andalusia, or they can be purchased online at andalusiaballet.com. Listeners were urged to call Andalusia Ballet at 334-222-6620 for additional information.

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on December 14 at 5:04 pm, Greg Hein, interim Reverend at St. Mary's Episcopal Church in Andalusia, was interviewed for 11 minutes about the church's upcoming Jo's Community Christmas Dinner, an annual free event for the community. The dinner will be served Monday, December 25 from 11 am to 1 pm at the church's Parish Hall, with dine-in and carry out available. For delivery call the church at 334-222-2487 no later than Monday, December 18. Volunteers are also needed to help prepare, serve and clean up after the meal. There is no charge for the meal. Last Christmas just over 450 meals were served or delivered to local citizens and guests.